13.03 The Employer has the right to terminate the employment of a Probationary Employee at any time for any reason during the probationary period without notice or payment in lieu of notice. Such termination may be subject to the grievance procedure. However, the decision of the Employer's Board will be final and binding upon the Union and the Employee. There will be no recourse to Arbitration unless the Employer's decision to terminate was made in bad faith or was discriminatory.

13.04 In the event the Employer intends to extend an Employee's probation period, the Employer will complete a performance evaluation prior to the end of the probation period in accordance with Article 13.01 and notify the Union and the Employee of the reasons for the extension. The Probationary period may be extended up to an additional two (2) months. If an Employee is terminated during such an extension of the probationary period according to Article 13.03, the Employee will be entitled to one-week notice or payment lieu of the notice.

      ii) one (1) paid rest period of fifteen (15) minutes for shifts of more than three (3) hours of work and up to six (6) hours;
      iii) rest periods shall be deemed to commence when an Employee ceases to actively perform duties and shall not, in any circumstances, exceed fifteen (15) minutes, and will not be scheduled in conjunction with the start time, the end of shift or with meal break;
      iv) Employees will not leave the premises during a rest period without the prior approval of the Employer.
   (b) Exclude a meal period of thirty (30) minutes, to be at approximately the midpoint of the shift, during each working day in which the Employee works in excess of five (5) hours.
   (c) If an Employee is required to work during their meal period, the Employee shall be compensated for such time at their regular rate of pay, except where Article 17.01 applies.
16.04 The Employer will post the shift schedule at least one (1) week prior to the end of each payroll cutoff except where emergency or special circumstances prevent it.
   (a) The Employer will provide the Employees a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours' notice of a change to the shift schedule and a minimum of twelve (12) hours of rest between shifts, except where emergency or special circumstances prevent such notice, including but not limited to, illness on the part of a co-worker and/or staff/departmental meetings.

   (e) The schedule will run from payroll to payroll cutoff dates.

16.05 Shift exchange

   (f) The shift exchange must occur within the same pay period.

16.06 All Employees are expected to report for duty promptly, such that they are fully prepared to begin work at the designated shift start time.
16.07 Any Employee who is unable to report for duty at the designated time is expected to advise the Lodge Manager, or their supervisor, at the earliest possible time, but, in no event, less than three (3) hours prior to the start of the shift, six (6) hours in advance of a night shift except where emergency or special circumstances preclude such notice.

16.08 Any Employee who is absent from scheduled duties for three (3) consecutive days, without prior approval, shall be considered to have abandoned the position, and will be deemed to have resigned, unless it can be later shown to the Employer that emergency or special circumstances prevented adequate or timely notification to the Lodge Manager.

16.09 If a Relief Employee, despite their being offered shifts, has not worked any shifts within a 60 day period, the Employee will be considered terminated, except when on approved Leave.

ARTICLE 17: OVERTIME

17.01 Overtime is all time preauthorized by the Operations Coordinator, PCA Coordinator or Lodge Manager, or in their absence, the CAO, and worked by an Employee in excess of eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week, averaged over a fourteen (14) day period, whichever is greater.

(a) Notwithstanding Article 17.01, in emergency situations when the replacement worker has not shown up for scheduled duty, an Employee is permitted to remain on their shift at the overtime rate, after having made attempts to contact the Lodge Manager, the Operations Coordinator, PCA Coordinator or the CAO at both their home and cell phone numbers, until a designated replacement has shown up for duty or other instructions have been received from the Lodge Manager, the Operations Coordinator, PCA Coordinator or CAO.
