ARTICLE 2 - TERM OF AGREEMENT

- 2.01 This Agreement shall be effective April 1, 2021 and shall continue in effect up to and including March 31, 2023 and shall continue automatically thereafter during annual periods of one (1) year each, unless either party notifies the other in writing between sixty (60) days to one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the expiration date that it desires to amend or terminate the agreement.
- 2.02 If, pursuant to such negotiations, an agreement on the renewal or amendment of this Agreement is not reached prior to the current expiration date, this Agreement shall be automatically extended until consummation of the new Agreement or completion of the proceedings prescribed under the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 3 - NO STRIKES OR LOCK-OUTS

- 3.01 There shall be no strike or lockout that is contrary to the provisions of the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 4 - DEFINITIONS

- 4.01 A regular full-time Employee is one who is normally scheduled to work seventy-five (75) hours (seventy-seven point five [77.5] hours for LPN's) bi-weekly (exclusive of overtime) in a two (2) week pay period as defined in Article 22, Hours of Work, and one who has served the required probationary period.

4.02 (a) Regular Part-time Employees (Benefit Eligible)

Effective May 27, 2021, a regular part-time Employee (Benefit Eligible) is one who is regularly scheduled to work thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours or greater, but less than seventy-five (75) hours (seventy-seven point five [77.5] hours for LPN's) bi-weekly. These Employees are entitled to vacation, statutory holidays, and sick leave benefits on a pro-rated basis, by establishing the time worked as compared to full-time employment.

(b) Regular Part-Time Employees (Non-Benefit Eligible)

4.03 A casual Employee is one who is called in to work occasionally, usually on a "call" basis for relief purposes, or is the successful applicant of a temporary, vacant schedule without owning a permanent rotation, but who does not work a regular schedule, but who does work a regular schedule or does so only for a specified time. 8.02 Harassment & Violence

The Employer and the Union recognize that an Employee should be able to work free from harassment and will cooperate in the achievement of that objective.

Workplace harassment is defined as a single or repeated incident of objectionable or unwelcome conduct, comment, bullying or action intended to intimidate, offend, degrade or humiliate a particular person or group.

Any discriminatory behaviour at or related to the workplace which denies an individual their dignity and respect or affects their job security by creating an intimidating, offensive, embarrassing, or humiliating work environment is considered to be personal harassment.

Workplace harassment is inappropriate, coercive, intimidating, embarrassing, or unwelcome behavior in the workplace by one person towards another, particularly if the behavior is adversely affecting, either directly or indirectly, the working conditions or work prospects of a staff member. It can be committed verbally, in writing, including through email and over the internet, graphically, or physically. Examples of workplace harassment include, but are not limited to: gossiping, verbal, written or graphic abuse or threats; taunting or other forms of intimidation; unwelcome remarks or jokes about physical attributes, attire, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, family, religion, ethnic or national origin; practical jokes which cause undue embarrassment or humiliation; rumour mongering; unwelcome physical contact; physical assault.

Violence, whether at a work site or work related, is defined as the threatened, attempted or actual conduct of a person that causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological injury or harm. It can include: a physical attack or aggression, threatening behaviour, verbal or written threats, domestic violence and/or sexual violence.

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence becomes a workplace hazard when it occurs or spills over into the workplace. It may put the targeted worker at risk and may pose a threat to coworkers.

Employers must take reasonable precautions to protect affected workers if they are likely to be exposed to domestic violence at a work site.

Sexual Violence

Sexual violence as a workplace hazard refers to any sexual act, attempt to obtain a sexual act, or other act directed against a worker's sexuality using coercion, by any person regardless of their relationship to the victim, in a workplace or work-related setting.

Sexual violence exists on a continuum from obscene name-calling to sexual assault and/or homicide. It includes online forms of sexual violence, such as internet threats and harassment, and sexual exploitation.

The Employer and the Union will not tolerate, ignore, or condone workplace harassment or violence and considers harassment to be a serious offence. Should an Employee believe that he has been harassed or experience a violent act, the affected Employee is encouraged to bring the matter to the attention of their Supervisor/Designate for investigation and action.

ARTICLE 9 - UNION REPRESENTATION

- 9.03 It is agreed that up to two (2) members of the Union covered by this Agreement shall be granted Union leave of absence with pay, as per Article 17.01, as required during normal working hours for purposes of negotiations for a new or revised Collective Agreement. It is recommended that each member represents a different classification covered under the Collective Agreement.
- 9.04 Except for meetings with their Employer as specified in 9.02 above, it is agreed by the Union that activities of the Stewards shall be carried on outside of their regular working hours.

The CUPE Representative will give reasonable notice to the Site Administrator or designate prior to attending the facility.
- 9.06 No individual Employee or group of Employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union. Not more than two (2) stewards up to and including the President of the Union shall be selected by the Union to represent the Union for the purpose of handling of grievances or bargaining on any matter arising from time during the continuance of this Agreement.
- 9.07 The Employer will make every effort to approve all Union Leave requests that are made, provided that it does not negatively impact the Employer's right to operate.

ARTICLE 10 - COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES

- 10.01 When a difference arises between the Employer and an Employee concerning the interpretation, application, operation or an alleged violation of this Agreement, the Employee shall continue to work in accordance with the Agreement until the difference is settled, except in the case of suspension or dismissal.
- 10.02 For the purpose of this Article, period of time referred to in days will be consecutive calendar days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and Named Holidays.

The Director of Human Resources/Designate may meet with the Union and the Employee within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance. In any event a decision, in writing, will be rendered within seven (7) days of the meeting being held.

If no resolution at Step 2 then go to:

- (b) The two (2) nominees shall, within ten (10) days, appoint a third person who shall be the Chair of the Arbitration Board. If the two (2) nominees fail to agree upon a Chair within the time limits, the Chair shall be appointed by the Minister of Labor for the Province of Alberta.
- (c) The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference and shall issue an award in writing. The decision of the majority of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon the Employee(s) affected by it. When there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board.
- (d) Either party, within five (5) days from receipt of the Board's decision, may apply to the Chair of the Arbitration Board to reconvene the Board for purposes of clarifying the decision.

- (e) Each of the parties to the Agreement shall bear the fees and expenses of their own nominee and witnesses, and the fees and expenses of the Chair shall be shared equally between the parties.
- (f) As an alternative to a Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union may, by mutual agreement, employ the use of a single Arbitrator to settle the matter in dispute. The fees and expenses of the single Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the parties.

10.05 Employees alleging dismissal or suspension without just cause may commence their grievance at Step 2, within ten (10) days of occurrence.

10.06 At any stage of the Grievance Procedure, including Arbitration, the parties may have the assistance of the Employee or Employees concerned as witnesses. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit conferring parties or the Arbitrator to have access to any part of the care centre to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

10.07 The time limits specified throughout the Steps may be extended by mutual consent in writing between the Union and the Employer.

10.08 Should the Employer or the Union fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered conceded by the party failing to meet their time limit unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.

10.09 Union Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving the question of general application or interpretation occurs affecting more than one (1) Employee, the Union may proceed on a policy grievance at Step 2 providing the Union initiates the policy grievance within twenty (20) days of the date the Union became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence.

RE: $2.00 Hourly Wage Top Up - Health/Resident Care Aides in Long-Term Care & Designated Supportive Living

The Employer and Union agree that, as per the Government of Alberta directive issued on April 20, 2020, the Employer will implement a $2.00 per hour wage "top up" to all Client Care Specialists (CCS) working in Designated Supportive Living (DSL) areas at its Kingsland Terrace site. This will exclude any other job classifications covered under the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

The "top up" will be implemented on all CCS hours paid by the Employer to eligible employees as outlined above retroactive to April 20, 2020. The increase will be provided to the CCS base hourly wage rate at each level of the currently agreed to wage grid, will be subject to all required statutory deductions, and will continue until such time that the funding for this "top up" ceases, as determined by the Government of Alberta and Chief Medical Officer of Health. At that time, the CCS base hourly wage rate will return to the rates mutually negotiated and agreed to by the Employer and Union, and this Letter of Understanding will be removed from the Collective Agreement.
