Re: Remote Work

The Parties mutually agree that the terms of the Collective Agreement may not be appropriate for circumstances involving out-of-town work (remote work). It is agreed that the affected Employees and Company Representatives need a process to negotiate the specifics of each assignment of remote work.

Therefore, the Union and the Company agree to the following process:

1. The purpose of this process is to:
 - (a) To maintain the flexibility to establish work/travel arrangements that best address the needs of each out of town assignment;
 - (b) To reach mutually beneficial working arrangements for the Company and the Employees.
2. Definitions
 - (a) Remote work means working in a location that is away from their permanent base and or over a rest period.
 - (b) Service may be established in other areas of Alberta or other provinces within Canada.

The Employer and Union further agree this includes any worksite that is serviced from Grande Prairie but will not prevent the Employer from creating any new permanent worksites staffed from their local communities, so long as such worksite is staffed with in scope Employees and Employees will not be forced to relocate. Such positions will be posted and filled as per the Collective Agreement.

3. Some Employees have been hired into positions that include "remote" work in the job description or letter of hire. Current Employees hired without a remote work expectation may apply for remote work assignments if they so choose with the understanding that there is no obligation to accept future remote work assignments.

- (a) Remote work does tend to include overtime hours, training opportunities, and career advancement opportunities, and as such, the Employer will have a process for interested Employees to indicate their interest in remote or and will select the qualified, competent applicant with the greatest seniority for the remote work assignment.
 - (b) The Employer and Union agree that where staff are interested in remote work opportunities and do not have the necessary qualifications, that the Employer inform those staff what certifications, training, or qualifications that they require, so that they may work towards qualifying for future remote work assignments.
- 4. The Company and affected Employees will meet on a case-by-case basis prior to the commencement of remote work to prepare a mutually agreed upon Job Specific Work Plan. The Job Specific Work Plan may be used to:
 - (a) Identify the reporting structure of the working group and the assignment of a Team Leader where necessary. The Team Leader will co-ordinate the work, and deal with any unforeseen issues while on site or out of town;
 - (b) Establish hours of work schedules on short notice.
 - (i) If less than three (3) days' notice of a change in work assignment is not given, then the first two days of the new assignment will be paid at overtime rates.
 - (c) Work out travel times and methods;
 - (i) Establish compressed hours of work schedules based on eighty (80) hours bi-weekly and permit alternate hours of work schedules that deviate from the provisions of Article 6 to accommodate remote work assignments;
 - (ii) Ensure there is confirmation that all Employees affected by the work plan agreement understand the terms and conditions of the work;
 - (iii) Reconsider work plan arrangements if the work requirements change significantly once the remote work begins. The Team Leader will be responsible for meeting with the other Employees and determining if alternate work plan arrangements are required and then contacting Management to discuss revisions.
- 5. Additionally, it is further understood by the Parties that the following principles will guide discussions and decisions in these work plan meetings;

- (a) Maximize business travel during regular hours of work and minimize travel time at premium rates or on an Employees off days.
 - (b) Use reasonable limits on how long an Employee(s) can work and/or travel in a day (consistent with safety and labour standards).
 - (c) Use flexibility in travel times and hours of work to meet work requirements and the personal needs of Employees.
 - (d) Accommodate personal emergencies that require Employees to return home prior to the conclusion of the out of town assignment.
 - (e) Provide a mechanism to debrief/provide feedback on out of town assignments after their completion for the benefit of Employees, the Company and the Union. The Parties agreed to add feedback regarding "out of town work assignments" as a standing item at the monthly Labour Relations Committee Meetings.
 - (f) Default to the provisions of the main body of this Collective Agreement if agreement between the Company and affected Employees is not achieved for a certain out of town/external contract assignment.
6. Copies of Job Specific Work plans shall be submitted to the Union and the HR Manager upon completion.
7. Employees who are required to stay overnight at or near remote work sites shall receive seventy-five ($75) dollars per night out of town bonus.

Employees who are required to stay overnight at or near a remote work site(s) will receive meal allowance up to current CRA maximums.

The Parties agree that the terms of the Collective agreement may not be appropriate for the circumstances involving out-of-town (remote work). It is agreed that the affected Employees and Company Representatives must maintain flexibility to best address the requirements of each remote work assignment.

It is understood that remote workers may not be able to adhere to Article 6.16 (Mandatory Rest Following Overtime) when such circumstances arise, the affected Employee shall take any lost mandatory rest period at the first available opportunity (ideally within the next shift) within that specific work rotation.
