ARTICLE 1 – PREAMBLE

- 1.01 In the spirit of Truth and Reconciliation, the parties acknowledge the traditional homelands of the peoples of Treaty 6 Territory and Region 4 of the Metis Nation of Alberta
- 1.02 It is agreed that the primary purpose of the Employer is to provide the members of Abby Road Housing Co-op with efficient, competent twenty-four (24) hour assistance; therefore, it is the intent of the parties to:
- (a) Ensure the provision of the best possible service and care;
 - (b) Protect the interests of members, Employees and the Employer;
 - (c) Maintain and improve the harmonious relations and settle conditions of employment between the Employer, the Employees, and the Union;
 - (d) Recognize the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations in all matters pertaining to working conditions and employment, etc.;
 - (e) Recognize the benefits of a self-directed support program; recognize and work within the co-operative principles of the Abby Road Housing Co-operative; and
 - (f) Ensure that the operation of the Support Services Program shall not hinder or impair the operation of the Abby Road Housing Co-operative Ltd.
- 1.03 The Support Services Program is managed by the Support Services Program Coordinator. The Program Coordinator is responsible to the Board of Directors. Abby Road Housing Cooperative is the Service Provider and as such the Board of Directors is responsible to Alberta Health Services in all contractual regards including the disbursement of funds contracted for the operation of the Support Services Program.

ARTICLE 3 – TERM OF AGREEMENT

3.01 This Agreement, including appendices hereto, shall be binding and remain in effect from October 1, 2022 to September 30, 2025 and shall continue in force and effect until a new Collective Agreement has been negotiated or until the agreement is breached by strike or lockout.

- 3.02 Notification to request to amend this agreement must be given not less than sixty (60) days and not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the expiration date.
- 3.03 When either party serves notice of desire to amend the Collective Agreement under Clause 3.02, the negotiating committees shall exchange any proposed amendments at commencement of negotiations.
- 3.04 Any changes deemed necessary to specific articles of this agreement may be made by mutual agreement between the Union and Employer at any time during the term of this agreement. These changes shall be subject to ratification of the membership of Local 1158 and included in this Collective Agreement on a signed Letter of Understanding.

ARTICLE 4 – UNION RECOGNITION – BULLETIN BOARDS – UNION MEETINGS

- 4.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent for the Employees covered by this Collective Agreement as described in the Certificate of the Labour Relations Board issued pursuant to the Labour Relations Code and amendments thereto.
- 4.02 No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement, which may be in conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.
- 4.03 Each party will designate a person or persons and all correspondence between the parties arising out of this Collective Agreement or incidental thereto shall pass to and from such designated persons. A copy of any correspondence relating to discipline matters shall be forwarded to the National Representative at the same time as it is provided to other parties.
- 4.04 (a) Persons whose jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on a job which is included in the bargaining unit, except for purposes of instruction, in an emergency, or when Employees are not available, and provided that the act of performing the aforementioned work does not reduce the hours of work or pay of any Employee.
- (b) The Clause 4.04 (a) does not preclude Co-op members from using their own Personal Care Aide or Management employing a worker from an agency when no Employee is available.
- 4.05 Any member or officer of the Union may have assistance of a CUPE National or Parent Union Representative(s) at any time when dealing with the Employer. This representative(s) or other officer of the Union will be permitted on the Employer's premises provided they have received prior approval to do so from the Employer.
- 4.06 The Employer shall provide a bulletin board, which shall be placed so that all Employees shall have access to it and upon which the Union shall have the right to post notice of meetings and other Union information.

- 4.07 (a) With the exception of the Local Union's Steward or Local Union Vice-President or other Union Officer, no Employee will engage in Union business during working hours, unless required to meet with the Employer or the Union Steward.
- (b) Employees who are required to meet with the Employer during their normal work period shall do so without loss of pay or benefits.
- (c) No disciplinary meeting as defined in Article 10 may take place until such time as the Union Representative of the Employee's choosing is available. The Program Coordinator has the right to have a member of the Co-op Board of Directors present at such disciplinary meetings.

4.08 Members of the Union who are at work shall be permitted one hour to attend regular or special union meetings, which are held in the workplace, each month without loss of wages or benefits. The Employer has the right to deny attendance should such attendance jeopardize members' care.

4.09 On a request from the Union, the Employer agrees to permit one Union member to attend Support Services meetings when there is a request for an addition to the agenda of a staff issue. Such requests are to be made to the Co-op Board of Directors Chairperson or designate. The Union member may remain in attendance until such matters have been discussed and the Union member will not be compensated for time spent. Should a member of the Union be requested by the Co-op Board of Directors to attend the meeting, they will receive one (1) hour pay at their regular rate.

4.10 Labour/Management Committee

The parties agree to strike a Labour/Management Committee to be co-chaired and comprised of an equal number of representatives. The purpose of the committee will be to:

- (a) Discuss and review operational, health & safety, policies, and protocols;
- (b) Maintain harmonious relations conducive to operational efficiency and best standards of practice;
- (c) To resolve differences and ensure continual and consistent communication between Management, the Board and the Union.
- (d) To review staffing allocations;
- (e) To assist in accommodating the needs of current Employees, recognize seniority, including creating more full time positions whenever possible.
- (f) The parties agree that a Joint Committee shall be established to review staffing allocation to better meet the needs of both parties.

It is further agreed that creating more full time positions is in the best interest of both the Employer and the Union.

The Joint Committee shall work towards accommodating the needs of the current Employees and recognizing seniority and length of service to allow for more full time positions within Abby Road.

Grievances and collective bargaining matters will be discussed by this committee upon mutual agreement.

The committee shall be comprised of the Program Coordinator, the Shop Steward, one Co-op member, and one other representative of CUPE.

Recording of the minutes of the meetings will be jointly undertaken and distributed prior to the next time the Labour/Management Committee convenes.

Every effort shall be made to distribute the agenda at least one week prior to the convening of the committee.

Committee meetings will normally be scheduled during work hours as per Article 12.3.

Meetings of the Labour Management Committee are to be held quarterly at a mutually agreed upon time (prior to the quarterly Co-op General Meeting) and as need arises.

It is agreed that this is a very valuable and useful tool for ensuring the exchange of information and concerns. The Union and Employer agree to set regular meetings up as soon as both parties ratify the agreement.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES CHECK-OFF

- 5.01 All Employees of Abby Road Housing Co-operative Ltd. are covered by this Collective Agreement. Membership in the Union is voluntary.
- 5.02 The Employer shall deduct from the wages of all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement an amount equal to the monthly Union dues in a manner, which is in keeping with the payroll system in effect at the Co-op. Such deductions shall be forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer of CUPE Local 1158 as one cheque, not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the following month in which the dues were deducted. Such deductions shall be accompanied by a list, which shall indicate each Employee's name and the amount deducted from each Employee.
- 5.03 The Employer will record the annual dues deducted on T-4 slips issued for income tax purposes.
- 5.04 Once a year the Employer will provide the Union with the Employees' addresses and phone numbers.
- 5.05 The Employer agrees to advise potential Employees that a Union Agreement is in effect. The Union shall be allowed fifteen (15) minutes at new Employee orientation to communicate, orientate and provide the new Employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 – MANAGEMENT / EMPLOYER RIGHTS

6.01 The Employer reserves all rights not specifically restricted by the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 – DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

- 7.01 (a) The parties agree that individuals should be able to work and live in an environment free from discrimination and harassment, as defined in this Agreement and in the policy and procedures manual of Abby Road Housing Co-op Support Services Program.
- (b) "Harassment" is conduct or comments which are intimidating, threatening, demeaning, or abusive and may be accompanied by direct or implied threats to status, conditions of employment, Union membership, reputation, etc. Harassment can occur between members, staff or coordinator and may be directed at an individual or at a group.
- (c) The Employer or the Members, or the Union, shall not at any time discriminate against any Employee on account of creed, color, nationality, ancestry or place of origin, political or religious beliefs, sex, sexual preference, age or marital status or because of their connection with trade union organizations.
- (d) Any behavior that constitutes harassment or discrimination shall never be justified or acceptable. The Parties fully agree to work together to achieve and maintain this goal.

ARTICLE 8 – OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY COMMITTEE

8.01 (a) The Health and Safety Committee shall be comprised of at least two (2) representatives of both the Union and the Employer. The Health and Safety Committee shall hold, at minimum, quarterly meetings to jointly consider, monitor, inspect, investigate and review health and safety conditions and practices and to improve existing health and safety standards. Minutes shall be recorded and distributed to the members of the committee.

Recommendations of the Committee will not be subject to the grievance and arbitration process.

(b) Employees scheduled to work at the time and date of the Health and Safety meetings shall be paid at their basic rate of pay for attending such meetings.

8.02 The parties to this Collective Agreement will cooperate to the fullest extent in the matter of occupational health, safety and accident prevention.

8.03 Should an Employee believe that they may be placed in a position where they feel harassed, threatened, intimidated or may do injury to the Co-op member or themselves, they will immediately cease the procedure and report the situation to the Program Coordinator.

- 8.04 Should an Employee be required to use specialized equipment then they must be adequately trained in the use of such equipment. No Employee will be required to use such specialized equipment until the Employee has received the proper training to operate such equipment.

ARTICLE 9 – GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND DISMISSAL

9.01 When the Employer finds it necessary to correct an Employee's work, attitude, performance or conduct, which may lead to further disciplinary measures, the following procedures will apply:

- (a) There will be a performance coaching session. Letters will be provided at this meeting to the Employee and the Shop Steward outlining the terms of the coaching. If the terms are not met within a specified date, there will be a second performance coaching session.
- (b) Should this performance coaching fail, a written warning will be issued at a meeting and placed in the Employee's file. The written warning will consist of the specific infraction, date that the behavior should be rectified by and the consequences if it is not and any other relevant details. Copies of this letter will be given to all parties involved at the time of the meeting.
- (c) The Employee may reply to this letter and this reply shall become part of their personnel record.
- (d) If the infraction continues, a final written warning will be issued highlighting the consequences should the infraction continue past a specified date.
- (e) The above sub-articles apply to the same infraction. If an Employee commits another unrelated infraction, the process for dealing with that infraction shall begin with the first performance coaching session.
- (f) The Employee shall have the right to a Union representative of their choosing at any meeting with management that is/may be disciplinary. The Employer shall advise the Employee and give them sufficient time to have the Union representative attend.

9.02 If the Employer believes there is just cause, they may discipline, suspend or discharge an Employee for conduct which includes but may not be limited to:

- (a) Refusing to comply with the terms of this Agreement or the relevant Program Policies and Procedures for which the Employee has been made aware and has access to (the Policy and Procedure Manual).
- (b) Breach of confidentiality.
- (c) Neglect of duties.
- (d) Dishonesty by action or inaction.

- (e) Failure to report to work; from vacation or other leave without providing a bona fide reason.
- (f) Being absent for three (3) consecutive days without notifying the Coordinator or designate shall be considered to have abandoned their position.
- (g) Repeatedly arriving late for work.
- (h) Consuming alcohol or illicit drugs while on duty, or being under the influence of illicit drugs or alcohol when reporting for work.
- (i) Sleeping while on duty.
- (j) Theft or intentional destruction of Co-op Members' or Co-op property.
- (k) Abuse of a Member or co-worker.
- (l) Failure to be approved for, or maintain a bond by the Program's Underwriter.

9.03 The Employer has the right to immediately suspend or discharge the Employee for just cause, or to send the Employee home with pay pending further action. The Employee shall be given the reason for their discharge in the presence of a Shop Steward. Such Employee and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing by the Employer of the reason for such discharge or suspension. The Union has the right to investigate and/or grieve the decision through the Grievance Procedure in Article 10.

ARTICLE 10 – DISPUTE RESOLUTION AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement.

10.02 A grievance may be one of the following categories:

- (a) Individual grievance: A grievance affecting an individual Employee.
- (b) Group grievance: A grievance affecting two or more Employees.
- (c) Policy grievance: A grievance affecting or having the potential to affect the bargaining unit

10.03 An Employee or the Local Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a CUPE National Representative(s).

10.04 (a) Prior to a written grievance being filed, the parties shall endeavor to informally resolve the difference within ten (10) days of the incident giving rise to the dispute.

The parties may request the assistance of a third party to help to resolve the dispute. The parties shall equally share the cost of third-party assistance. The grievance shall be held in abeyance until the third-party process has concluded.

(b) Grievance Procedure

Step 1

If the difference is not resolved through 10.04(a), a formal written grievance shall be filed with The Program Coordinator, the Vice-President of Support Services and the Board of Directors within ten (10) week days exclusive of weekends and holidays of the event or incident-giving rise to the grievance.

The Program Coordinator and Chairperson of the Board or the Vice-President of Support Services shall meet with the Grievor(s) and the Union within five (5) days of receiving the grievance. Within ten (10) week days exclusive of weekends and holidays of hearing the grievance, the Program Coordinator shall issue a response in writing to the Grievor(s) and the Union.

Grievances arising out of suspension, termination, discrimination or harassment shall be initiated at Step 2.

(c) Step 2

If the response of the Program Coordinator is not satisfactory, the Union shall have ten (10) days to advance the grievance in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall convene a meeting with the Union to hear and attempt to resolve the grievance within ten (10) week days exclusive of weekends and holidays of receipt of the Union's response.

The Board of Directors shall respond in writing to the Union within ten (10) week days exclusive of weekends and holidays following the meeting.

(d) Step 3

If the response by the Board of Directors is not satisfactory to the Union, the grievance may be advanced to arbitration within ten (10) days of the Union receiving the written response. Notice to the Board of Directors shall be in writing and identify the Union's choice(s) for a sole arbitrator.

The Board of Directors shall respond, in writing, within ten (10) days of receipt of the Unions' notice and agree with a named choice of the Union or identify its choice for a sole arbitrator.

If the nominees or parties are unable to agree to a chair for the arbitration board, the difference shall be submitted to the Director of Mediation Services.

10.05 The parties agree that the grievance procedure is intended to achieve mutual resolve to differences arising within the collective bargaining relationship. Unless it is demonstrated that a party is prejudiced or significantly compromised by a failure to adhere to the process and/or the specified time limits, the validity of the grievance or jurisdiction of the arbitration board or arbitrator shall not be challenged.

10.06 Should the parties mutually agree to resolve the grievance prior to the convening of an arbitration hearing, they shall render the resolve in writing. The resolve shall be presented to the respective principles of the parties for final approval. The grievor(s) will be provided opportunity to voice any concerns or objections at a special meeting of the bargaining unit convened to approve or decline the proposed resolve. If approved the resolve shall be binding on the grievor(s).

ARTICLE 11 – PERSONNEL FILES

- 11.01 (a) Employees shall have the right to review their personnel/payroll file at a time mutually agreeable to the Employee and the Employer. With the written permission of the Employee, a Union Representative or Shop Steward shall also have the right of access to an Employee's personnel file.
- (b) On request the Employer will provide an Employee with copies of letters of discipline, evaluations, or records in the Employee's file which would be used as evidence in an arbitration hearing.
- (c) An Employee who has been subject to disciplinary action may after (2) years of continuous service from the date the disciplinary action was invoked, request in writing, that their personnel file be cleared of any record of the disciplinary action. Such request will be granted provided the Employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action, during the two (2) year period, of which the Employee is aware. The Employer will confirm in writing to the Employee that such action has been effected.

ARTICLE 12 – SHOP STEWARDS, LOCAL UNION VICE PRESIDENT

- 12.01 The Shop Steward system is accepted in principle by the Employer, and the Shop Steward or Local Union Vice-President will be recognized as having authority to act on behalf of the Union. The names of the Union's representatives will be provided in writing to the Employer before they are recognized as valid representatives.
- 12.02 The Employer agrees that the Union's representatives shall not be hindered, coerced or interfered with in any way in the performance of their function while investigating disputes and presenting adjustments. The Union understands and agrees that each Union representative is employed to perform work as required by the Employer and that they will not leave this work during working hours except to perform their duties as provided in this Collective Agreement. Therefore, no Union representative shall leave their work without obtaining the permission of their supervisor. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 12.03 Union representatives shall suffer no loss in pay for time spent in performing their duties as Union Representatives during their scheduled work time.
- 12.04 The Bargaining Unit's Union Vice-President will be allowed time off without pay to attend the parent Local's meetings and to report back to the local union members. Proper notice will be provided by the Bargaining Unit's Union Vice-President.

ARTICLE 13 – PROBATION, ORIENTATION AND EVALUATION

13.01 Orientation of new Employees shall be:

- (a) in the form of a practicum and mentoring by assigned qualified co-workers.
- (b) on all the shifts (days, evenings, nights) the Employee may be assigned.

13.02 Probation Period

- (a) All new permanent Employees shall serve a probationary period of 300 hours worked. The probation period for permanent part-time Employees shall not exceed six (6) months.
- (b) An evaluation of the probationary Employee shall be completed prior to the end of 300 hours.
- (c) The results of the Employee's evaluation shall be given to the probationary Employee in writing apprising the Employee of their progress, any work deficiencies, or other concerns. The probationary Employee shall be evaluated prior to the end of the probation period.
- (d) Once the probationary Employee has completed their probationary period, they shall have their seniority established as per Article 18.

13.03 With the permission of the Coordinator, during the first 50 hours of employment the Union Steward or other Union Officer, during the work period, shall have one half hour to explain to the probationary Employee the workings of the Union and value of the Collective Agreement. Such permission shall not be unreasonably denied.

- 13.04
- (a) During the probationary period the employment of a probationary Employee may be terminated without notice.
 - (b) Such termination of a probationary Employee may only be grieved by the Union should a policy grievance apply.
 - (c) Termination of probationary Employees are subject to Employment Standards Code.

ARTICLE 14 – JOB DESCRIPTIONS

14.01 The Employer and the Union shall draft mutually agreeable job descriptions for the positions covered by this Collective Agreement. Should they fail to agree then the dispute will be submitted to grievance and arbitration procedure.

14.02 When the Employer changes the duties or the volume of work for these job descriptions, the Union will be advised in writing. Should the Union and/or the Employee believe the change to be significant, the Union and/or the Employee shall notify the Employer in writing of any concerns. The Employer shall convene a meeting within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice to review the concerns and attempt to affect a resolve. If the parties are unable to agree, then the dispute shall be submitted to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

Work volume or workload concerns within the range of duties of the current classification shall not be subject to a wage rate adjustment. Only in the event the changes to the job description result in greater responsibilities and/or scope or practice, not typical of the current classification, will wage rates and classification of the new duties be subjected to a review.

14.03 Job descriptions will be attached to this Collective Agreement as Appendix 'A'.

ARTICLE 15 – NOTICE OF TERMINATION OR LAYOFF OF EMPLOYEES

15.01 Employees shall provide the Employer with written notice of resignation of employment at least:

- (a) 1 week if employed more than 3 months but less than 2 years;
- (b) 2 weeks if employed 2 years or more.

15.02 (a) A layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the number of scheduled hours of work or the number of Employees.

(b) Should a layoff result in the loss of active employment, the Employer shall provide twenty-one (21) days' notice to layoff.

(c) The least senior Employee shall be first laid off.

(e) The Union will be advised 30 days prior to any reduction of Employees. The Union shall be notified immediately of any reduction of hours of work and the reason(s).

15.03 Recall

Recall of laid off Employees shall be in order of seniority.

15.04 Contracting Out

- (a) No Employee will lose hours as a result of the Employer contracting out services currently provided by Union members.
- (b) If layoffs occur as a result of Program Funding shortfalls, the affected Employees will receive two (2) weeks' pay per year of employment plus applicable pay and vacation owed. Lay off is defined as a loss of more than thirty-five percent (35%) of an Employee's regular hours.

ARTICLE 16 – POSTING AND FILLING OF POSITIONS

16.01 (i) When a position becomes vacant, or there is a newly created position, such positions shall be posted on the Employee bulletin board for five (5) calendar days, unless mutually agreed between the parties. Vacancies arising out of leaves, extended vacations or other absences of 20 working days or more, shall be posted as Temporary Vacancies.

- (ii) Part time and Casual Employees shall be immediately informed of all postings by email or posting. If a second part time position would place a Part-time Employee into a conflict of scheduling or overtime, the Employee may not be awarded the second position.

16.02 Employees shall apply in writing for the vacant position or the newly created position and will be considered before anyone not covered by this Collective Agreement.

16.03 Should the internal applicant(s) fail to meet the minimum qualifications, and are unable to upgrade their qualifications immediately, then the Employer may consider applicants not covered by this Agreement.

16.04 Qualifications for the position shall be consistent with the responsibilities specified in the job description.

16.05 Where two or more internal applicants are relatively equal in qualifications and skills and abilities, seniority shall be the determining factor.

ARTICLE 17 – REHIRING OF FORMER EMPLOYEES

17.01 Persons who have resigned their employment with the Employer may be credited for previous years of employment and assigned a rate of pay on the pay range beyond Step 1.

17.02 The Union will be advised in writing of any rehired Employees and the conditions of rehire.

ARTICLE 18 – SENIORITY

18.01 Seniority shall be established from the Employee's last date of hire.

18.02 Seniority shall be based on date of hire.

18.03 Casual Employees will accrue seniority, should they achieve a permanent position, based on their original date of hire.

18.04 Seniority shall be considered broken:

- (a) When an Employee resigns or is terminated from their position with the Employer; or
- (b) Upon the expiry of twenty-four (24) months following layoff during which time the Employee has not been recalled to work; or
- (c) If an Employee does not return to work upon recall or on the expiration of any form of leave.

18.05 An up to date seniority list shall be provided to the Union in writing and posted in the Support Services office once per year between March 15 and March 31 of each year.

ARTICLE 19 – BONDING AND INSURANCE

19.01 As a condition of employment, all Employees employed by the Employer must be eligible for bonding.

ARTICLE 20 – HOURS OF WORK

20.01 It is understood and agreed that work shall provide for a continuous operation Monday through Sunday.

20.02 Shift Schedules

(a) Shift schedules shall comply with the following:

Full-time Employees

- (i) All full-time shift Employees shall work eight (8) hours exclusive of ½ hour meal breaks.
- (ii) Employees shall receive an unpaid lunch period of ½ hour during each shift in excess of five (5) consecutive hours of work except shift 4, 6
- (iii) Shift 4, 6 shall be eight (8) hours (2300 – 0700) which shall include a paid ½ hour meal break.

Part-time Employees

- (iv) All part-time shifts shall be a minimum of four (4) hours of work unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Employee and the Employer.
- (b) Shift schedules for permanent Employees shall be posted fourteen (14) calendar days in advance. Except in the event of the hospitalization or death of a client, amendments to the schedule shall be by mutual agreement between the Union and the Employer.
- (c) Unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union, shift schedules for permanent Employees shall provide for:
 - (i) At least two (2) consecutive days off per week;
 - (ii) At least twelve (12) hours of rest between scheduled shifts.
- (d) The parties agree that for the purpose of selecting shift schedules, shift schedules will be selected in order of seniority.
- (e) If, as a result of a major shift restructure, an Employee decides to go Casual, they will be offered the first available shift.

20.03 Optional Scheduling

- (a) Optional scheduling provisions may be mutually agreed to in writing between the Employer and the Union. The Employer may consider any optional schedule that is proposed in writing by the Union.

20.04 Permanent part-time Employees who wish to be considered for additional hours of work shall advise the Program Coordinator and the Union Steward, in writing, as to the extent of their availability.

20.05 In the event an Employee reports for work as scheduled and is not provided work at that time, the Employee shall be compensated for the completed shift at their regular rate of pay.

20.06 Casual Employees are expected to provide the Program Coordinator with notice on the 1st day of each month of their inability to work a scheduled shift, or in unexpected circumstances to provide reasonable notice.

20.07 Casual Employees will submit, in writing, their availability each month (prior to the first day of that month) and must also work a minimum of one (1) shift per month or risk being dropped as a Casual Employee.

An Employee may request to be exempted from this provision and the request shall not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 21 – WAGES AND SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

21.01 Advancement on the wage grid and wage rate allocation shall be in accordance with the following:

- (a) Subject to Article 17 new Employees shall commence at Step 1 of the wage grid.
