PREFACE

This Collective Agreement applies to:

All Employees at CapitalCare Dickinsfield (CapitalCare Dickinsfield Campus) when employed in general support services;

and

All Employees at CapitalCare Norwood when employed in general support services, but including Nursing Attendants.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the parties acknowledge that the primary purpose of the Employer, Union and Employees is to work together to provide quality person centered care while protecting the interests of the residents/patients/clients/employees and the community, and believing that this purpose can be achieved most readily if harmonious relationships exist between the Employer, Union and the Employees.

AND WHEREAS the Employer and the Union affirm that all staff of CapitalCare are entitled to a respectful work environment. The Employer and the Union will recognize the inherent dignity and rights of each individual.

AND WHEREAS the parties recognize that a positive work environment raises the level of job satisfaction for Employees. Therefore, the parties recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters of mutual concern and shall endeavour to find resolution to issues in a manner which is fair, reasonable and consistent with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1: TERM OF COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

- 1.01 Except where otherwise stated in this Collective Agreement, this Collective Agreement, including appendices hereto, unless altered by mutual consent of both Parties hereto, shall be in force and effect from and after the date upon which the Canadian Union of Public Employees and CapitalCare exchange notice of ratification of this Collective Agreement up to and including June 30, 2020, and from year to year thereafter unless amended or terminated. Notification of desire to amend or terminate may be given in writing by either Party during the period between sixty (60) and one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to its expiration date.
- 1.02 When either Party serves notice of desire to amend the Collective Agreement under Clause 1.01 above, the negotiating committees shall exchange any proposed amendments at commencement of negotiations.
- 1.03 This Collective Agreement shall continue in force and effect until a new Collective Agreement has been executed.

ARTICLE 2: DEFINITIONS

- 2.01 An "Employee" means any Employee of the Employer for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent and whose employment is designated in one of the following ways:

A part-time Employee will work a minimum of three (3) hours per shift. Except as specifically stated otherwise, the provisions of this Collective Agreement shall apply to Part-time Employees.
 - (b) "Casual Employee" means one who works on a call-in basis and is not regularly scheduled. However, a Casual Employee may be regularly scheduled for a period of three (3) months or less for a specific job, or may relieve for absences of three (3) months or less.

- 9.03 New Classifications
- (a) In the event that the Employer creates a new classification which is within the scope of the bargaining unit in accordance with Article 4: Union Recognition, and which is not listed as a classification in the "Salaries Appendix" the following will occur:

 - (ii) The Employer shall establish the basic rate of pay for the new classification and shall notify the Union of such rate.
 - (iii) In the event that the basic rate of pay for the new classification established by the Employer is not acceptable to the Union, the Union shall, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date they received notification of the basic rate of pay for the new classification, notify the Employer that they wish to meet to negotiate the basic rate of pay for the new classification established by the Employer.

- (iv) If a satisfactory conclusion to such negotiations is not reached within sixty (60) calendar days from the date that the Union received the basic rate of pay for the new classification established by the Employer, the Union shall have an additional fourteen (14) calendar days to refer, in writing, the matter of basic rate of pay for the new classification established by the Employer to Arbitration in accordance with Article 12: Grievance Procedure.
- (v) The time limits outlined in this Clause may be extended by mutual consent in writing between the Union and the Employer.
- (vi) In the event that the Union does not comply with the time limits established in this Clause, the basic rate of pay established by the Employer for the new classification shall prevail.

9.04 Change to Existing Classifications

In the event that the Employer changes the classification criteria of a classification listed in the "Salaries Appendix" the following will occur:

- (a) The Employer shall provide the changed classification criteria to the Union.
- (b) If changes to the classification criteria have the effect of significantly altering the core functions of an existing classification, the Union may, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date they received notification of the change, notify the Employer that they wish to negotiate the basic rate of pay of that classification.
- (c) If the Union is notified of the change to the classification criteria within the four (4) month period prior to the expiration date of the Collective Agreement, such negotiation and resolution of the basic rate of pay shall occur during the negotiation of the next Collective Agreement between the Parties.
- (d) If the Union is notified of the change to the classification criteria before the four (4) month period prior to the expiration date of the Collective Agreement, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (i) The Employer and the Union shall meet to negotiate the basic rate of pay for the classification for which the classification criteria have been changed.
 - (ii) If a satisfactory conclusion to such negotiations is not reached within sixty (60) calendar days from the date that the Union received notification of the changed classification criteria, the Union shall have an additional fourteen (14) calendar days to refer, in writing, the matter of the basic rate of pay for the classification for which the classification criteria have been changed, to Arbitration in accordance with Article 12: Grievance Procedure.
 - (iii) The time limits outlined in this Clause may be extended by mutual consent in writing between the Union and the Employer.
 - (iv) In the event that the Union does not comply with the time limits established in this Clause, the basic rate of pay established by the Employer for the

9.05 Change in Job Content

- (a) No Employees shall be required to perform duties outside their job description, or for which they are not trained, qualified or properly equipped to perform safely.
- (b) In the event that the primary functions of a position within the bargaining unit are changed, the Employer shall determine the appropriate classifications for such position. If after consultation with the Employer and the Union, the incumbent regular Employee wishes, they may appeal the Employer's decision in accordance with Article 12: Grievance Procedure, commencing at Step II.

9.06 Pay Rate Treatment Upon Reclassification

In the event that the Employer changes the classification allocation of the work being performed by a Regular Employee, to a classification with a lower basic rate of pay, such Employee, while employed in such position, shall remain on the pay range of the former classification and continue to accumulate entitlement salary increments within the pay range for a period of eighteen (18) months from the date of reclassification. After the expiry of the eighteen (18) month period the Employee shall not have their Basic Rate of Pay altered until such time as the Basic Rate of Pay in the lower paid classification is equal to or greater than the Employee's Basic Rate of Pay in effect at the expiry of the eighteen (18) month period.

 - (c) Part-Time and Casual Employees shall be entitled to a further increment following the completion of one thousand, eight hundred and thirteen point five (1813.5) hours worked from the date determined by (c)(a) above.

10.01 The Employer shall provide bulletin board space which shall be placed so that all Employees shall have access to it and upon which the Union shall have the right to post notice of meetings and such other notices as may be of interest to Employees. It is not the intention of the Union to post anything objectionable to the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to request that posted material damaging to the Employer be immediately removed. Bulletin board space is to be provided within sixty (60) days of opening a new facility or unit off site from the main Centre.

ARTICLE 11: SHOP STEWARDS

11.01 The Shop Steward System is accepted in principle by the Employer, and Shop Stewards will be recognized as having authority to act on behalf of other Employees. The names of Shop Stewards will be supplied in writing to the Employer before they are recognized as Shop Stewards. Therefore, no Shop Steward shall leave their work without obtaining the permission of their supervisor, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11.04 Shop Stewards shall suffer no loss in pay for time spent on the Employer's premises in performing their duties as Shop Stewards.

11.05 All Employees who attend Employee Management Advisory Committee (EMAC) meetings shall do so at no loss of regular pay. If at the request of management, the meeting is to be held outside of the Employee's regular scheduled hours of work, the Employer shall pay Employees at their regular hourly rate.

ARTICLE 12: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

12.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement.

12.02 Settling of Disputes and Grievances

An Employee or the Local Union Officer shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a C.U.P.E. Representative.

Step I

- (a) An Employee who believes that they have a problem arising out of the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement shall first discuss the matter with their immediate supervisor within ten (10) days of the date they first became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence. "Immediate Supervisor" means that person from whom an Employee normally receives their work assignments. The Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a Shop Steward or Local Union Officer while discussing the matter with their immediate supervisor. A sincere attempt shall be made by both Parties through discussion to resolve the problem at this level. The immediate supervisor shall advise the Employee of their decision within ten (10) days of the date the matter was first discussed.
- (b) In the event that the difference affects two (2) or more Employees, those so affected, or the Union, within ten (10) days of the date they first became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence, may make a written request to the Department Head that the grievances be grouped and dealt with as a single grievance commencing at Step II. A request to group such grievances will not be unreasonably denied.
- (c) In the event an Employee alleges that they have been dismissed or suspended without just cause, they may commence their grievance at Step III, within ten (10) days of the occurrence.

Step II

If the grievance is not resolved under Step I above, the grievance shall, within ten (10) days of the decision of the immediate supervisor, be forwarded in writing by the Union and the Employee concerned, to the Employee's Department Head or designate, specifying the nature of the grievance and the redress sought. The Department head or designate shall hold a hearing within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance and the Department Head or designate shall render a decision in writing to the Union within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing.

Step III

If the grievance is not resolved under Step II above, the Union shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of the written decision of the Department Head or designate, submit the grievance in writing to the Site Director, with a copy to the Director of Human Resources. The Site Director or designate shall hold a hearing within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance and shall render a decision in writing to the Union within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing.

Step IV - Arbitration

- (a) (i) If the grievance is not settled under Step III above, the Union shall within ten (10) days of receiving the decision of the Site Director or designate, notify the Employer in writing of its intention to submit the grievance to arbitration and shall inform the Employer of the Union's nominee to an Arbitration Board. The Employer shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of such notice, notify the Union of the Employer's nominee to the Arbitration Board. The two (2) appointees so named shall, within ten (10) days, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.

- (ii) By mutual agreement, the Parties may choose to use a single arbitrator (chairperson).
- (iii) By mutual agreement, the Parties may agree to the use of mediation services to resolve grievances and the two (2) Parties shall bear equally the costs of mediation.

- (b) If the two (2) members fail to appoint a third person within the time limits, the Minister of Labour shall appoint a third member who shall be Chairperson of the Arbitration Board.
- (c) The Arbitration Board shall hear the grievance and shall issue an award in writing, and the decision is final and binding upon the Parties and upon the Employee(s) affected by it. The decision of the majority of the Board is the award of the Arbitration Board. When there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chairperson shall be the decision of the Board.
- (d) Each Party to the difference shall be responsible for the expense of its respective appointee to the Arbitration Board, and the two (2) Parties shall share equally the expenses of the Chairperson.
- (e) The Arbitration Board by its decision shall not alter, amend or change the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

12.03 Throughout this Article, the reference to "days" shall not include Saturdays, Sundays, or Named Holidays.

12.04 The time limits specified throughout the steps of the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Union and the Employer.

12.05 Should the Employee or the Union fail to comply with any time limit in the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered conceded and shall be abandoned. Should the Employer fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step on the day following the expiry of the particular time limit.

12.06 Policy Grievance

- (a) Where a dispute involving the question of general application or interpretation occurs affecting more than one (1) Employee, the Union may proceed on a policy grievance provided the Union initiates the policy grievance within ten (10) days of the date the Union became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence.
- (b) All policy grievances shall be submitted to the Director of Human Resources and shall be deemed to be submitted at Step III of the Grievance Procedure.

12.07 Replies in Writing

Except for Step I, replies to grievances shall be in writing at all stages.

12.08 Facilities for Grievances

The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for joint grievance meetings.

12.09 Grievances affecting departments other than the Employee's department (i.e. transfers and promotions) will be commenced with the Department Head of the affected department.

12.10 In the event that any Management Officers as named in the grievance steps are one and the same, the subsequent Step will be deemed to have been complied with.

ARTICLE 13: PROBATION PERIOD

13.01 A newly hired regular Employee shall serve a probation period. If such Employee is determined by the Employer to be unsatisfactory, they may be dismissed at any time during the probation period without notice or pay, and without recourse to Article 12: Grievance Procedure.

13.02 If a probationary regular Employee is transferred to another classification, they will be required to complete a new probation period commencing on the date of transfer.

13.03 A regular Employee will be kept advised of their progress during the probation period.

13.04 (a) The probation period for a regular Employee consists of five hundred and three point seven five (503.75) hours worked from the date the last period of continuous employment commenced, or six (6) months, whichever is shorter.

(b) The probation period may be extended by mutual agreement, in writing, between the Employer, the Union and the Employee. However, in no event will an Employee's total probation period exceed one thousand and seven point five (1,007.5) hours, or twelve (12) months, whichever is shorter. Prior to the extension of a probation period, the Employer shall complete a performance review outlining areas where the Employee must demonstrate improved performance.

(c) All additional shifts worked outside of regularly scheduled hours shall count towards the probationary time threshold. For the purpose of Article 13.04, "hours worked" means all the hours an Employee actually works regardless of whether the hours are regular or overtime hours.

ARTICLE 14: SALARIES

14.01 The basic rates of pay for each classification shall be expressed in hourly terms in the Salaries Appendix which is attached to and forms a part of this Collective Agreement and shall be effective from and after the dates specified.

- 14.02 Subject to any of the terms of this Collective Agreement providing for the withholding of or delay in granting of an increment, an Employee's basic rate of pay shall advance to the next higher basic rate of pay as set out in the Salaries Appendix following:
- (a) in the case of Full-Time Employees, one (1) year of service; or
 - (b) in the case of Part-Time, Temporary or Casual Employees, they will advance after completion of one thousand eight hundred and thirteen point five (1813.50) hours worked, and then shall receive further Pay Step advancements, if applicable, based upon completion of each period of one thousand seven hundred fifty (1750) hours worked at each subsequent Pay Step in the pay range.
 - (c) in the case of Part-Time, Temporary or Casual Employees while employed as a Nursing Attendant before November 18th, 2016, they will advance after completion of one thousand eight hundred and thirteen point five (1813.50) hours worked, and then shall receive further Pay Step advancements, if applicable, based upon completion of each period of one thousand seven hundred fifty (1750) hours worked at each subsequent Pay Step in the pay range.
 - (d) in the case of Part-Time, Temporary or Casual Employees while employed as a Nursing Attendant after November 18th, 2016, will advance after completion of two thousand and twenty-two point seven five (2022.75) hours worked, and then shall receive further Pay Step advancements, if applicable, based upon completion of each period of one thousand eight hundred and thirteen point five (1813.50) hours worked at each subsequent Pay Step in the pay range.
 - (e) For the purposes of this Sub-Clause, "hours worked" means all the hours an Employee actually works at their basic rate of pay and for all hours worked that would generate overtime.

RE: TIME OF VACATION

Initiate a trial over a full two (2) calendar year period of the following language in place of the current article 24.02:

24.02 Time of Vacation

Regular Employees shall be granted the vacation period preferred by them at such time as may be mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the regular Employee. The granting of vacation time is subject to the approval of the Employer based upon operational requirements. The Employer shall be reasonable when considering all vacation requests.

(a) Vacation Selection Period #1 (April 1 to September 30)

- (i) The Employer shall post a vacation schedule planner by January 1 of each year for vacations to be taken between April 1 and September 30 of that vacation year.

Where a regular Employee submits their vacation preference on a Vacation/Named Holiday Request Form by February 15, the Employer shall provide written approval or disapproval of that vacation request by March 15.

Preference as to choice of vacation dates shall be determined by seniority in the Regular Employee's particular service area and classification.

- (ii) Each regular employee must select on the vacation schedule planner and successfully take a minimum of two (2) weeks of their vacation entitlement during vacation selection period #1, except with the approval of the Employer.

- (iii) Requests for vacation submitted after February 15 shall be dealt with on a first come, first serve basis.

In this event, the regular Employee shall submit their Vacation/Named Holiday Request Form at least fourteen (14) days in advance of their requested vacation and the Employer shall provide written approval or disapproval within seven (7) days of receipt of the request. In extenuating circumstances, the Employer shall consider vacation requests with less than fourteen (14) days' advance notice of an Employee's requested vacation.

(b) Vacation Selection Period #2 (October 1 to March 31)

- (i) The Employer shall post a second vacation schedule planner by July 1 of each year for vacations to be taken between October 1 and March 31 of that vacation year.

Where a regular Employee submits their vacation preference on a Vacation/Named Holiday Request Form by August 15, the Employer shall provide written approval or disapproval of that vacation request by September 15th.

Preference as to choice of vacation dates shall be determined by seniority in the Regular Employee's particular service area and classification.

- (ii) Requests for vacation submitted after August 15 shall be dealt with on a first come, first serve basis. In this event, the regular Employee shall submit their Vacation/Named Holiday Request Form at least fourteen (14) days in advance of their requested vacation and the Employer shall provide written approval or disapproval within seven (7) days of receipt of the request. In extenuating circumstances, the Employer shall consider vacation requests with less than fourteen (14) days' advance notice of an Employee's requested vacation.
- (iii) After November 15 all remaining unscheduled vacation will be scheduled by the Employer following a consultation discussion with each affected employee.

- (c) For the purpose of this Sub-Clause, a regular Employee's seniority in a service area and classification shall continue to accrue during layoff and authorized leave(s) of absence.
- (d) A regular Employee shall be entitled to an unbroken period of vacation equal to their entire vacation entitlement unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Employer and the regular Employee.
- (e) A regular Employee who chooses to take their vacation in broken periods shall be allowed to exercise their preference as to choice of vacation dates for only one (1) vacation period that falls in whole or in part during the period June 1 to August 31 inclusive, except where such vacation periods are not requested by other regular Employees.
