(Hereinafter referred to as the Employer)

OF THE FIRST PART

- and -

The Canadian Union of Public Employees
Local 787, Grande Prairie, Alberta
(Hereinafter referred to as the Union)

OF THE SECOND PART

ARTICLE 1 - DURATION AND TERMINATION

This Agreement will remain in full force and effect from January 1, 2022 to December 31, 2024 (inclusive), and from year to year thereafter except as hereinafter provided.

Either party to this Agreement wishing to amend this Agreement will give notice in writing of such desire to the other party not less than sixty (60) days or no more than one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to December 31, 2024.

This Agreement will remain in full force and effect until such time a strike or lockout occurs in accordance with the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

All changes in this Agreement will be retroactive to the effective date of this Agreement, unless otherwise specified.

ARTICLE 2 - PURPOSE

2.01 The purpose of this Agreement is:

- (a) to maintain a harmonious and cooperative relationship between the Employer and the Employees in the Union Certificate No. 52-2007;
- (b) to provide an amicable method of settling differences or grievances which may arise between the Employer and the Employees in the Union Certificate No. 52-2007; and
- (c) to promote the mutual interest of the Employer and the Employees in the Union Certificate.

ARTICLE 3 - MANAGERIAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

3.01 Management Rights

Management reserves all rights not specifically restricted by the provisions of this Agreement.

3.02 Discrimination, Harassment and Respectful Workplace

The Employer, or any of its officials agrees that at no time will they discriminate against any of the Employees covered by this Agreement on account of their connection with the Union or on account of their race, religious beliefs, color, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, ancestry, age, place of origin, family status, or source of income. Both the Employer and the Union agree to ensure compliance with the Alberta Human Rights Act.

All Employees covered by this Agreement have a right to freedom from harassment as defined in the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety and Human Rights Acts in the workplace. Both the Employer and the Union will not condone any behavior contrary to these obligations and rights flowing from the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Act and Human Rights Act. The Employer and Union agree that Employees and supervisory staff will be educated so as to address and prevent harassment in the workplace.

The Employer and the Union are jointly committed to fostering positive working relationships and managing conflict in the workplace. Neither the Employer or the Union will condone any improper behavior on the part of any person which has an intentional purpose of jeopardizing an Employee's well-being.

3.03 Accommodation and Cooperation

In circumstances where a member of the CUPE bargaining unit may be unable to perform the regular duties of their position due to addiction, mental or physical disability, the Employer and the Union, together with the affected Employee, will meet to discuss and to consider the available evidence regarding the existence and nature of the disability and, if necessary, options with respect to the accommodation of the Employee. The parties agree to work together to consider how the Employee's disability can best be accommodated without causing undue hardship to the Employer, the Employee, or the Union. The affected Employee will participate and cooperate fully in this process.

3.04 Discipline and Dismissal

- (a) Probationary Employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period, with or without just cause and such termination will be subject to grievance or arbitration only if discriminatory or in bad faith.

If such a termination is without just cause and after ninety (90) days of employment, the Employer will provide one (1) weeks' notice or payment of wages in lieu of notice. Otherwise termination will be without notice or payment in lieu of notice.

- (b) The Employer has the right to discharge or discipline Employees for just cause. When an Employee is notified in writing of the disciplinary action, a copy will be forwarded to the Recording Secretary, President, and General Vice-President of the Union within two (2) business days. All Employees will be given the opportunity to sign disciplinary notices as having been read.
- (c) An Employee will be advised in writing at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of impending corrective discipline and the Employees right to Union representation. No disciplinary action will take place until the Employee is notified in writing.
- (d) If the Employee chooses in writing not to have Union representation for any reason, the Employer will inform the President, General Vice-President, and Local Union Recording Secretary in writing of the occurrence within twenty-four (24) hours.
- (e) When an Employee is disciplined for any reason, they will have the right to have a hearing with the Employer and to have a Union representative(s) present.
- (f) Disciplinary and letters of expectation records will be removed from the personnel file after an Employee has maintained a clear record of no disciplinary action for twenty-four (24) months from the date the incident occurred. If disciplinary action occurs within the twenty-four (24) months, all records will remain in place until a full twenty-four (24) months of clear record occurs.
- (g) The Employer agrees to consider discipline in the spirit of correction, rather than punishment, understanding that this concept/spirit is not intended to detract from the Employer's management rights. The principles of progressive discipline (typically flow from verbal warning to written warning to suspension and/or termination), understanding that the approach will vary with circumstances and severity.

3.05 Employment

The Employer may decrease or increase the number of Employees employed in accordance with the amount of work available. Any decrease or increase of the number of positions will be in consultation with the Union. The Employer will have the final decision in this regard.

3.06. Contracting Out

Such Employee will have the right to respond in writing to any document contained therein, such reply becoming part of the permanent record. Should an Employee request a copy of their file, the Employer will have an additional three (3) working days to provide a copy.

3.09 Supervisory Role

- (a) The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees, Local 787, as the sole bargaining agent for all Employees as set out in Certificate Number 52-2007 issued by the Alberta Labour Relations Board. The Employer hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union or any of its authorized committees concerning all matters arising from this Collective Agreement, working towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.

For alternate schedules:

Recreation – Letters of Understanding #1, #5 & #8

6.02 Day Shift

Day shift is any shift that starts between 4:00 a.m. and 11:59 a.m. and will be not more than nine (9) consecutive hours for five (5) days per week with a maximum of one (1) hour off for lunch each day.

- (a) Notwithstanding 6.02 (Day Shift) Employees working at a job site other than a City facility, or a facility other than their normal workplace, may be required to remain on the job site during their lunch break. Where such an Employee is required to remain on site and on duty, they will be paid at their regular rate of pay for that period and the length of their work day will be reduced accordingly.
- (b) Where an Employee or work crew is working through a meal break pursuant to 6.02(a), the Employee, or work crew, by majority choice, may request prior to shift commencement an additional fifteen (15) minutes unpaid rest break during the shift. Such request will not be unreasonably denied.

In emergent, safety-related situations, the requirement to request the break in advance will be waived.

City vehicles and equipment will remain on the job site during such breaks.

6.03 Afternoon Shift

Afternoon shift is any shift that starts between 12:00 noon and 7:59 p.m. and will be any eight (8) consecutive hours, including twenty (20) minutes time off for lunch, for five (5) days per week.

6.04 Midnight Shift

Midnight shift is any shift that starts between 8:00 p.m. and 3:59 a.m. and will be any eight (8) consecutive hours, including twenty (20) minutes time off for lunch, for five (5) days per week.

6.05 Shift Rotation - Continuous Operations

Employees who work in relays with regular changes of shift from day to afternoon, to midnight, to day will work any eight (8) consecutive hours including time for lunch each day, for five (5) days per week; except that on changing shifts an Employee might be required to work six (6) days in that week in which the change of shift takes place. In this event they will be allowed a day off during the regular shift rotation, to compensate for the day off missed due to the change. However, whenever an Employee is changing shifts from midnight shift to day shift the Employer will give a minimum of one day off in between for the Employee to adjust.

If an Employee is required to work with such that there is less than an eight (8) hour break between the Employee's shifts the Employer will:

- (a) Not start the subsequent shift until a full eight (8) hours has elapsed since the end of the Employee's prior shift but will be paid for the entire subsequent shift despite missing the initial time to create the minimum eight (8) hour break; and
- (b) If the time off on the subsequent shift to create the eight (8) hour break leaves the subsequent shift with two (2) hours or less left, the Employee will skip the entire shift but be paid for it.

6.06 Change of Shift

Where a change of shift among the Day Shift, Afternoon Shift, or Midnight Shift is required due to conditions of the service, the following conditions will apply on the first day of the change:

- (a) Forty-eight (48) hours written notice will be given of the change. In emergency situations, twenty-four (24) hours' notice must be given.
- (b) There must be a minimum of nine (9) hours between shifts; and
- (c) The Employee must not have worked previously in the calendar day of the first shift worked.

If any of the above conditions are not fulfilled, the Employee will receive overtime pay for the first shift worked. The foregoing will not be prejudiced by overtime worked in the previous shift.

6.07 All shift schedules will be posted, updated, and maintained in each work unit by electronic means or any other place readily available to the Employees concerned (i.e.: CUPE Board). Said shift schedule to stipulate the shift to be worked each day, the days to be worked each week, also designating the off days each week, which would be consecutive. Shift schedules will adhere to all regulations specified in this Agreement unless prior agreement by the Union has been obtained in writing.

Newly developed shift schedules will be posted ten (10) regular working days prior to implementation.

- 6.08 The Employer will not make any change to an Employee's time record affecting pay without the Employee's knowledge.

An Employee will have the option to print a hard copy of their daily time record at the time of entry if they so choose.

- 6.09 The Employer and the Union, conditional upon mutual agreement, may enter into a temporary agreement to provide for a modified work week for a group of Employees. Such agreement may include a Saturday to Friday work week.

6.10 Overtime

- (a) All hours worked outside the regular hours of work, as defined in Article 6.01 (Hours of Work), on days off, and on General holidays will be considered overtime and will be paid at two (2) times the Employee's regular rate of pay.
- (b) An Employee's minimum vacation requirements, as per Alberta Employment Standards, must be taken prior to accessing banked overtime.
 - (i) An Employee may choose to bank overtime at the rate specified in Article 6.10(a) (Overtime). Such banked time will be taken off at a time mutually agreeable between the Employee and the Employer. Overtime bank will not exceed eighty (80) hours.
 - (ii) Due to requirements for operational efficiency, some specific job functions may not be able to accommodate time off in lieu of overtime.
 - (iii) The Employer will pay out any remaining banked overtime in the first pay period after every December 1st. Overtime accumulating during the month of December can be carried over into the next calendar year.
 - (iv) Prior to any pay period close, an Employee may request pay out of a portion, or all of the overtime bank.
- (c) Employees called back to work after completing their regular shift will receive a minimum of two (2) hours pay at overtime rates. Continuation of work beyond regular shifts, including provision for up to one hour meal periods, are not considered call-backs.
- (d) Subject to the requirement for operational efficiency, overtime will be distributed as follows:
 - (i) When a shift is extended beyond the regular working hours, regular members of the crew, regardless of employment status, will be given first option to continue work on an overtime basis.
 - (ii) Priority will be given to qualified staff occupying an established position and from the classification required and who normally work in that Department. In order to distribute overtime as evenly as possible, qualified staff occupying an established position, in the required classification and with the least amount of overtime hours would be given priority.

For the purposes of overtime distribution and the interpretation of this clause, each department will be considered "distinct".

- (iii) Next priority would then be given to qualified staff occupying an established position from another classification but still within that Department.
- (iv) Next priority would then be given to qualified temporary staff from that Department.
- (v) The last priority goes to qualified staff occupying an established position from another Department.
- (e) In all cases the Supervisor requesting the work is required to clearly identify the work to be performed and the classification required.
- (f) The Supervisor will review overtime and post reports at least monthly to ensure overtime is fairly distributed.
- (g) The administration of this Clause will not require the call-back of an Employee where another qualified Employee is available and on duty.
- (h) A person on standby will refer to departmental standby guidelines when performing standby duties.
- (i) Notwithstanding the above, a person on standby will respond and may perform duties they are qualified for.

6.11 Shift Premium

A one dollar and seventy-five cents ($1.75) per hour shift premium will be paid to Employees for any straight-time hours worked outside the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, and for all straight-time hours worked on Saturdays and Sundays.

6.12 Reporting Pay

Any Employee reporting for work who has not been instructed not to report and who is sent home before their shift starts will be paid a minimum of three (3) hours pay at their rate of pay.

Any Employee who starts work and is then sent home will be paid a minimum of four (4) hours pay at the applicable rate.

In the event an Employee is scheduled to work less than four (4) hours on a particular day then they will be paid for the amount of time they were scheduled to work to a minimum of two (2) hours.

6.13 Stand-by Pay

Stand-by service may be maintained as required in the Departments coming within the scope of this Agreement.

An Employee will receive one (1) hour pay (regular rate) for each day scheduled on stand-by. For a day of rest or General Holiday, an Employee will receive two (2) hours pay (regular rate).

6.14 Statement of Earnings

The Employer will provide electronic access to each Employee a statement of their wages, overtime, other supplementary pay, and deductions.

At the same time that Income Tax (T-4) Slips are made available, the Employer will report on the amount of Union dues paid by each Employee in the previous year.

6.15 Rest Periods

Employee paid rest breaks will be taken in the general work area and allotted as follows:

In the 1st four (4) hours of a shift – fifteen (15) minutes

In the 2nd four (4) hours of a shift – fifteen (15) minutes

In the 3rd four (4) hours of a shift – fifteen (15) minutes

If an Employee is scheduled on a ten (10) hour shift, they will be entitled to a ten (10) minute break in the last two (2) hours of their shift.

The Employee may combine breaks, dependent on work conditions to allow for flexibility.

8.02 Seniority for Casual Employees

Effective January 1, 2023, a casual Employee whose status changes from casual to an established position (permanent part-time or full-time position) will, after this status change, have their seniority calculated by taking their total hours worked as a casual Employee from the date of hire and dividing by 2080 hours (one year).

Acceptance into an established position, as described by the foregoing, will not preclude the affected Employee from the six (6) month probationary period as per Article 5.01 (Probationary Period) and 5.03(e) (Probationary Employee) of the Collective Agreement.

8.03 Seniority for Temporary Employees

When any temporary Employee is accepted into an established position, as designated by the Employer, and such temporary employment is consecutive, with no break in employment greater than three (3) consecutive months, then seniority will be back dated and accrued from the date the consecutive temporary employment commenced but will not include breaks in employment greater than three (3) consecutive months.

Acceptance into an established position, as described by the foregoing, will not preclude the affected Employee from the six (6) month probationary period as per Article 5.01 (Probationary Period) and 5.03 (e) (Probationary Employee) of the Collective Agreement.

8.04 Future vacation eligibility will be based on the employment date of hire for the consecutive temporary employment; however, the first year will be prorated from the date of appointment to the established position.

- 8.05 Seniority is defined as the length of service in the bargaining unit and will be used in determining preference or priority for promotions, transfers, demotions, layoffs, permanent reduction of the work force and recall provided the Employee has the necessary qualifications.

Seniority will operate on a bargaining unit-wide basis.

- 8.06 For Transit Department, "internal seniority" will apply as per Letter of Understanding # 6 Transit/Security. When there are candidates of equal qualifications and standing, and who have the same seniority date, applying for positions outside the Department, seniority with the Employer will apply. If the candidates applying for positions have the same seniority dates, will be decided in alphabetical order by last name on the date of hire.

- 8.07 An Employee will not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of sickness, disability, accident, layoff, or leave of absence approved by the Employer. An Employee will only lose their seniority in the event:

- (a) they are discharged for just cause and is not reinstated; or
- (b) they resign in writing and does not withdraw within forty-eight (48) hours; or
- (c) they fail to return to work within seven (7) calendar days following a layoff after being notified to do so by Certified Mail at their last known address unless the Employee establishes at the first reasonable opportunity that failure to return to work was due to sickness or other just reason; or
- (d) they are laid off for a period longer than a year.

- 8.08 The Employer will maintain an up-to-date seniority list showing the date upon which each Employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list will be sent to the Union every three (3) months.

- 8.09 If an Employee is transferred to a supervisory position or any other position not covered by this agreement, they will retain and accumulate their seniority in the position from which they were transferred for a maximum of ninety (90) working days.

8.10 Layoffs and Rehiring

- (a) Both parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to length of service. Therefore, in the event of a layoff in any classification, Employees in that classification will be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority. Employees laid off may exercise their seniority rights over any Employee with the least amount of seniority in that classification, provided they have the necessary qualifications. In the event there is a vacant position in that classification, that position will be deemed the least senior.
- (b) Permanent Employees will be recalled in the order of their seniority providing they are qualified to do the work. If an Employee's required certification(s)/requirements expire due to no fault of their own while on lay-off, the Employer will provide certification training to the Employee. No new Employees will be hired until the permanent Employees laid off have been given an opportunity for re-employment.
- (c) Employees are not required to accept recall to a lower paying position and will remain eligible for recall for the full twelve (12) months.

- (d) For a period of twelve (12) months from the date of lay-off, if an Employee's former position becomes available, and the Employee has bumped into another position, or vacant position, or has been recalled and accepted another position, such Employee will be given first priority for reinstatement to their former position. Unless such Employee notifies the Employer/Union in writing that they are no longer interested in being recalled to their former position.
- (e) In the event of a seasonal layoff, the Employer will notify the permanent Employees who are to be laid off ten (10) working days before the layoff is to be effective. If the permanent Employee laid off has not had the opportunity to work ten (10) full days after notice has been given, they will be paid in lieu of work for the part of ten (10) days during which work was not available.
- (f) The Employer agrees to provide written notice or pay in lieu of notice equal to the minimum requirements of Section 56 of the Alberta Employment Standards Code, as amended from time to time for temporary Employees who have been employed continuously for more than ninety (90) calendar days.
- (g) An Employee who has been laid off for a period of one (1) year is terminated and all rights flowing to them under this Agreement are extinguished.

8.11 Promotions and Staff Changes

- (a) Prior to filling a vacant position(s) covered by the terms of this Agreement, the Employer will notify the Union in writing (an electronic copy of the posting will be provided to the President, General Vice-President, and Recording Secretary of the Local) and post notice of the position in the Employer's offices and on the bulletin boards for a minimum of fourteen (14) consecutive days in order that all members will be able to make an application. If there are no qualified internal applicants, the Employer will continually post internally each time it is advertised externally.
- (b) The Employer will notify the Union in writing (an electronic copy of vacant positions will be provided to the President, General Vice-President, and Recording Secretary of the Local) and will initiate a vacant review process within thirty (30) days of an established position becoming vacant and advise the Union. The Employer will post a list in each department showing all permanent positions. This list will be updated whenever a vacant review process has created a change in that department.
- (c) Both parties recognize that job opportunity should increase in proportion to seniority and qualifications. In making staff changes, in any department, such appointments will be made from permanent staff of the Employer provided that the applicants have the necessary qualifications and ability. Where qualifications and ability are relatively equal, seniority will be the determining factor. The successful applicant will be placed on a trial period of one (1) month. Conditional upon satisfactory service, such trial period will become permanent after one month. In the event the applicant proves unsatisfactory, they will be returned to their former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. An Employee on trial period will have the right to return to their former position within one (1) month if they so desire.

- (d) If there are no qualified applicants from permanent staff, the Employer may appoint an internal applicant with the demonstrated aptitude an opportunity to learn the position tasks. The successful applicant will be placed on a trial period as per Article 8.11(c) to be determined by the Employer prior to posting. In the event the applicant proves unsatisfactory, they will be returned to their former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. An Employee on trial period will have the right to return to their former position within the trial period if they so desire. This will not restrict the Employer from selecting qualified external applicants.
- (e) If there are no successful permanent applicants then qualified temporary and casual applicants, currently employed, will be considered before external candidates.
- (f) A qualified temporary applicant will be hired in preference to any external candidate if:
 - (i) The qualified temporary applicant is currently employed in the classification being hired for at least twelve (12) consecutive months and;
 - (ii) The qualified temporary applicant's performance and conduct record is at least satisfactory in all areas.

8.12 The Recording Secretary, President, General Vice-President, of Local 787 will receive a monthly change report from the Employer of all appointments, hiring, layoff, rehiring, termination of employment, contact information and changes of employment status for all members.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

9.01 Definition of Grievance

A grievance under this Agreement will be defined as any difference or dispute between the Union or any Employee(s) and the Employer concerning the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement.

9.02 Settling of Grievances

An earnest effort will be made to settle any grievance fairly and promptly in the following manner:

In order to ensure that any differences between the parties are remedied as quickly as possible, the parties agree they will attempt to resolve issues through an informal complaint process involving the direct Supervisor, prior to filing written grievances.

In the event an issue remains unresolved the parties agree that the following procedure for submitting and dealing with grievances will be adhered to by both parties, provided that when submitting the grievance, the Union will inform the Employer, in writing, the names of those Union Representatives that will be dealing with that particular grievance.

Step 2 of the grievance process may only be waived by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union in the best interests of expediting the grievance efficiently.

Grievances dealing with dismissal will be entered at step 2 and will be initiated within fifteen (15) working days of the dismissal.

- Step 1: An Employee or Union Representative on their behalf who believes themselves to be aggrieved will within fifteen (15) working days, take up the matter with their immediate Supervisor and attempt to solve the grievance. For this purpose, they may, if they wish, be accompanied by a representative of the Grievance Committee of the Union.
- Step 2: Failing satisfactory settlement within ten (10) working days after the difference was submitted under Step 1, the Employee(s) concerned, together with a member of the Grievance Committee, will submit within five (5) working days to the Director of that area, or designate, a written statement of the particulars of the complaint, the articles of the Collective Agreement violated and the reasons a violation is alleged and the redress sought. The Union will meet with the Director or designate and the Employer representative within five (5) working days to present their position, in the hopes of resolving the matter. The Director or designate will render their decision in writing within ten (10) working days after meeting with the Grievor and/or the Union.
- Step 3: Failing settlement being reached in Step 2, the Employee(s) concerned, together with the Grievance Committee, will within five (5) working days submit the matter in writing, the articles of the Collective Agreement violated and the reasons a violation is alleged to the City Manager, the City Manager will meet with the Employer Representative, the Grievor and/or the Union, in hope of resolving the matter. The City Manager will render their decision in writing within ten (10) working days after meeting with the Grievor and/or the Union.
- Step 4: If the grievance is not settled, the grievance may be referred, within fifteen (15) working days, to an Arbitration Board consisting of three (3) members. One (1) member to be appointed by the Union and one (1) member by the Employer. The third member, who will be Chairman, will be jointly appointed by the Union and the Employer. In the event the Chairman cannot be agreed upon, the Minister of Labour will make this appointment.

Alternatively, the grievance may, by mutual agreement, be referred to a single arbitrator as per Section 135 of the Alberta Labour Relations Code, Statutes of Alberta as amended within fifteen (15) working days.

9.03 Mediation

Where a grievance has not been resolved to the satisfaction of either party to the grievance through the internal grievance resolution process, they will notify the other party of their desire to proceed to interest-based grievance mediation. Grievance mediation is a voluntary process which can be an effective alternative to grievance arbitration for management and labour to solve problems. The parties, through the assistance of a mediator, will attempt to resolve the grievance through negotiation, therefore, allowing the parties to control and shape the settlement. Grievance mediation does not interfere with the rights of the parties to the arbitration process.

The grievance mediation process will be confidential, voluntary, informal, and conducted by mediators trained in the principles of interest-based negotiation/problem-solving. The appointment of the mediator will be made by the designated representatives of the parties.

9.04 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where the Union has a grievance, Step 1 of Article 9.02 may be by-passed.

9.05 Failure to Act Within Time Limits

Failure of the grievor or the Union to process a grievance to the next step in the grievance procedure within the time limit specified, will not be deemed to have prejudiced the Union on any future identical grievance.

9.06 Extension of Time Limits

Time limits in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, confirmed in writing.

For the purpose of the grievance procedure "working days" will be considered as the days on which City Hall offices are open to the Public.

9.07 The Union will advise the Employer of the Shop Stewards elected to process grievances on behalf of the Employees covered by this Agreement.

A Shop Steward will first obtain permission from their immediate supervisor to investigate a grievance, such permission will not be unduly withheld.

ARTICLE 10 - NEW CLASSIFICATIONS & RE-CLASSIFICATIONS

10.01 Any new classifications established by the Employer will be subject to negotiations with the Union to determine a pay rate. The Employer agrees to notify the Union upon the establishment of the new classification or re-classification and suggested rate of pay. The Union will have thirty (30) working days after such notification to request that the rate of pay so established by the Employer be made the subject of collective bargaining. Any negotiated rate of pay will be retroactive to the date of establishment of the new classification.

10.02 The Employer and the Union agree that the matter of job descriptions will be referred to the Labour Relations Committee yearly in an attempt to clarify and resolve terms of reference for each classification.

10.03 When the Employer acquires new equipment or when equipment is substantially modified, as determined by the Employer, the classification will be referred to the Labour Relations Committee for discussion.

10.04 Job Description

The Union will be supplied with all job descriptions that fall in the scope of the bargaining unit and as changes occur. When the Employer intends to add or remove duties, the classification concept(s) job description(s) will be referred to the Labour Relations Committee for discussion.

ARTICLE 11 - JOB TRAINING

- 11.01 As determined by the Employer, Employees who are required to obtain or maintain certification for their classification requirements will have training and wages paid by the Employer.

Employees can apply in writing to the Employer to access funds for further training and career development. Requests will be considered in accordance with Employer policies, procedures, and availability of funds. If the request is denied for any reason, the Employer will meet with the Employee and their Union Representative to discuss the rationale for the denial.

The Employer may arrange, "on-the-job training", so that Employees will have the opportunity to receive training and qualify for future promotion(s) or transfer(s) in the event of a vacancy arises. Permanent Employees will be given first priority.

During the training period, the trainee will be paid the same hourly rate as received in the position vacated to receive the training.

When an Employee trains another Employee and the trainer's rate is lower than the trainee's rate, the trainer will receive the same rate as the trainee.

11.02 Equipment Operator Classifications

Employees wishing to receive training as equipment operators will be required to make application for such training in writing to the Department Manager.

Supervised training will be arranged during the regular working hours by the exchange of position for a period of forty (40) hours after which the Employee will be notified if qualified or will be allowed an additional forty (40) hours supervised training. An Employee completing a maximum of eighty (80) hours will become qualified or will be deemed not qualified.

Supervisory personnel will refrain from operating equipment not normally operated by them, except in instances where instruction or correction of work is being conducted, or in emergencies.

Once an Employee is notified in writing by the Employer that they have the minimum qualifications and any time they perform the duties of the higher classification for a period in excess of one (1) cumulative hour in a shift, they will be paid at the higher rate for the hours worked in the higher classification.

Re: Apprenticeship

When apprenticeships are established for trades used by the City of Grande Prairie which fall within the scope of the Collective Agreement:

When filling a position that requires a Tradesperson ticket (example: mechanic, electrician, etc.), the Employer will consider and interview internal applicants that apply indicating a wish to apprentice. However, external applicants can be considered at the same time and the Employer is under no obligation to hire an internal applicant to apprentice instead of qualified external candidate. If the Employer selects an external candidate, the Employer will inform the Executive of the Union in writing of their rationale.

1. The responsibilities of Employees in the apprentice classifications will be those outlined in the classification concepts.
2. The rate of pay for these positions will follow the guidelines of the Alberta Apprenticeship Board with the modification proposed by the Apprentice Committee, that is, if the apprentice is earning a higher rate in their current position, they will maintain their current rate until the apprenticeship rate is equal to or surpasses the current position rate at the time of apprenticeship.
3. The apprentice's wages and benefits will be maintained while in attendance at school with the provision that a passing grade must be attained. The annual tuition fees will also be paid by the Employer. A return of service agreement must be signed by the Employee.

This Letter of Understanding will remain in full force and effect for the life of the Collective Agreement. Apprentices who are in the program will be able to complete their program under these guidelines should this Letter of Understanding become invalidated.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #15 – LOCAL PRESIDENT BETWEEN
THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LOCAL 787
(hereafter referred to as the “Local”)
AND
THE CITY OF GRANDE PRAIRIE
(hereafter referred to as the “Employer”)

RE: LOCAL PRESIDENT

In an effort to promote good labour relations between the City and the Local, to support staff member(s) and to efficiently manage the costs associated with City Employees being away from work to attend to Union business (such as negotiations, grievances and other Union business) the parties to the Collective Agreement have come to the following understanding with respect to the role of the President of the Local.

1. The President will be in a full-time position and shall be allowed to conduct Union business for a term of October 3, 2023, to November 30, 2024. ("the Term"). Specific scheduling will be mutually agreed upon by both parties.
2. During the Term, The Local will reimburse the Employer for the President's pay and benefits. The benefit rate will be calculated on the value of the total hours worked; it includes all Employer paid benefits including LAPP pension. The benefit rate may be adjusted, and the Employer will communicate any changes to the Local.
3. Throughout the Term, the Employer shall invoice the Local for the President's pay and benefits on a monthly basis and the Local will pay such invoices upon receipt.
4. During the Term, the President will continue to accrue seniority, earn vacation, sick leave and receive wage increments.
5. The President shall take responsibility for keeping their knowledge, skills and training requirements current for their home position during the Term. The home department shall forward to the President the schedule for in-house training and/or any changes in the level of qualifications that are required for their position. However, should the parties decide that the President does not need to keep current with certain job requirements of their home position, the President shall be allowed sufficient time upon the expiry of the Term should it be necessary to complete the training necessary to return to their home position.
6. Should the President become successful in another permanent position, they may need to step down as President, at which time the Local will elect a successor, and this agreement may be re-considered.

7. Upon completion of their term the President will return to their permanent position, on the shift they had previously to this LOU.
8. The Local shall maintain appropriate coverage for the President under the Workers' Compensation Act RSA 2000 Chapter W-15. Entitlements paid under Article 45.1 shall be borne by Local 787.
9. The President may be eligible for overtime opportunities within their department, at the cost of the Employer and with prior approval from the department Director. It is the President's responsibility to monitor and inquire about posted overtime opportunities. The Employer will keep the President on the list for call-in work.
10. Considering the full-time President is a shift worker, the Employer agrees to compensate for the loss of shift premium (4 hours per shift) typically accrued during an afternoon shift, throughout a 2080-hour work year.
11. The Local may request an extension to the Term as outlined below.
12. In order to allow flexibility to address emergent issues that may arise during the Term, this Letter of Understanding may be amended or terminated by the parties.
 - a) The Local and the Employer agree that either party may terminate this Letter of Understanding, by providing at least thirty (30) days written notice to the other party.
 - b) Either party may propose amendments to this Letter of Understanding to the other party in writing. The other party will have up to thirty (30) days to review and consider any proposed amendments.
 - c) The Local and the Employer agree that both parties must jointly agree to amendments proposed by either party in order for the amendments to take effect.
 - d) The parties may, by mutual agreement, shorten the required timeframe for any amendment or termination of this Letter of Understanding.
