ARTICLE 10 - COMPLAINTS AND GRIEVANCES

10.01 Definition of a Grievance

For purposes of this Collective Agreement, a grievance is defined as a difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement.

10.02 An Employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a Union Representative at each Step of the grievance process.

10.03 Every effort shall be made to resolve all complaints and grievances in the following manner:

Step 1 Complaint Resolution

It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of Employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an Employee has no grievance until they have first given their immediate supervisor the opportunity of adjusting their complaint.

Employees shall first discuss the matter with their immediate Supervisor within seven (7) calendar days of becoming aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence. The Immediate Supervisor shall advise the Employee of the decision within seven (7) calendar days of discussing the matter.

An Employee may bring a Shop Steward to make a complaint.

If no resolution at Step 1 then go to:

Step 2 Grievance Resolution

Within ten (10) calendar days of the Step 1 decision, a grievance may be forwarded, in writing, to the Department Head/Designate, specifying the nature of the grievance, the redress sought, and shall identify the provisions of the Collective Agreement which are alleged to be violated. The Department Head/Designate, shall meet with the Union and the Employee within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the grievance. A decision, in writing, will be rendered within ten (10) calendar days of the meeting being held.

If no resolution at Step 2 then go to:

Step 3

Within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the decision at Step 2, the Union may submit the grievance, in writing, to the Human Resources/Designate and General Manager/Designate. Within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the grievance the Human Resources/Designate and General Manager/Designate shall arrange a meeting with the Union and the Employee to discuss the grievance and shall render their decision, in writing, within ten (10) calendar days of the meeting being held.

Should satisfactory resolution of the matter not be achieved it may be submitted to Arbitration.

Alternatively, and by written agreement, the Employer and the Union may choose to have any dispute resolved by independent mediation. The parties will share equally the fees and expenses, if any, of the mediator.

Step 4 Arbitration

As per applicable Alberta legislation, the following will apply:

- (a) Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the decision of the General Manager/Designate, the Union shall notify the Employer in writing of its intention to submit the grievance to arbitration; and shall inform the Employer of the Union's nominee to the Arbitration Board. The Employer shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of such notice, notify the Union of the Employer's nominee to the Arbitration Board.
- (b) The two (2) nominees shall appoint a third person who shall be the Chair of the Arbitration Board. If the two nominees fail to agree upon a Chair, the Chair shall be appointed by the Minister of Labor for the Province of Alberta.
- (c) The Arbitration Board shall hear and determine the difference and shall issue an award in writing. The decision of the majority of the Arbitration Board shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon the Employee(s) affected by it. When there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board.
- (d) The Arbitration Board shall not have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions or make any decisions contrary to the provisions of this Collective Agreement. It does not have jurisdiction to determine any matter other than the difference before it.
- (e) Each of the parties to the Collective Agreement shall bear the fees and expenses of their own nominee and witnesses, and the fees and expenses of the Chair shall be shared equally between the parties.
- (f) As an alternative to a Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union may, by mutual agreement, employ the use of a single Arbitrator to settle the matter in dispute. The fees and expenses of the single Arbitrator shall be shared equally between the parties.

10.04 Employees alleging dismissal, suspension, or discipline without just cause may commence their grievance at Step 2, within seven (7) calendar days of occurrence.

10.05 At any stage of the Grievance Procedure, including Arbitration, the parties may have the assistance of the Employee(s) concerned as witnesses.

10.06 The time limits specified throughout the Steps may be extended by mutual consent in writing between the Union and the Employer.

10.07 Should the Employer or the Union fail to comply with any time limits in the grievance procedure, the grievance will be considered abandoned by the party failing to meet their time limit unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.

10.08 Group Grievance

Where a dispute involving the question of general application or interpretation occurs affecting more than one (1) Employee, the Union may proceed with a group grievance at Step 2 identifying each Employee who is grieving within ten (10) calendar days of the date the Union became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the occurrence.

10.09 Policy Grievance

The Union and the Employer may institute a grievance based on a difference concerning the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged contravention of the Collective Agreement. Such grievance shall commence at Step 3 within fourteen (14) calendar days following the circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

If it is the Employer's Policy Grievance, the grievance shall be submitted to the Union President/Designate with a copy sent to the National Representative. The Union/Employer shall respond in writing within seven (7) calendar days after receiving the grievance. Failing settlement, the grievance may be referred to Step 4.

It is understood that the provisions of this Article may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an Employee which such Employee could themselves institute and the regular grievance procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.

10.10 The Union and Employer agree that in the event of either a Union or Employer policy grievance that resolution will be pursued in good faith and there will be no disruption to the day-to-day operations of the workplace.

ARTICLE 11 - PROBATIONARY EMPLOYEES

The premium payment will be accumulated in the Employee's paid leave bank.

Employees can choose to have this premium paid to them by one of the following methods:

- (a) as part of the Employee's regular pay cheque, or
- (b) as an accumulation, in which case, it is paid if requested by the Employee because they are absent from work due of circumstances beyond their control, including illness, to the extent of the Employee's accumulated premium. An Employee's paid leave bank can be carried over from year to year to a maximum of $3000.00. Any balance above $3000.00 would be paid to the Employee in the month of December, or
