WHEREAS the Alberta Labour Relations Board has certified the Union as the bargaining agent for certain Employees of the Employer.

AND WHEREAS the parties acknowledge and respect that we live and work on the traditional territories of the Blackfoot Confederacy (Siksika, Kainai, Piikani), The Tsuu'tina, the Iyâxe Nakoda Nations, the Métis Nation (Region 3), and all people who make their homes in the Treaty 7 region of Southern Alberta.

AND WHEREAS the parties hereto have agreed to enter into a Collective Bargaining Agreement upon the terms hereinafter set forth:

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH:

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

1.01 It is the desire of the parties to this agreement to maintain harmonious relations between the Employer and the Union and to work together in the promotion of the highest standard of care and services in the care centres.

ARTICLE 2 - TERMS OF AGREEMENT

2.01 This Agreement shall be effective July 1, 2022 and shall continue in effect up to and including June 30, 2024 and shall continue automatically thereafter during annual periods of one (1) year each, unless either party notifies the other in writing between sixty (60) days to one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the expiration date that it desires to amend or terminate the agreement.

2.02 If, pursuant to such negotiations, an agreement on the renewal or amendment of this Agreement is not reached prior to the current expiration date, this Agreement shall be automatically extended until consummation of the new Agreement or completion of the proceedings prescribed under the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 3 - NO STRIKES OR LOCK-OUTS

3.01 In the event of a strike or lock-out, the parties to this Collective Agreement agree to abide by the provisions of the Alberta Labour Relations Code governing such conditions.

ARTICLE 4 - DEFINITION OF UNIONIZED EMPLOYEES

A Unionized "Employee" (hereafter referred to as Employee) shall mean any Employee of the Employer for whom the Union has been certified as the bargaining agent or for whom the Union has attained the status of bargaining agent through voluntary recognition, and whose employment is designated as regular full-time, regular part-time, temporary or casual.

4.01 Regular Full-Time Employees

A Regular Full-time Employee is one who regularly works seventy-five (75) hours [LPN seventy-seven point five (77.5) hours] in a two (2) week pay period as defined in Article 22 – Hours of Work.

4.02 Regular Part-Time Employees

(a) Regular Part-time Employees (Benefit Eligible)

Effective February 22, 2021, a regular part-time Employee (Benefit Eligible) is one who is regularly scheduled to work thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours or greater, but less than seventy-five (75) hours (seventy-seven point five [77.5] hours for LPN's) bi-weekly. These Employees are entitled to vacation, statutory holidays and sick leave benefits on a pro-rated basis, by establishing the time worked as compared to full-time employment.

(b) Regular Part-Time Employees (Non-Benefit Eligible)

Effective February 22, 2021, a regular part-time Employee (Non-Benefit Eligible) is one who is regularly scheduled to work less than thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours bi-weekly and therefore, would be excluded from receiving benefits, as defined in Article 30 – Health Care and Insurance Provisions. These Employees are entitled to vacation, statutory holidays and sick leave benefits on a pro-rated basis, by establishing the time worked as compared to full-time employment.

All current employees, as of February 22, 2021, holding a permanent rotation between thirty (30) and thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours, and wishing to remain on the Group Benefit Plan, will be grandfathered in and remain eligible for receiving benefits. These Employees are entitled to vacation, statutory holidays and sick leave benefits on a pro-rated basis, by establishing the time worked as compared to full-time employment.

- (c) It is understood and agreed that regular part-time Employees identified in 4.02 (a) and 4.02 (b) shall have first preference for the available work listed in 4.03 (a).

4.03 Casual Employees

- (a) A casual Employee is one who is called in to work occasionally, usually on a “call” basis for relief purposes, but who does not work a regular schedule of thirty (30) or more hours in a two (2) week pay period or does so only for a specified time.
- (b) Casual Employees shall accumulate seniority but are not entitled to any benefits.

4.04 Temporary Employee – Temporary Position

- (a) Definition: A temporary Employee is a casual employee or a new hire who is awarded a rotation on a temporary basis for a full-time or part-time [zero point four (0.4) or greater] position for:
- (i) a specific job of more than three (3) months; or
 - (ii) replacement of full-time or part-time Employee who is on an approved leave of absence for a period of more than three (3) months; or
 - (iii) replacement of a full-time or part-time Employee who is on leave due to illness or injury where the Employee has indicated that the duration of such leave will be in excess of three (3) months;
 - (iv) Temporary Employees shall be eligible to apply for any permanent vacancies posted during the term of the temporary assignment.

All current temporary employees as of February 22, 2021 holding a temporary rotation between thirty (30) and thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours, and wishing to remain on the Group Benefit Plan, will be grandfathered in and remain eligible for receiving benefits.

Effective February 22, 2021, a temporary Employee who has worked in the same thirty-seven point five (37.5) hour or greater bi-weekly rotation for six (6) calendar months will be eligible to enroll in Intercare's Group Benefit Plan until completion of the temporary line. Benefits will include the accrual of vacation hours and sick hour accruals; however, will exclude Long Term Disability coverage and enrollment in the Employer's Group RRSP. Temporary employees awarded a temporary rotation between thirty (30) and thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours bi-weekly after February 22, 2021 are excluded from receiving benefits.

Eligible temporary Employees will receive the same benefit coverage as permanent Employees as outlined in Article 30. Upon completion of the temporary rotation, and return to casual status, all benefits will cease, any unused accrued vacation hours will be paid out to the Employee, and any unused accrued sick hours will be lost. Should a temporary Employee post into a different temporary rotation while actively covered under the Employer's Group Benefit Plan and accruing vacation, they will not be required to satisfy a new six (6) month waiting period. They will continue to be eligible for both.

Upon completion of the temporary rotation the Employee will return to casual status. Should the Employee post into a different temporary rotation after returning to casual status, a new six (6) month waiting period would be required.

A Casual Employee in a temporary position shall be covered by the terms of this Collective Agreement, except that a Casual Employee in a temporary position shall have no rights under Article 31- Layoff and Rehire.

(b) Regular Employee – Temporary Position:

Effective February 22, 2021, all regular full-time and part-time Employees who apply for a temporary rotation shall maintain all benefits and entitlements as defined under Articles 4.01 and 4.02 (a). Furthermore, all current regular full-time and part-time Employees holding a temporary rotation between thirty (30) and thirty-seven point five (37.5) hours effective February 22, 2021, and wishing to remain on the Group Benefit Plan, will be grandfathered in and remain eligible for receiving benefits.

Should the temporary position fall below the minimum requirements outlined in 4.02 (a), the Employee will waive their rights to the benefit coverage outlined in Article 30. The Employee will be eligible to re-enroll upon return to their permanent rotation and/or successfully commencing an alternate permanent or temporary rotation that meets the requirements outlined in 4.01 or 4.02 (a).

ARTICLE 5 - SCOPE AND RECOGNITION

- 5.01 (a) The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all its Employees at Brentwood, Chinook and Southwood Care Centres, as agreed to by mutual consent and as agreed to by certification under the Alberta Labour Relations Code. - (b) The Employer and the Union agree that in the exercise of each of their rights and in the administration of this Agreement, they shall endeavor to do so in a fair and reasonable manner.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION SECURITY

- 6.01 Each of the parties hereto agrees that there will be no discrimination exercised or practiced upon any Employee because of membership in the Union.
- 6.02 All Employees who are members of the Union on the effective date of this Collective Agreement will remain members of the Union. All Employees who are hired after the effective date of this Agreement shall become, as a condition of employment, members of the Union.
- 6.03 The Employer shall deduct bi-weekly from the pay of each Employee such dues and assessments as may be established and amended from time to time by the Union. The Union Representative's time to do the presentation shall only be paid by the Employer if the presentation occurs during the Employee's scheduled hours of work. No overtime or travel time shall be paid by the Employer. To minimize impact on operations if the Employee selected as the Union Representative is an Employee of Intercare, the Employee shall be working in the facility where the general orientation is conducted.
- 6.07 Upon thirty (30) days' notice by the Union, but no more than once per year, the Employer shall provide the Union with an updated list of Union Employee's names, addresses, personal email addresses and phone numbers. Any discriminatory behaviour at or related to the workplace which denies an individual their dignity and respect or affects their job security by creating an intimidating, offensive, embarrassing, or humiliating work environment is considered to be personal harassment.

Workplace harassment is inappropriate, coercive, intimidating, embarrassing, or unwelcome behavior in the workplace by one person towards another, particularly if the behavior is adversely affecting, either directly or indirectly, the working conditions or work prospects of a staff member. It can be committed verbally, in writing, including through email and over the internet, graphically, or physically. Examples of workplace harassment include, but are not limited to: gossiping, verbal, written or graphic abuse or threats; taunting or other forms of intimidation; unwelcome remarks or jokes about physical attributes, attire, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, family, religion, ethnic or national origin; practical jokes which cause undue embarrassment or humiliation; rumour mongering; unwelcome physical contact; physical assault.

It can include: a physical attack or aggression, threatening behaviour, verbal or written threats, domestic violence and/or sexual violence.

Domestic violence

Domestic violence becomes a workplace hazard when it occurs or spills over into the workplace. It may put the targeted worker at risk and may pose a threat to coworkers.

Employers must take reasonable precautions to protect affected workers if they are likely to be exposed to domestic violence at a work site.

Sexual violence

Sexual violence as a workplace hazard refers to any sexual act, attempt to obtain a sexual act, or other act directed against a worker's sexuality using coercion, by any person regardless of their relationship to the victim, in a workplace or work-related setting.

Sexual violence exists on a continuum from obscene name-calling to sexual assault and/or homicide. It includes online form of sexual violence, such as internet threats and harassment, and sexual exploitation.

The Employer and the Union will not tolerate, ignore, or condone workplace harassment or violence and considers both to be serious offences.

Should an Employee believe that they have been harassed or experienced a violent act; the effected Employee is encouraged to bring the matter to the attention of their Supervisor/Designate for investigation and action.

ARTICLE 9 - UNION REPRESENTATION

- 9.01 The Employer shall be advised in writing of the names of Shop Stewards and be immediately notified of any changes of Shop Stewards as may occur from time to time.
- 9.02 The Employer agrees that not more than one (1) Shop Steward per facility shall be allowed to attend meetings, as required with the Employer, without loss of pay, for purposes of resolving differences or grievances.
- 9.03 Except for meetings with their Employer as specified in 9.02 above, it is agreed by the Union that as far as possible, activities of the Stewards shall be carried on outside of their regular working hours unless otherwise mutually arranged by the parties to this Agreement.
- 9.04 It is agreed that up to two (2) members of the Union from each care centre covered by this Agreement shall be granted Union leave of absence with pay, as per Article 17.01, as required during normal working hours for purposes of negotiations for a new or revised Collective Agreement, subject to operational requirements. It is recommended that the members from each care centre represent a different classification covered under the Collective Agreement.

- 9.05 No individual Employee or group of Employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization of the Union.
- 9.06 The Employer will make every effort to approve all Union Leave requests that are made, provided that it does not negatively impact the Employer's right to operate.

ARTICLE 10 - COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES

- 10.01 When a difference arises between the Employer and an Employee concerning the interpretation, application, operation or an alleged violation of this Agreement, the Employee shall continue to work in accordance with the Agreement until the difference is settled, except in the case of suspension or dismissal.
- 10.02 For the purpose of this Article, period of time referred to in days will be consecutive calendar days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and Named Holidays.
- 10.03 An Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union Representative at each Step of the grievance process.
- 10.04 Every effort shall be made to resolve all complaints and grievances in the following manner:

Step 1 - Complaint Resolution

Employees believing they may have a problem arising out of the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement shall first discuss the matter with their immediate Supervisor within five (5) days of becoming aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence. Immediate Supervisor means that person from whom the Employee normally receives work assignments. Every effort shall be made by both parties to resolve the problem at this level. The Immediate Supervisor shall advise the Employee of the decision within five (5) days of discussing the matter.

If no resolution at Step 1 then go to:

The Employer shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of such notice, notify the Union of agreement to one (1) of the suggested arbitrators or provide a list of three (3) alternate arbitrators. Where the parties cannot agree on the Sole Arbitrator, either party may request that Alberta Mediation Services make the appointment.
- (b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provision respecting the engagement of a Sole Arbitrator, if the parties agree, a Board of Arbitration shall be chosen to act in the same capacity and having the same powers as a Sole Arbitrator. The Union shall inform the Employer of the Union's nominee to the Arbitration Board within thirty (30) days of receiving the decision at Step 3. The Employer shall, within ten (10) days of receipt of such notice, notify the Union of the Employer's nominee to the Arbitration Board.

The two (2) nominees shall, within ten (10) days, appoint a third person who shall be the Chair of the Arbitration Board. If the two (2) nominees fail to agree upon a Chair within the time limits, the Chair shall be appointed by the Director of Mediation Services for the Province of Alberta.

- (c) The Sole Arbitrator, or Arbitration Board, shall hear and determine the difference and shall issue an award in writing. The decision of the Sole Arbitrator or the majority of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon the Employee(s) affected by it. When there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board.
- (d) Either party, within five (5) days from receipt of the decision, may apply to the Sole Arbitrator or Chair of the Arbitration Board to reconvene for purposes of clarifying the decision.

- (e) Each of the parties to the Agreement shall bear the fees and expenses of their own nominee and witnesses, and the fees and expenses of the Sole Arbitrator or Chair shall be shared equally between the parties.

10.05 Employees alleging dismissal or suspension without just cause may commence their grievance at Step 2, within ten (10) days of occurrence.

10.06 At any stage of the Grievance Procedure, including Arbitration, the parties may have the assistance of the Employee or Employees concerned as witnesses. All reasonable arrangements will be made to permit conferring parties or the Arbitrator to have access to any part of the care centre to view any working conditions, which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

10.07 The time limits specified throughout the Steps may be extended by mutual consent in writing between the Union and the Employer.

10.08 Should the Employer or the Union fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered conceded by the party failing to meet their time limit unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.

10.09 Union Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving the question of general application or interpretation occurs affecting more than one (1) Employee, the Union may proceed on a policy grievance at Step 2 providing the Union initiates the policy grievance within twenty (20) days of the date the Union became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence.

Casual Employees in temporary positions will have the six (6) month period waived should the temporary position end within six (6) calendar months and upon the Employee's return to casual status. The six (6) calendar month period will not be waived should the Employee elect to leave their temporary position prior to its end date.

In order to promote Employee advancement and opportunity, Employees changing job classifications (i.e. Residential Services to HCA, HCA to LPN) and applying for internally posted temporary positions for which they are qualified will be exempt from the waiting periods outlined above.

Permanent Internal Job Postings

For all Employees, a limit of one (1) successful permanent application per twelve (12) month period will apply except where a higher FTE permanent position becomes available within the twelve (12) month period for which the individual wishes to apply.

In order to promote Employee advancement and opportunity, Employees changing job classifications (i.e. Residential Services to HCA, HCA to LPN) and applying for internally posted permanent positions for which they are qualified, will be exempt from the waiting periods outlined above.

13.03 Temporary Internal Job Postings

Once an Employee has been offered a temporary internal posting, they will be given up to forty-eight (48) hours to verbally accept or decline the position. If the Employee accepts the position, their decision will be final and they will not have the ability to return to their previous rotation.

Permanent Internal Job Postings

Once an Employee has been offered a permanent internal posting, they will be given up to forty-eight (48) hours to verbally accept or decline the position. If the Employee accepts the position, their decision will be final and they will not have the ability to return to their previous rotation.

13.04 The Employer has the right to temporarily fill a vacancy as it sees fit during the posting period and up to the time an appointment is made. No grievance may be filed concerning such temporary arrangements until a selection has been made. An appointment shall be made within fourteen (14) calendar days of the end of the posting period unless the Employer has given the Union written notice that it intends to postpone or not fill the vacancy.

- 13.05 Successful applicants for new internal job postings will be required to commence the rotation they have been awarded on the start date identified on the posting and/or on a later date specified by the Employer. More specifically, if an employee is working in a temporary line and they win a permanent position, they will be required to vacate the temporary posting and start the permanent position on the date identified on the posting or as directed by the Employer. Employees unable to commence a new rotation at the specified time will be unable to accept it and the next most qualified internal applicant will be offered the opportunity. Exceptions will be made for permanent positions if an Employee is currently off on an approved Leave of Absence (ie. medical or parental leave). In addition, those who may need up to two (2) weeks to make necessary childcare arrangements prior to commencing a new rotation will also be considered by the Employer on an exception basis when requested.
- 13.06 If no applications are received by completion of the posting time, the Employer may fill the vacancy at its discretion.
- 13.07 All applicants shall be informed of the successful applicant of the posting via the Union bulletin board at the Care Home and the Virtual bulletin board accessible through Intercare's HRIS, with a copy going to the Union.
- 13.06 Other than probationary Employees, all other Employees transferring from one Intercare facility to another covered under this Collective Agreement shall retain any accumulated seniority, benefits and increments.
- 13.07 The Employer, at its sole discretion based on the overall operational needs of each Unit within a Care home, may require Employee(s) to work in a different job classification, on a different unit, or a different area within their assigned unit for one (1) shift or more. With the exclusion of new hires working orientation shifts, it is understood that, unless an Employee on the Unit volunteers to do so, the least senior Employee on the Unit will be the transferred Employee, should the need arise. Failure to comply with the directive given by the Supervisor/designate will result in the Employee being sent home without pay for the balance of the shift and will be considered insubordination and subject to progressive discipline.

Maintenance Employees may be assigned to any Employer facility (Brentwood, Southwood, Chinook) and may be transferred to another facility without notice.

Employees who are required to work in a different job classification shall receive their current rate of pay or the appropriate rate of pay for the different classification whichever is the greater, for all hours worked in that classification.

- 13.08 (a) When a regular Employee is the successful applicant for a different job classification, they will receive the appropriate rate of pay for the new job classification. This will be determined by the hours worked in the new job classification, not hours worked previously in other job classifications.
- (b) When a regular Employee is the successful applicant for the same job classification in another Intercare facility, they will receive the same rate of pay as they were earning prior to the transfer.

13.09 Employees wishing to transition to a different job classification from which they had been hired by the Employer, and are qualified to perform, will be required to complete an interview process and will not be automatically guaranteed employment in the new classification. If successful in transitioning to the new job classification, when an Employee in one job classification is the successful applicant for a different job classification, they will be considered on a trial period in their new job classification for three hundred (300) hours worked commencing from the start date of the new job classification.

Furthermore, if a qualified Employee working on a non-Specialized or non-Dementia-focused Unit is the successful applicant to work on a Specialized Unit (i.e. Hospice, Brain Injury, Behaviour Support), Dementia-focused Unit or Butterfly Model of Care Unit, they will be considered on a trial period on their new Unit for three hundred (300) hours worked commencing from the start date on the Unit. During this trial period, the Employee may choose to return, or the Employer may direct the regular Employee to return to an equivalent position / Unit to their former position / Unit and basic rate of pay without loss of seniority. On or before the expiry date of the trial period, the Employer will advise the Employee of their decision to extend their probationary status for a further period up to a maximum of three hundred (300) hours worked and advise the Union accordingly.

RE: 10 HOUR SHIFTS – CHINOOK LPN'S

The Employer and Union agree that in order to ensure the smooth and continuous delivery of care in an increasingly competitive job climate in the Calgary marketplace, that the Employer may implement schedules reflecting one (1) or more 10-hour shifts for the LPN job classification at the Chinook Care Centre.

The scheduling of 10-hour shifts is necessary to create as many full-time lines as possible while honoring the scheduling provision under the Letter of Understanding for Article 22.03 (a), whereby the Employer will make every reasonable effort to schedule regular Union Employees such that they receive one weekend off every three weeks. For clarification purposes in this Letter of Understanding, the one weekend off is defined to be a complete weekend that includes both Saturday and Sunday as days off.

Under the application of this Letter of Understanding, it is hereby understood and mutually agreed that Employees working 10-hour shifts will be paid at the regular rate of pay and not be subject to overtime pay, unless they work beyond ten (10) hours in one (1) shift. In addition, those Employees working 10-hour shifts will have their non-worked statutory holidays paid at the rate of seven point five (7.5) hours for full-time and pro-rated for permanent part-time.

The parties agree that this Letter of Understanding pertains only to the Chinook care Centre but may be expanded to include other centres by mutual agreement.

This Letter of Understanding shall be attached to, and remain part of, the Collective Agreement between the parties.

RE: $2.00 HOURLY WAGE TOP UP – HEALTH/RESIDENT CARE AIDES IN LONG-TERM CARE & DESIGNATED SUPPORTIVE LIVING

The Employer and Union agree that, as per the Government of Alberta directive issued on April 20, 2020, the Employer will implement a two-dollar ($2.00) per hour wage "top up" to all Health / Resident Care Aides (HCAs) working in Long-Term Care (LTC) areas at its Southwood, Brentwood & Chinook Care Centres. This will include eligible employees working on the Acquired Brain Injury unit and Behavioral Support unit at Southwood and Brentwood Care Centres respectively. This will exclude those Resident Care Aides working on any Hospice units as well as any other job classifications covered under the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

The "top up" will be implemented on all Health Care Aide hours paid by the Employer to eligible employees as outlined above retroactive to April 20, 2020. The increase will be provided to the HCA base hourly wage rate at each level of the currently agreed to wage grid, will be subject to all required statutory deductions, and will continue until such time that the funding for this "top up" ceases, as determined by the Government of Alberta and Chief Medical Officer of Health. At that time, the HCA base hourly wage rate will return to the rates mutually negotiated and agreed to by the Employer and Union, and this Letter of Understanding will be removed from the Collective Agreement.
