ARTICLE 1 – PURPOSE AND SCOPE

- 1.01 The purpose of the Collective Agreement is to establish an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the Employer and the Employees covered by this Collective Agreement, to provide for the prompt and equitable disposition of grievances, and to establish wages and certain working conditions for Employees of the bargaining unit.
- 1.02 The Collective Agreement shall be applicable to all Employees unless otherwise specified herein.

ARTICLE 2 – TERM

- 2.01 This Collective Agreement shall be effective from the date of exchange of written notice of ratification through December 31, 2023.
- 2.02 Either party to this Collective Agreement may, within a period of between sixty (60) and one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days immediately preceding the date of expiry of the Collective Agreement, by written notice require the other party to commence collective bargaining. Should such notice not be given by either party, then this Collective Agreement shall continue in full force and effect for each succeeding yearly period until such time as required notice has been given.
- 2.03 Where notice is served by either party to commence collective bargaining this Collective Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until:
 - (a) A new Collective Agreement is concluded;
 - (b) The right of the Bargaining Agent to represent the Employees is terminated; or
 - (c) A strike or lockout commences under Division 13 of the Alberta Labour Relations Code, in which case the Collective Agreement is deemed to continue to apply in respect of any designated essential services workers, subject to any changes or permitted changes described in the essential services agreement.
- 2.04 At any time during the term of this Collective Agreement, the parties may agree in writing to amend, add or delete provisions in the Collective Agreement. Such changes shall then become part of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – DEFINITIONS

- 3.01 "Employee" shall mean a person who is employed by the Employer and who is covered by this Collective Agreement.
- 3.02 "Full-time Employee" shall mean an Employee who is regularly scheduled to work the bi-weekly hours set out at Schedule 'C' – Full-time Hours.
- 3.03 "Part-time Employee" shall mean an Employee who is regularly scheduled to work less than the full-time hours set out at clause 3.02.
- 3.04 "Casual Employee" shall mean an Employee who works on a call-in basis and who does not appear on the schedule on a regular and continuing basis except:
- (a) for the purpose of replacement of full-time and part-time Employees, or
 - (b) when it is known in advance that a relief assignment is necessary.
- 3.05 "Licensed Practical Nurse" (LPN) shall mean an Employee who is registered as a Licensed Practical Nurse pursuant to the Health Professions Act of Alberta.
- 3.06 "Position" shall be defined by the job classification and the regularly scheduled hours averaged over a shift rotation.
- 3.07 "Vacancy" shall mean a position the Employer requires to be filled. The vacancy shall be posted in accordance with the Collective Agreement.
- 3.08 "Union" shall mean Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE).
- 3.09 "Local" shall mean the bargaining unit of a specified facility and which is represented by the Union and referenced in Appendix 'A'.
- 3.10 "Facility" shall mean the specific nursing home operated by the Employer which is covered by this Collective Agreement and referenced in Appendix 'A'.
- 3.11 "Regularly Scheduled Hours" shall mean the hours of work as set out on the job posting of the position. Unless otherwise expressed by the Employer, regularly scheduled hours will be presented on a bi-weekly basis.
- 3.12 "Basic Hourly Rate of Pay" shall mean the wage rate set out in Schedule "A" of the Collective Agreement.
- 3.13 "Master Schedule" shall mean the schedule showing the distribution of the regularly scheduled hours of a position.

- 3.14 “Care Aide” shall mean an Employee without a Health Care Aide certificate or its equivalent as determined by Alberta Health Services.
- 3.15 “Health Care Aide” shall mean an Employee who has successfully completed the Health Care Aide certificate or its equivalent as determined by Alberta Health Services.

ARTICLE 4 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 4.01 The Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to exercise the regular functions of management within the limitations of this Collective Agreement to:
- (a) Conduct its business in all respects to the care and comfort of the residents, including the right to maintain and improve order, discipline and efficiency, the number of Employees required for the Employer’s purposes and the increase or reduction of personnel; and
 - (b) Make, enforce and alter from time to time reasonable rules of Employee conduct and procedures and introduce new and improved systems and methods.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION RECOGNITION

- 5.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for Employees of the Employer for the facilities listed at Appendix ‘A’.
- 5.02 The Employer agrees to inform new Employees of the existence of the Union and that a Collective Agreement setting out terms and working conditions for employment is in effect.
- 5.03 No Employee for whom the Union is the bargaining agent shall be required or permitted to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer which conflicts with the terms of the Collective Agreement.

The Employer agrees to allow the Union twenty (20) minutes in the orientation of new Employees. The Employer agrees to inform the Union of the date, time, and location of the orientation of any new Employee.

ARTICLE 6 – UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES DEDUCTION

- 6.01 The Employer shall deduct Union dues using the Rand Formula for all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement.

6.02 Deductions

- (a) Employees starting employment on or before the 15th of any month will have Union dues deducted for that month. Employees starting employment after the 15th of any month will have Union dues deducted starting in the following month.
- (b) The Employer agrees to deduct from every Employee Union dues, initiation fees and other assessments levied by the Union. The Union shall advise the Employer in writing of the amount of the Union dues, initiation fees or other assessments and any changes to the amount of deductions at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the effective date the deductions are to commence.

6.03 Remittance

The Employer shall forward to the Union designate all Union dues, initiation fees and other assessments deducted from Employees' pay not later than the 15th of the month following the month in which deductions were made. The deductions remittance will be accompanied by a list of the names of Employees for whom deductions have been made and the corresponding deduction amount.

- 6.04 The Union shall save harmless the Employer with respect to any and all liability the Employer may incur as a result of deductions made at the request of the Union.

ARTICLE 7 – UNION REPRESENTATION

- 7.01 (a) The Union shall have the right to appoint Stewards to serve as representatives of Employees in certain matters including the processing of grievances.
- (b) The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the name of each Steward and the name of the Officers of the Union before the Employer shall be required to recognize them. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of any changes that occur to this list as such changes arise within seven (7) calendar days or such other period mutually agreeable to the Employer and Union.
- (c) A Steward or Officer of the Union shall first obtain permission from their supervisor to leave their work area during work and such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. Such leave from their work area will be without loss of pay and benefits so long as the Employee remains at the Facility.

- 7.02 The Union shall have the right to the assistance of representatives of the CUPE when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. Such Union Representative(s) shall have access to the Employer's premises in order to investigate or assist in the settlement of a grievance. The Union Representative(s) shall inform the Administrator, or designate, of the Employer that they require access to the facility. The Employer will not unreasonably withhold permission for such access.
- 7.03 A Steward or Officer of the Union shall be given twenty (20) minutes off without loss of pay and benefits to greet new Employees and to discuss Union membership with such new Employees at the Employer's general orientation. The Employer agrees to inform the Union of the date, time, and location of the orientation of any new Employee.

ARTICLE 8 – UNION-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

8.01 Union-Management Committee

- (a) A Union-Management Committee shall be established within each facility consisting of up to three (3) representatives from both the Local (which shall be Employees from within that bargaining unit) and the Employer. Each party will appoint a co-chair. The parties will alternate minute taking and minutes will be posted in the workplace after approval by the co-chairs. The CUPE National Representative and the Employer's Regional Director, or their respective designate, may also attend the Union-Management Committee meetings.

Purpose

The purpose of the Union-Management Committee is to promote joint problem solving. The Union-Management Committee will have the authority to make recommendations to the Union and to the Employer.

- (b) The Union-Management Committee shall endeavor to meet every three (3) months or within two (2) weeks of request from either party to discuss issues of mutual concern. Union-Management Committee meetings will be held during the normal working day.
- (c) Employee representatives cited under clause 8.01(a) shall not suffer any loss of pay while attending a Union-Management Committee meeting during their scheduled hours of work. Should an Employee who is not on duty with the Employer at the time of the Union-Management Committee meeting choose to attend the meeting, they shall be compensated by the Employer.

8.02 Collective Bargaining

- (a) The Union Bargaining Committee may consist of up to two (2) Employees from each Local. The Union shall advise the Administrator of the Facility, or designate, in writing of the Local members of the Union Bargaining Committee.
- (b) The Employer will ensure that two (2) members from each Local on the Union Bargaining Committee will suffer no loss of pay and benefits as a result of attendance at collective bargaining of this Collective Agreement up to and including mediation.

8.03 Correspondence

Unless otherwise specified, correspondence between the Employer and the Union shall be addressed as follows.

- (a) To the Employer: To the Administrator of the facility with a copy to the Regional Director of the Employer.
- (b) To the Union: To the Recording Secretary of the Local of the facility with a copy to the Union Representative from CUPE.

8.04 Where a provision of the Collective Agreement refers to a requirement for some form of written communication to the Employer, Union, or Local, such requirement is satisfied by communication in electronic form.

8.05 Union Bulletin Board

The Employer shall provide a bulletin board for the exclusive use of the Union, the location of which shall be accessible to all Employees. The Union reserves the right to approve notices placed on the Union bulletin board. The Union agrees to remove material from the Union bulletin board which the Employer considers objectionable.

ARTICLE 9 – NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUTS

9.01 It is agreed that there shall be no strike or lockout, as defined under the Alberta Labour Relations Code, during the term of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 10 – DISCRIMINATION OR HARASSMENT

10.01 The Employer and the Union shall abide by the Alberta Human Rights Act. The parties agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion experienced or practiced with respect to any Employee by reason of race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation of that person or class of persons, membership or non-membership or activity in the Union or in respect of any of the listed grounds in the aforementioned Act. For the purposes of this Article, the parties agree that the defenses of the aforementioned Act shall be applicable.

ARTICLE 11 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11.01 Grievance

- (a) A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement.
- (b) When a grievance arises, an earnest effort shall be made by the parties to resolve it in the manner and order set out below.

11.02 Recognition of Union Stewards

The Employer acknowledges the rights of the Union and the Stewards to assist an Employee in preparing and presenting their grievance in accordance with the Grievance Procedure.

11.03 Grievance Procedure

(a) Step 1 – Formal Discussion

An Employee who believes that they have a grievance shall first discuss the matter with their supervisor (with or without their shop steward).

“Supervisor” shall mean that person from whom an Employee normally receives their work assignments and who is not a member of the bargaining unit. If the Employee does not have their concern(s) resolved to their satisfaction, the grievance may be advanced to Step 2.

(b) Step 2 – Administrator

Failing satisfactory settlement at Step 1, the grievance may be advanced, in writing, to the Administrator, or designate, within ten (10) working days of the incident giving rise to the grievance. The Administrator shall convene a meeting within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance and shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days after the meeting.

(c) Step 3 – Regional Director

Failing satisfactory settlement of the grievance at Step 2, the grievance may be advanced, in writing, to the Regional Director within ten (10) working days of receipt of the Administrator's response under Step 2. The Regional Director shall convene a meeting within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance and shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days after the meeting.

(d) Step 4 – Arbitration

Failing satisfactory settlement of the grievance at Step 3, the grievance may be advanced to arbitration, subject to Article 12, within thirty (30) working days of the date of receipt of the Regional Director's response under Step 3.

(e) Optional Grievance Mediation

Following submission of a written grievance at Step 2, the Parties may mutually agree to non-binding mediation:

- (i) Either Party may propose the use of Grievance Mediation regarding a grievance dispute. Following such mutual agreement, the Parties will attempt to select a mutually agreeable Grievance Mediator.

Such Grievance Mediator may include a person named on the Government of Alberta Mediator Roster or a person named as a qualified or chartered Mediator from the ADR Institute of Alberta.

The Grievance Mediator shall be appointed following such mutual agreement between the Parties. Thereafter, such Grievance Mediator will meet with the Parties to investigate and define the issues in dispute and facilitate a resolution.

- (ii) If the Employer and Union cannot agree on a Grievance Mediator, the Parties will utilize the same selection process used by the Government of Alberta Department of Labour, Mediation Services when other parties are unable to agree to a specific Sole Arbitrator or Chairperson of a three (3) person Board of Arbitration. Once appointed pursuant to this process, such Grievance Mediator will meet with the Parties to investigate and define the issues in dispute and facilitate a resolution.
- (iii) The purpose of the Mediator's involvement in the grievance process is to assist the Parties in reaching a resolution of the dispute. Anything said, proposed, generated or prepared for the purpose of trying to achieve a settlement is to be considered privileged and will not be used for any other purpose.
- (iv) The Mediator may be requested to issue their non-binding recommendations to the Parties to resolve the dispute.
- (v) The grievance may be resolved by mutual agreement between the Parties.
- (vi) Referral of a matter to Grievance Mediation shall put the grievance / arbitration timelines in abeyance until the Grievance Mediation is completed; timelines shall be suspended until the process is completed. Where Grievance Mediation does not resolve the grievance, the matter may be reactivated at the applicable Step of the Grievance Procedure.
- (vii) The expenses of the Mediator shall be equally borne by both Parties.

11.04 For the purpose of this Article, "working days" shall be Monday to Friday inclusive, however, excluding general holidays. Any of the time periods within this Article may be extended by the written mutual agreement of the parties.

11.05 Default

- (a) Should the Union not advance the grievance(s) to the next Step of the grievance procedure within the time periods herein, the grievance(s) shall be found abandoned.
- (b) Should the Employer not respond within the time periods herein, the Union shall be permitted to advance the grievance(s) to the next Step.
- (c) Where a policy grievance arises, the grievance shall be submitted in writing at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

11.06 Policy and Group Grievance

- (a) A policy grievance shall be defined as any dispute involving a question of application or interpretation of the Collective Agreement. A group grievance is where a group of Employees have a grievance of a similar or like nature.
- (b) It is expressly understood that the provision of this clause may not be used to institute a grievance directly affecting an Employee or Employees which such Employee or Employees could themselves initiate and the regular grievance procedure shall not be thereby bypassed.
- (c) Where a policy grievance arises, the grievance shall be submitted in writing at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

11.07 Discharge Grievance

A discharge grievance shall be submitted in writing at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure within ten (10) working days of the discharge. The Administrator shall convene a grievance meeting within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance and shall render a decision in writing within ten (10) working days after that meeting. Should the discharge grievance not be resolved, the grievance may be advanced to Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure.

ARTICLE 12 – ARBITRATION

12.01 Arbitration

Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 3, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of the Employer's response at Step 3 of the grievance procedure by giving notice to the other party in writing. Upon referral to arbitration, the parties will appoint a mutually agreeable Arbitrator within fifteen (15) working days. In the event of failure to agree upon an Arbitrator, the Department of Mediation Services for the Province of Alberta shall be requested to appoint the Arbitrator.

12.02 Amending of Time Limits

For the purpose of this Article, "working days" shall be Monday to Friday inclusive, however, excluding general holidays. Any of the time periods within this Article may be extended by the written mutual agreement of the parties.

- 12.03 Where two (2) or more Employees have the same grievance or the same type of grievance which are proceeding to arbitration they may be submitted to a sole Arbitrator. It is understood that each grievor may have the right to make their own submission.

12.04 The procedure of the sole Arbitrator, shall be as outlined in the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

12.05 Nothing in the Collective Agreement shall prevent the Employer and the Union from mutually agreeing to alternate dispute resolution means for settling a grievance.

ARTICLE 13 – SENIORITY

13.01 Seniority Defined

(a) Seniority for all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement shall be calculated on all hours paid and will continue to accrue when:

- (i) an Employee is on Workers' Compensation Board leave;
- (ii) an Employee is on approved leave of absence by reason of non-occupational personal illness or injury; and,
- (iii) an Employee who is on maternity, parental or adoption leave up to seventy eight (78) weeks; and,
- (iv) an Employee who is on an approved leave of absence pursuant to clause 23.01 up to one (1) year.

(b) Seniority entitlement under clauses 13.01(a)(i) through (iv) will be determined as follows:

- (i) The Employee's permanent position; and,
- (ii) For an Employee who is occupying a temporary position, the hours of the temporary position until the temporary position ends during the leave of absence period and thereafter, the Employee's permanent position.

13.02 Seniority shall be accrued on a bargaining unit basis. Seniority shall include all service with the Employer prior to certification of the bargaining unit by the Union.

13.03 (a) The Employer shall update and post on the Union bulletin board the seniority list in January and July. Copies of the seniority lists will be provided to the Union at the time of posting.

- (b) An Employee, for their own seniority, or the Union, for all Employees' seniority, must notify the Employer of an alleged error in the seniority list within forty-five (45) calendar days of the posting of the most recent seniority list, otherwise the seniority will be deemed correct.

13.04 Loss of Seniority

The seniority and employment of an Employee shall terminate if they:

- (a) resigns or retires;
- (b) is discharged and is not re-instated;
- (c) is confirmed by the Employer to have abused a resident;
- (d) is laid off in excess of twelve (12) months;
- (e) is absent from work for three (3) or more consecutive shifts without notifying the Employer, unless a reason satisfactory to the Employer is provided;
- (f) fails to report for work as scheduled upon the conclusion of a leave of absence, vacation, suspension or layoff;
- (g) fails to report for work as scheduled following the Workers' Compensation Board of Alberta (WCB) notification that she is able to return to work, or such other WCB decision rendered by an appeals board;
- (h) is a casual Employee and does not work within thirty (30) consecutive days unless their absence is due to illness or an approved leave of absence; or,
- (i) is promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit and does not return to their in-scope position within eighteen (18) calendar months from the date of the promotion. The Employee shall have their seniority frozen until they return to a position covered by this Collective Agreement.

13.05 Seniority Tie Break

In the event seniority hours are the same, the Employee with the earliest dated letter of hire shall be deemed to have the most seniority. In the event that Employees with the same seniority hours also have letters of hire with the same dates, the Employee with the earliest dated application shall be deemed to have the most seniority. In the event the tied seniority cannot be resolved in this manner, the tie shall be resolved by pulling names from a hat.

ARTICLE 14 – PROBATION

14.01 (a) Full-time and Part-time Employees

A newly hired full-time or part-time Employee shall serve a probationary period from their date of hire as set out in the Full-time and Part-time Probation table below. The probationary period may be extended beyond the periods referenced below for up to an additional three (3) calendar months upon mutual agreement, in writing, between the Employer and the Union with notice to the Employee and a copy to the Union.

Full-time and Part-time Probation
Job Classification	Probationary Period
Licensed Practical Nurse, Health Care Aide, Care Aide, Health Care Aide II, Unit Clerk	503.75 hours worked or six (6) months, whichever occurs first
Dietary Aide, Housekeeping Aide, Laundry Aide, Cook (all), Maintenance (all), Recreation Aide (all), Therapy Aide, Physio-Therapy Aide, Occupational Therapy Aide	487.5 hours worked or six (6) months, whichever occurs first

(b) Casual Employees

A newly hired casual Employee shall serve a probationary period from their date of hire of at least the hours worked set out in the Casual Probation table below.

Casual Probation
Job Classification	Probationary Period
Licensed Practical Nurse, Health Care Aide, Care Aide, Health Care Aide II, Unit Clerk	503.75 hours worked
Dietary Aide, Housekeeping Aide, Laundry Aide, Cook (all), Maintenance (all), Recreation Aide (all), Therapy Aide, Physio-Therapy Aide, Occupational Therapy Aide	487.5 hours worked

The probationary periods may be extended beyond the above periods for up to an additional three (3) calendar months upon mutual agreement, in writing, between the Employer and the Union with notice to the Employee and a copy to the Union.

- (c) During this probationary period, the Employee shall be entitled to all rights and benefits of the Agreement. After the completion of the probationary period seniority shall be accrued from the original date of employment.

14.02 An Employee on probation will be entitled to the provisions of the Collective Agreement unless otherwise stated in the Collective Agreement and subject to the following.

- (a) Upon completion of the probationary period, the Employee will be credited with all seniority accumulated during the probationary period subject to Article 13.
- (b) The discharge of an Employee on probation shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer. However, the Employee on probation may grieve their discharge up to Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure set out in Article 11.

14.03 The Employer will, on or before the expiration of an Employee's probation period, confirm in writing to the Employee:

- (a) that they have successfully completed their probation, or
- (b) that they are unsuccessful and are, therefore, terminated from employment, unless the probation period is extended in accordance with clause 14.01.

ARTICLE 15 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

15.01 A layoff shall be defined as:

- (a) any reduction in the hours of a full-time Employee's position or
- (b) a reduction in the hours of a part-time Employee's position of 25% or more.

15.02 In the event of a layoff, Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority.

15.03 No new Employees shall be hired until those laid off have been given an opportunity for recall provided the Employee(s) on recall is qualified for the job classification.

15.04 Notice of Layoff

- (a) The Employer shall provide the Union with a minimum of seven (7) days written notice of its intention to layoff Employee(s).

The Employer and the Union recognize the value of meeting prior to a layoff. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the process of how the layoff will take place, review the updated seniority list, discuss other factors relevant to the layoff, and discuss alternative methods to mitigate layoff impact on the department and Employee(s) affected.

- (b) After consultation with the Union, the Employer shall notify Employees who are to be laid off as follows:
 - (i) at least seven (7) days' notice if the Employee's period of employment is greater than three (3) months, but less than two (2) years, or
 - (ii) at least fourteen (14) days' notice if the Employee's period of employment is two (2) years or more.

If the Employee laid off has not had the opportunity to work the seven (7) or fourteen (14) days as stated, after notice of layoff, the Employee shall be paid in lieu of work for the part of the seven (7) or fourteen (14) days during which work was not made available.

- (c) The notice as addressed in this Article is a minimum period of notice and the Employer will provide as much advance notice of layoff as possible but is required to pay in lieu of notice for only the period referred to above.
- (d) In the event of an unforeseen event which disrupts or results in the discontinued operations of a facility and which event is beyond the control of the Employer, these notices of layoff provisions shall not be in effect. In that event, layoff will be handled in accordance with the Employment Standards Code.

15.05 Employee's Layoff Options

- (a) The Employer shall meet with the Union and the affected Employee(s) to review the available options regarding layoff.
- (b) An Employee who is subject to layoff shall have the right to either:
 - (i) accept the layoff and be placed on the recall list; or

- (ii) displace an Employee who has the same or fewer posted hours and who has less seniority and providing that the Employee who is originally subject to the layoff is qualified following an offered orientation period to perform the work.
- (c) The Employee's decision to choose option (i) or (ii) above shall be given in writing to the Administrator within five (5) days, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, and general holidays, following the notification of layoff. Employees failing to respond within this deadline will be deemed to have accepted the layoff and be placed on the recall list.

15.06 Recall

- (a) Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority provided they are willing, able and qualified to do the work.
- (b) The Employer shall send recall notice by registered mail to the Employee's last known address which such notification shall be deemed to be received after the seventh (7th) day of mailing. Such notice shall state the position to which the Employee is being recalled, the date and time at which the Employee should report to work.
- (c) An Employee who is recalled to work must return to work within seven (7) days of the deemed notification if unemployed and within fourteen (14) days of the deemed notification if employed elsewhere. Employees failing to respond within this deadline will be deemed to have resigned employment with the Employer.
- (d) It is the sole responsibility of the Employee to maintain their current address with the Employer.
- (e) An Employee shall lose all seniority and shall be deemed to have terminated their employment with the Employer on the expiry of twelve (12) months from the effective date of layoff.

15.07 Grievance of Layoffs and Recalls

Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

15.08 In the event of a vacancy, Article 16 shall not apply until the recall process has been completed.

15.09 Article 15 shall not apply to probationary or casual Employees.

ARTICLE 16 – VACANCIES AND JOB POSTINGS

16.01 Vacancies and Job Postings

- (a) When the Employer creates a new position or determines there is a vacancy, the Employer shall post notice of the position (job posting) in the facility to which the job posting applies for one (1) calendar week. The job posting shall include the job classification, qualifications, regularly scheduled hours, basic hourly rate of pay, the anticipated start date (which is subject to change), and the application deadline date.

In the event there are no qualified applicants from within the facility, within one (1) calendar week of the conclusion of the original job posting, the Employer shall forward the job posting to all other facilities where it will be posted for one (1) calendar week.

- (b) The Employer shall forward copies of job postings to the Union at the time of posting.
- (c) The Employer will notify the Union when a vacant position will not be filled or when a full-time or part-time position will be changed.
- (d) Qualifications for the position shall be consistent with the responsibilities specified in the job document. The Employer will provide to the Union a copy of the job document for job classifications set out at Schedule “A”.

16.02 Applications for job postings shall be made in writing to the Employer.

- 16.03
- (a) Job postings shall be awarded on the basis of qualifications established by the Employer for the position and seniority. Provided the Employee meets the Employer’s qualifications, seniority shall then be used in awarding the job posting.
 - (b) The Employer will post and notify the Union of the name of the successful applicant within ten (10) calendar days of the application deadline date.
 - (c) Vacancies of up to sixty (60) calendar days will be filled by first scheduling part time Employees and then casual Employees into the vacancies on the basis of qualifications, seniority, and Employee availability.

16.04 Trial Period

General

An Employee awarded a position in a different job classification shall serve a trial period of hours worked as set out in the Trial Period Hours table below or twenty-two (22) shifts worked, whichever occurs first except for trial periods of a position in a specialized care unit. During the trial period, if the Employer finds the Employee to be unsatisfactory in their job performance in the position, or if the Employee requests, the Employee shall be returned to their former permanent position at their previous basic hourly rate of pay and without loss of seniority.

Trial Period Hours
Job Classification	Trial Period
Licensed Practical Nurse, Health Care Aide, Care Aide, Health Care Aide II, Unit Clerk	170.5 hours worked
Dietary Aide, Housekeeping Aide, Laundry Aide, Cook (all), Maintenance (all), Recreation Aide (all), Therapy Aide, Physio-Therapy Aide, Occupational Therapy Aide	165 hours worked

16.05 Temporary Position

- (a) A "temporary position" shall mean a vacant position created by an Employee's absence, paid or unpaid, expected to exceed sixty (60) calendar days or when the Employer creates a position for a limited time period of at least sixty (60) calendar days. The temporary position will be posted and awarded in accordance with clauses 16.01, 16.02, 16.03, and 16.04.
- (b) Upon the return of the incumbent Employee from their absence, they shall have the right to return to their former position if it still exists. If the position does not exist, the Employee may exercise their rights under the Collective Agreement. In instances where an Employee returns to work prior to the estimated date of return, the Employer shall not be liable for payments to the displaced Employee(s).
- (c) In the event a part-time or casual Employee is the successful applicant for a temporary position, they shall retain their part-time or casual Employee status for the duration of the temporary position.
- (d) An Employee bidding for a temporary position will not be considered for the temporary position if they are not available for the duration of the temporary position.

- 16.06 (a) When an Employee accepts a position in a job classification with a higher end basic hourly rate of pay than their present job classification, they shall be advanced to the step in the higher pay range that provides them with an increase in their present basic hourly rate of pay.
- (b) When an Employee has accepted a position in a job classification with a lower end basic hourly rate of pay than their present job classification, they shall be assigned to the step in the lower pay range that results in the least reduction in their present basic hourly rate of pay.

ARTICLE 17 – HOURS OF WORK

17.01 The normal hours of work for full-time Employees shall be as set out in Schedule 'C' – Full-time Hours exclusive of an unpaid meal period.

17.02 (a) There shall be one (1) fifteen (15) minute rest period assigned within each half of a full-time shift as defined in clause 17.01 above.

(b) There shall be one (1) thirty (30) minute meal period assigned during the day as defined in clause 17.01 above. Employees who wish to leave the Facility at meal periods shall first inform their supervisor.

17.03 Master Schedules

The following provisions shall apply to the master schedules of Full-time Employees and Part-time Employees. For the purposes of this clause, 'Employee' shall refer only to Full-time Employees and Part-time Employees.

- (a) The shift commencing closest to midnight shall be considered the first shift of the day.
- (b) The Employer shall endeavour to create master schedules that provide consecutive days off unless otherwise agreed by the Employee.
- (c) Where the Employer determines that hours of work must be scheduled on weekends for a given job classification, weekend work shall be shared equally among Employees unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Employer and the Employee and the Union.
- (d) There shall be no split shifts unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Employer, Employee(s) and the Union.

- (e) An Employee's master schedule will provide time off between scheduled full-time shifts or with a changeover of shifts as follows.

Time Off Between Full-time Shifts / Changeover of Shifts
Full-time Shift (Hours)	Time Off Between Shifts (Hours)
8	15.5
7.75	15.75
7.5	16.0

A shorter period of time between full-time shifts or with a changeover of shifts may be scheduled by the mutual agreement in writing of the Employee, the Union and the Employer.

- (f) Master schedules of at least four (4) weeks in duration shall be posted not less than fourteen (14) calendar days in advance.
- (g) Except for call-in shifts (relief assignments), or for circumstances beyond the Employer's control, or where otherwise mutually agreed between the Employee and the Employer, there will be no changes to an Employee's schedule with less than seven (7) calendar days' notice. When the Employer requires a change in the scheduled days of work with less than seven (7) calendar days' notice, the Employee shall be paid at time and one-half (1½X) for all hours worked on the first shift of the changed schedule.
- 17.04 Except in cases of an emergency, an Employee shall not be required to work more than six (6) consecutive calendar days without receiving a day or days off except as mutually agreed between the Employee(s), the Employer and the Union.
- 17.05 If an Employee reports for work and is told there is no work, they will be guaranteed a minimum of two (2) hours pay at their basic hourly rate of pay whether they are required to remain at work or leave immediately. When an Employee is called in for an emergency shift, they shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at their basic hourly rate of pay.

- 17.06 Employees who are required to report back to work within the hours identified in clause 17.03(e) after completing their regular scheduled full-time shift shall be paid at the appropriate overtime rate for a minimum of three (3) hours or the actual hours worked, whichever is greater, upon reporting.
- 17.07 (a) Employees wishing to exchange shifts shall submit the completed shift exchange form to their supervisor for approval not less than five (5) days prior to the exchange of work taking place notwithstanding extenuating circumstances.
- (b) The Employer shall not be responsible or liable for overtime or non-compliance with the Collective Agreement which may arise as a result of the exchange of shift(s).
- 17.08 A shift shall be deemed to fall entirely within the calendar day in which the majority of hours fall regardless on which calendar day the shift commences.
- 17.09 Applicable for all but VL:
- Extra shifts or hours of work shall be offered to qualified part time Employees in order of seniority before casual staff provided that it does not result in an overtime payment of part time Employees unless payment of overtime is unavoidable.
- 17.10 If an Employee is called into work within one (1) hour of the scheduled starting time of the shift and the Employee commences work within one (1) hour of the scheduled start time of the shift, then the Employee will be paid for the entire shift provided they complete the shift for which they were called in.

ARTICLE 18 – OVERTIME

- 18.01 The Employer shall determine when overtime is necessary and for what period of time it is required.
- 18.02 All authorized time worked in excess of the daily or bi-weekly full-time hours of the facility and given job classification (overtime) shall be paid as follows:
- (a) On a regular work day: time and one-half (1½X) her basic hourly rate of pay for the first two (2) hours worked and double time (2X) thereafter.

- (b) On a regular scheduled day off: a full-time Employee required to work on their scheduled days off shall be paid the following unless the Employee is given at least seven (7) calendar days' notice of the change of schedule.
 - (i) for the first scheduled day off worked at one and one-half times (1½X) their basic hourly rate of pay for the first two (2) hours worked and double time (2X) thereafter, and
 - (ii) for the second and subsequent consecutive scheduled days off worked at double time (2X) their basic hourly rate of pay for the hours worked.

If an Employee is scheduled for and works a full-time shift on a seventh (7th) or more consecutive calendar day, they shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half times (1½X) their basic hourly rate of pay for the first two (2) hours worked and double time (2X) thereafter. This provision shall not apply for shifts exchanged by Employees.

The Employer, the Employees and the Union may mutually agree to extend the maximum consecutive calendar days scheduled to seven (7).

18.03 Where mutually agreed by the Employer and the Employee, the Employee may receive time off in lieu of overtime (banked overtime). For clarity, the Employer will not require an Employee to bank overtime against their wishes.

Banked overtime shall be credited at the equivalent of the actual time worked adjusted by the applicable overtime rate and taken at a time mutually agreed by the Employer and the Employee. Banked overtime shall be taken within thirty (30) days from the date the overtime was worked.

18.04 There shall be no pyramiding of overtime rates.

18.05 The Employer shall not reduce a Full-time or Part-time Employee's regular hours of work to compensate for any overtime hours worked.

ARTICLE 19 – PREMIUMS

19.01 (a) Charge Premium

When a supervisor or more senior management personnel is not on duty, the Employer may assign an Employee to be in charge of the entire facility and all of its residents. The Employee assigned to be in charge shall be paid a premium of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour for each hour worked with such designated charge duty.

(b) Responsibility Premium

When an out-of-scope supervisor or more senior management personnel is not on duty, the Employer may assign an Employee to be responsible for the department. When an Employee is assigned such responsibility, they shall be paid a premium of seventy-five cents ($0.75) per hour for each hour worked with such responsibility assignment.

19.02 Weekend Premium

When an Employee works any hours within the fifty-six (56) hour period over Saturday and Sunday, designated by the Employer as the weekend, she shall be paid an additional three dollars and twenty-five cents ($3.25) per hour for all hours worked within designated period.

19.03 Shift Premium

(a) Evening Shift Premium

Where the majority of hours of the shift fall between fifteen hundred (1500) hours and twenty-three hundred (2300) hours, a shift differential of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per hour shall be paid to Employees for each hour worked.

Effective the first pay period in January 2020, where the majority of hours of the shift fall between fifteen hundred (1500) hours and twenty-three hundred (2300) hours, a shift differential of two dollars and sixty cents ($2.60) per hour shall be paid to Employees for each hour worked.

(b) Night Shift Premium

Where the majority of hours of the shift fall between twenty-three hundred (2300) hours and zero seven hundred (0700) hours, a shift differential of four dollars and twenty-five ($4.25) per hour shall be paid to Employees for each hour worked.

19.04 The premiums set out under Article 19 shall not be considered as part of the Employee's basic hourly rate of pay.

ARTICLE 20 – GENERAL HOLIDAYS

20.01 (a) The Employer recognizes the following general holidays:

- | | |
|-------------------------|--|
| (i) New Year's Day | (viii) Thanksgiving Day |
| (ii) Alberta Family Day | (ix) Remembrance Day |
| (iii) Good Friday | (x) Christmas Day |
| (iv) Victoria Day | (xi) Boxing Day |
| (v) Canada Day | (xii) Two (2) Float Holidays |
| (vi) Civic Holiday | (xiii) National Day for Truth and Reconciliation |
| (vii) Labour Day | |

and any other general holiday proclaimed by the Provincial or Federal government.

(b) The Float Holiday

- (i) Full-time Employees on staff on January 1 shall be entitled to two (2) float holidays to be taken at a time mutually agreed upon within the same calendar year. Employees who successfully bid into a full-time position after January 1 will be eligible for the float holidays after thirty (30) calendar days following the start date of the full-time posting.
- (ii) The Float Holiday shall not be taken during the period December 15th and January 15th. The Float Holidays shall be taken at a time mutually agreed upon by the Employee and the Employer. Agreement to the Employee's preference as to the choice of Float Days will not be unreasonably withheld.
- (iii) The Float Holiday shall not be carried over from one calendar year to the next.

20.02 An Employee is not entitled to general holiday pay if they:

- (a) do not work on a general holiday when scheduled to do so, unless the absence is due to illness;
- (b) are absent on a general holiday and in receipt of bereavement pay, sick pay, WCB benefits, or jury duty pay;
- (c) are absent from work without the consent of the Administrator on their scheduled shift immediately preceding and/or immediately following a general holiday, unless due to illness; or
- (d) are on leaves of absence in excess of two (2) weeks.

20.03 Named Holiday Pay

- (a) Employees working on a general holiday, except for Christmas Day, will be paid at one and one-half times (1½X) their basic hourly rate of pay for all hours worked on a general holiday.
- (b) Employees working Christmas Day will be paid at double-time (2X) their basic hourly rate of pay for all hours worked thereafter on Christmas Day.

20.04 General Holiday Pay

(a) Full-time Employees

- (i) A full-time Employee working on a general holiday will receive one (1) additional day off with pay (holiday-in-lieu) to be taken within four (4) weeks before or after the general holiday unless otherwise agreed between the Employee and the Employer. Failing agreement, the Employer may schedule the holiday-in-lieu or pay the Employee for the holiday-in-lieu.
- (ii) If a general holiday falls on a regular day off of a full-time Employee who is entitled to general holiday pay, the Employee shall receive one (1) additional day off with pay (holiday-in-lieu) to be taken within four (4) weeks before or after the general holiday unless otherwise agreed between the Employee and the Employer. Failing agreement, the Employer may schedule the holiday-in-lieu or pay the Employee for the holiday-in-lieu.

(b) Part-time Employees

Part-time Employees entitled to general holiday pay will be paid 5% of their paid hours, excluding overtime hours, in each pay period in lieu of general holiday pay.

20.05 If a general holiday falls within a full-time Employee's vacation and the Employee would have been entitled to the general holiday pay if they had not been on vacation, then the Employee shall receive a holiday-in-lieu in accordance with clause 20.04(a).

20.06 All Employees are required to be available to work either Christmas Day or New Year's Day each year on an alternating basis.

ARTICLE 21 – VACATION

21.01 (a) Vacation credits will be earned during the vacation year for use in the vacation year immediately following except by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Employee.

(b) Vacation year defined:

(i) For Bonnyville, Leduc, St. Paul, Viking – July 1st to June 30th of the following calendar year.

(ii) For Fort MacLeod, Vulcan – January 1st to December 31st of the same calendar year.

21.02 Discretionary Vacation

For full-time and part-time Employees, a maximum of one (1) week of vacation entitlement may be used on a discretionary basis. The remaining vacation entitlement will be taken in time blocks of no less than one (1) week.

For the purposes of this provision:

(a) For discretionary vacation, “one (1) week of vacation” shall mean five (5) days.

(b) For taking vacation in time blocks of no less than one (1) week, for a full-time Employee, one (1) week shall mean five (5) working shifts in a seven (7) consecutive calendar day period and for part-time Employees, one (1) week shall mean seven (7) consecutive calendar days.

21.03 Vacation Scheduling

(a) Vacation requests shall be subject to operational requirements of the Employer.

(b) Employees may submit to the Employer in writing their vacation request(s) prior to May 1st of the same calendar year. Vacation requests received prior to May 1st will be considered on a seniority basis. The Employer shall post the vacation schedule following the May 1st deadline not later than May 31st.

(c) For vacation requests submitted to the Employer after May 1st, such request(s) shall be submitted in writing at least two (2) weeks in advance of the requested vacation time and will be considered on a first-come, first served basis.

(d) In order to schedule days off for Employees at either Christmas or New Year's, vacation will not normally be approved for the period from December 15th of one year to January 15th of the following year.

(e) The Employer will post Employees' remaining vacation by,

(i) For Bonnyville, Leduc, St. Paul, Viking – February 1st, and

(ii) For Fort MacLeod, Vulcan – August 1st.

If an Employee has not submitted to the Employer a written request for their remaining vacation by,

(iii) For Bonnyville, Leduc, St. Paul, Viking – March 15th, and

(iv) For Fort MacLeod, Vulcan – September 15th, once they have been notified of their remaining vacation, the Employer may unilaterally schedule any remaining vacation time prior to the conclusion of the vacation year.

The foregoing shall not apply to discretionary vacation.

21.04 Vacation Time and Pay Entitlement

(a) Vacation entitlement is earned vacation time based on the Employee's length of continuous service with the Employer at the conclusion of the preceding vacation year.

(b) Vacation pay will be based on a percentage of gross earnings, inclusive of the Employee's vacation pay, during the preceding vacation year.

(c) Schedule "D" – Vacation Time and Pay Entitlement – shall apply for calculating rates of earning of vacation time and vacation pay.

(d) Casual Employees shall be paid vacation pay on each pay deposit.

21.05 If an Employee requests, in writing, four (4) weeks in advance of the start of their approved vacation period, the Employer will pay to the Employee their vacation pay prior to the Employee commencing their vacation.

21.06 In the event an Employee's employment is terminated, they shall be paid unused earned vacation pay.

21.07 An Employee hospitalized during their scheduled vacation shall have the period of hospitalization rescheduled as vacation at a mutually convenient time.

Vacation rescheduled for this purpose shall not exceed five (5) working days. The Employee shall provide to the Employer written proof of hospitalization.

21.08 Upon written request to the Employer at least ninety (90) calendar days prior to the end of the vacation year, an Employee may request to carry over up to two (2) weeks of vacation from one (1) vacation year to the next.

- (a) Such ability is limited to one time (1X) per Employee for the lifetime of the Collective Agreement.
- (b) The Employee's vacation carry-over request shall indicate when they wish to use the vacation and shall be subject to the following:
 - (i) The vacation carried over shall not be taken during July or August.
 - (ii) The Employee cannot exercise seniority rights for the vacation carried over.
 - (iii) If the vacation carry-over request is approved by the Employer, the Employee shall not change her approved vacation request.

ARTICLE 22 – INCOME PROTECTION

22.01 Income Protection Defined (Sick Leave)

The Union and the Employer agree that income protection is provided for the sole and only purpose of protecting Employees against loss of income resulting from non-occupational personal illness or injury which renders the Employee unable to perform their regular duties. Employees will arrange for medical and dental appointments outside their working hours where possible. If this is not possible, then income protection credits may be used for time off for such appointments.

22.02 Income Protection Credits

- (a) Employees will earn income protection credits according to the following formula to a maximum of nine hundred and seventy-five (975) hours, or in the case of Licensed Practical Nurses, to a maximum of one thousand and seven point five (1007.5) hours.

$$\frac{1.5 \times \text{Hours of a Full-time Shift}^1}{\text{Full-time Bi-weekly Hours}^1 \times 26/12} \times \text{Hours Worked} = \text{Income Protection Credits Earned}$$

¹ For the job classification in which the hours were worked.

- (b) Full-time and part-time Employees will accumulate income protection credits pursuant to clause 22.02(a) effective their date of hire. Once the full-time or part-time Employee has successfully completed her probationary period, they will be able to access her income protection.

22.03 Once income protection credits are earned, they may be used when an Employee cannot perform their regular duties due to non-occupational personal illness or injury. Full-time and part-time Employees will be paid for each hour of absence from their regularly scheduled shifts at their current basic hourly rate of pay to the extent they have accumulated income protection credits. Income protection credits paid will be deducted from the Employee's accumulated income protection credits.

22.04 Proof of Illness

The Employer may require an Employee to provide a certificate from a medical practitioner for any illness verifying that they were unable to carry out their duties due to personal illness or injury.

22.05 Notification of Absence

- (a) Employees who will be absent from scheduled shifts due to personal illness or injury must notify their supervisor as soon as possible and at least one (1) hour prior to the beginning of their scheduled shift in order that a replacement may be arranged, or duties redistributed. Employees shall provide the Employer with at least four (4) hours advance notice of absence due to personal illness or injury for the evening and night shifts.
- (b) Employees shall inform the Facility of the expected length of any absence, keep the Facility informed of their personal illness or injury during an absence of unspecified length, and give adequate notice of availability to return to work. An Employee may be sent home without pay should they arrive at work without giving adequate notice of their availability to return to work.
- (c) Prior to returning to work from personal illness or injury, the Employer may require an Employee to provide a certificate from a medical practitioner confirming the Employee's fitness to return to work and perform their regular duties.

22.06 An Employee will be advised of their accumulated income protection credits in the month of January of each year.

22.07 An Employee who is on an unpaid leave of absence or is laid off and remains on the recall list shall not earn income protection credits during the absence period. Upon their return to work with the Employer at the conclusion of the leave of absence or upon recall from layoff, they shall retain their accumulated income protection credits if any existed at the time such leave of absence or layoff commenced.

22.08 When an Employee who resigned from employment at an CUPE certified Extendicare facility is hired by the Employer within thirty (30) days of their resignation, the Employer will recognize their accrued and unused income protection credits from that Extendicare facility as at the date of her resignation.

22.09 Family Illness

If an Employee requires time off for the purpose of attending to a family illness, provided they have been given prior authorization by the Employer, such absence shall be charged against their accumulated income protection to a maximum of three (3) days per calendar year. Employees may be required to submit satisfactory proof of such illness.

For clarification, "family" refers to immediate family – spouse, children, mother, father.

ARTICLE 23 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

23.01 Union Leave

- (a) Leave of absence without loss of pay or benefits shall be granted to Local representatives for the purpose of attending Union conventions, seminars, workshops subject to the replacement of the Local representative at no additional cost to the Employer. It is understood that requests for such Union leave must be made to the Employer in writing at least two (2) weeks in advance except in emergency circumstances and that Union shall reimburse the Employer for the costs of the aforementioned pay and benefits. Such Union leave shall not exceed eight (8) working days at any one time. The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer for the pay and benefits within two (2) weeks of receipt of the Employer's invoice.
- (b) One (1) Employee who is elected for a full-time position with the Union shall be granted a leave of absence without pay and benefits and without loss of seniority for a maximum period of one (1) year. Such leave of absence shall be renewable for a further term upon written request to the Employer. It is agreed that for the purpose of Workers Compensation Board (WCB) coverage, an Employee of such Union leave is deemed to be employed by the Union and not by the Employer. Further, with respect to benefits, such Employee shall have the right to pay the full benefit premiums including the Employer's share of benefit premiums, if any, during the period of the Union leave of absence, all of which is subject to the approval of the benefit plan carrier.

23.02 Maternity, Parental, and Adoption Leave

- (a) Employees who have completed ninety (90) calendar days of continuous employment with the Employer who qualify will be eligible for:

(i) Maternity Leave

Upon at least four (4) weeks advance written request indicating the anticipated start and return to work dates, a leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority shall be granted to the maximum permitted by legislation or as amended from time to time.

An Employee who does not give their Employer prior notice of maternity leave before starting it is still entitled to maternity leave if, within two (2) weeks after they cease to work, they provide their Employer with a medical certificate:

- A) Indicating that they are not able to work because of a medical condition relating to their pregnancy, or
- B) giving the estimated or actual date of delivery.

(ii) Parental and Adoption Leave

To qualify, the Employee shall be the mother, father or the adoptive parent of a child. Upon at least four (4) weeks advance written request indicating the anticipated start and return to work dates, unless the medical condition of the birth mother or child makes it impossible to comply with this requirement or the date of the child's placement with the adoptive parent was not foreseeable, a leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority shall be granted to a maximum of sixty-two (62) weeks.

- (b) On return from maternity or parental leave, the Employee will be placed in their former regularly scheduled position, if it still exists. If the position no longer exists, such Employee will have access to the bumping and layoff provisions as applicable within the Collective Agreement.
- (c) Seniority and service will continue to accrue during the approved maternity and parental leave consistent with the Employee's master rotation at the time the said leave commenced.

- (d) Unless otherwise specified within this Collective Agreement, all other matters pertaining to the maternity and parental leave shall be referenced against provincial legislation governing maternity and parental leave.

Unless otherwise specified within this Collective Agreement, all other matters pertaining to adoption leave shall be referenced against provincial legislation governing adoption leave.

23.03 Bereavement Leave

- (a) In the event of the death of an immediate family member of the Employee, they shall be granted a leave of absence without loss of pay and benefits of up to three (3) working days. Additional leave of up to two (2) working days without loss of pay and benefits for the purpose of travel to and from the funeral – if traveling four hundred and fifty (450) or more kilometers one way – shall be authorized by the Employer for the Employee to attend the funeral. If the Employee requires further time off from work in such cases, they may request a general leave of absence.

- (b) For the purpose of bereavement leave, “immediate family” of an Employee will include:

spouse (including common-law spouse and same-sex partner)
child	legal guardian
parent	parents-in-law,
brother	brother/sister-in-law,
sister	daughter /son-in-law,
grandparents	stepchildren, and
grandchildren	stepparent of the Employee

- (c) In the event of the death of another relative or close friend, the Employer may, subject to operational requirements, grant up to one (1) working day off without pay and benefits for the Employee attend the funeral services.

23.04 Juror or Court Witness Leave

A leave of absence will be granted to an Employee who serves as a juror or is subpoenaed as a witness to any court. The Employer will pay the Employee the difference between their regular earnings, based on their regularly scheduled hours, and the payment they receive serving as a juror or as a court witness (excluding payment for travel, meals and accommodation). The Employee shall present proof of service and the amount of pay received. The Employee shall notify the Employer as soon as possible of their selection for jury duty or subpoena as a court witness.

23.05 Leaves of Absence

The following provisions are applicable to all leaves of absence unless otherwise stated:

- (a) Application for a leave of absence shall be submitted in writing to the Employer as early as possible. The application shall indicate the start and end dates for the leave of absence and the reason(s) for the leave of absence.
- (b) Approval of a leave of absence shall be at the discretion of the Employer and shall be subject to the efficient operation of the Employer, however, such approval shall not be unjustly withheld. The Employer shall respond in writing within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving an Employee's application for a leave of absence.
- (c) An Employee who neglects to return at the end of the approved leave of absence shall be subject to clause 13.04.
- (d) An Employee shall not work for gain during the leave of absence without the written consent of the Employer.
- (e) An Employee wishing to extend their leave of absence shall submit in writing to the Employer as early as possible in advance of the original end date of the leave of absence. The request for extension shall indicate the revised end date for the leave of absence. Approval of the extension of a leave of absence will be made pursuant to clause 23.05(b).
- (f) During an unpaid leave of absence:
 - (i) An Employee shall not be entitled to Named Holiday pay. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for example, a Full-time Employee shall not be entitled to the holiday-in-lieu for a Named Holiday that falls within the unpaid leave of absence; and,
 - (ii) they shall not earn sick leave credits.
- (g) Prepayment of the group benefit plan premiums during the unpaid leave of absence period shall be in accordance with clause 25.08.

ARTICLE 24 – PAYMENT OF WAGES

24.01 (a) The Employer shall pay wages in accordance with Schedule “A” on a bi-weekly basis. Payday shall normally be alternate Wednesdays. If a payday falls on a general holiday, the payday will normally be the day prior to the general holiday.

(b) Direct Deposit

An Employee’s pay will be directly deposited bi-weekly into the Employee’s bank account at a financial institution of the Employee’s choice. Pay advice information shall be made available in electronic fashion to Employees on or before payday.

24.02 Temporary Work Assignment

When an Employee is temporarily assigned by the Employer to work in a higher paying job classification within the bargaining unit of a full shift or more, the Employee shall be paid at the basic hourly rate of pay of the higher paying job classification next higher than their current basic hourly rate of pay for all hours so worked.

24.03 Recognition of Previous Experience

(a) For newly hired LPNs only, where the Employee has recent related LPN experience satisfactory to the Employer, the Employer will recognize such experience. Recognition of previous experience will be on the basis of one (1) annual increment for each one (1) full year of service up to the maximum of the LPN wage grid. Part-time service shall be recognized on a pro-rata basis with one (1) year of experience recognized for each 2015 paid hours in the qualifying period.

It shall be the responsibility of the newly hired LPN to provide the Employer with reasonable proof of recent related experience in order to be considered for recognition of previous experience. If they fail to do so within one (1) month of their date of hire, they will not be entitled to retroactivity, but this will not disqualify them from appropriate placement on the wage grid.

(b) For newly hired Healthcare Aides and Care Aides only, where the Employee has recent related experience satisfactory to the Employer, the Employer will recognize such experience provided not more than three (3) years have elapsed since such experience was obtained.

Recognition of previous experience will be on the basis of one (1) annual increment for each one (1) full year of service up to the maximum of the Care Aide or HCA wage grid.

Part time service shall be recognized on a pro-rata basis with one (1) year of experience recognized for every multiple of paid hours equal to the annual hours for the Healthcare Aide and Care Aide job classification of the given facility in the qualifying period.

It shall be the responsibility of each newly hired Healthcare Aide and Care Aide to provide the Employer with reasonable proof of recent related experience in order to be considered for recognition of previous experience. If they fail to do so within one (1) month of her date of hire, they will not be entitled to retroactivity, but this will not disqualify them from appropriate placement on the wage grid.

24.04 Errors on Pay Cheque

In the event of an error on an Employee's pay, the correction will be made in the pay period following the date on which the underpayment comes to the Employer's attention. If the error resulted in an Employee being underpaid by one (1) days' pay or more, the Employer will provide payment for the shortfall within one (1) week from the date it is notified of the error.

If an Employee is overpaid, Extendicare will collect the overpayment after it has arranged a reasonable repayment schedule with the Employee. The minimum bi-weekly re-payment will be fifty dollars ($50.00) per pay period.

If the Employee resigns or is terminated for just cause, the amount owing will be deducted from their final pay cheque or other funds due on termination of employment.

24.05 Extendicare Service Recognition

(a) Employees Hired by Another Facility

An Employee who is hired by the Employer within four (4) months of termination from any previous Extendicare Facility shall be employed as a new Employee.

Upon successful completion of their probation period, the Employee shall be credited for service accrued at the previous Facility (based upon hours worked) for the purposes of placement on the wage grid. The Employee shall also be credited for years of continuous service completed at the previous Facility for the purpose of vacation accrual.

(b) Employees Re-hired at the Same Facility

An Employee who is re-hired by the Employer at the same Facility within four (4) months of the effective date of their resignation:

- (i) If re-hired in the same job classification:
 - (a) If the Employee had successfully completed their probation period at the time of their resignation, they shall not re-serve the probation period; if the Employee had not successfully completed their probation period at the time of their resignation, then they shall re-serve the probation period in accordance with Article 14;
 - (b) Notwithstanding the application of clause 24.03 where applicable, the Employee shall be credited for service accrued at the Facility (based upon hours worked) for the purposes of placement on the wage grid; and,
 - (c) The Employee shall be credited for years of continuous service completed at the Facility for the purpose of vacation accrual.
- (ii) If re-hired into a different job classification:
 - (a) The Employee shall re-serve the probation period in accordance with Article 14;
 - (b) Notwithstanding the application of clause 24.03 where applicable, the Employee shall be placed at the starting basic hourly rate of pay of the new job classification; and,
 - (c) The Employee shall be credited for years of continuous service completed at the Facility for the purpose of vacation accrual.

ARTICLE 25 – GROUP BENEFIT PLANS

25.01 Full-time and part-time Employees who have completed their probationary period are eligible to participate in any of the following group benefit plans. For full-time Employees who choose to participate, the Employer agrees to pay the share of the benefit premium for the given benefit plan as set out in Schedule “B”. For part-time Employees who choose to participate, the Employer agrees to pay a share of the benefit premium subject to pro-rating provisions as set out in the Collective Agreement and subject to the terms and conditions of the group benefit plans.

Casual Employees shall not be entitled to participate in the group benefit plans.

An Employee's enrollment into a group benefit plan shall be the first day of the month following the month they make the decision to participate in the benefit plan.

- 25.02 Any problems an Employee has with respect to the benefit plan carrier acknowledging or honouring a benefit claim(s) is strictly a matter between the Employee and the benefit plan carrier. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Employer is not the insurer and shall have no liability to honour any benefit claim(s) rejected by the benefit plan carrier.
- 25.03 The Employer reserves the right to change the benefit plan carrier of any group benefit plan subject to discussion with the Union. The Employer will notify the Union if it intends to change the benefit plan carrier and the new benefit plan carrier will provide at least the same coverage as the current group benefit plan provides. The Employer will notify the Union in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of any changes.
- 25.04 Full-time and part-time Employees who have elected to enroll in a particular group benefit plan may withdraw from the group benefit plan at any time. An Employee who has not enrolled in or has previously withdrawn from a group benefit plan may enroll late or re-enroll in a group benefit plan subject to the benefit plan carrier's approval and any conditions imposed by the benefit plan carrier including, but not limited to, limits on coverage for a defined time period.

As part of the conditions for late enrolment or re-enrolment into the group benefit plans, initial benefits shall be limited as follows:

- (a) Life Insurance and AD & D – upon approval by the benefit plan carrier.
- (b) Dental Plan – $250 maximum benefit per insured person for twelve (12) months from the effective date of coverage.
- (c) Extended Health Care
 - (i) Drugs – $150 maximum benefit per insured person for twelve (12) months from the effective date of coverage.
 - (ii) Hearing – No benefit for six (6) months from the effective date of coverage.
 - (iii) Effective April 1, 2020 the Employer shall provide a vision care plan with reimbursement of $200 every twenty-four (24) months for eyeglasses or contact lenses, or medically necessary contact lenses. Premium sharing shall be: Employer fifty percent (50%), Employee fifty percent (50%).

Exception

If an Employee is requesting coverage for dental or extended health care benefits which were lost under a spouse's plan and the Employee makes such request within thirty-one (31) days from the date the spousal insurance ceases, the foregoing limits will not apply.

25.05 Group Benefit Plans

(a) Dental Plan

The Employer will pay the benefit premium cost share set out in Schedule "B" for a dental plan for eligible participating full-time Employees providing that such Employee pays the remaining benefit plan premium through payroll deduction.

The dental plan shall provide:

- (i) one hundred percent (100%) coverage of the cost of routine dental care and fifty percent (50%) coverage of the cost of major restorative care to a maximum of $1,000 per insured per calendar year in the first year of coverage and to a maximum of $1,500 per insured per calendar year thereafter, and
- (ii) fifty percent (50%) coverage of the cost of orthodontic treatment for Employees, spouses and dependent children to a lifetime maximum per insured of $1,000.00.

(b) Extended Health Care

The Employer will pay the benefit premium cost share set out in Schedule "B" for an extended health care (EHC) plan for eligible participating full-time Employees providing that such Employee pays the remaining benefit plan premium through payroll deduction.

Subject to the benefit plan carrier requirements, the Extended Health Care Plan shall provide for:

- (i) Deductible: $15/calendar year; not applicable to prescription drugs;
- (ii) Prescription Drugs: Coverage includes provision of a Drug Card providing for a $7.50 cap on re-imbursement on the dispensing fee and a $1.00 deductible per prescription. Positive Enrolment provision to be included. Reimbursement for prescribed drugs covered by the Extended Health Care Plan will be based on the cost of the lowest priced therapeutically equivalent generic version of the drug, unless there is a documented adverse reaction to the generic drug or unless the beneficiary's doctor stipulates that the generic drug is not an alternative, in which case the reimbursement will be for the prescribed drug;

- (iii) Para-Medical: $350 max annual benefit with no per visit fee cap;
- (iv) Semi-private hospital accommodation; and
- (v) Hearing Aid: $500 maximum benefit every three years per insured.

(c) Vision Care

Effective April 1, 2020.

The Employer shall provide a vision care plan with reimbursement of two hundred dollars ($200.00) every twenty four (24) months for eyeglasses or contact lenses, or medically necessary contact lenses.

Premium sharing shall be: Employer fifty percent (50%), Employee fifty percent (50%).

(d) Life Insurance and Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D) Coverage

The Employer will pay the benefit premium cost share set out in Schedule "B" to provide life insurance and accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) coverage for eligible participating full-time Employees in the amount of one (1) times the Employee's annual earnings to a maximum of $200,000 which shall terminate at age seventy (70) or upon retirement, whichever occurs first.

25.06 When a casual Employee is a successful applicant for a permanent full or part-time position pursuant to Article 16, the Employer will advise such Employee of their eligibility to participate in any of the aforementioned group benefits subject to the terms and conditions outlined in the Collective Agreement.

25.07 Part-time Employees – Benefit Premium Cost Share

- (a) The Employer's payment of the benefit premium cost share set out in Schedule "B" for part-time Employees shall be on a pro-rated basis of hours regularly worked by the part-time Employee in relation to the full-time bi-weekly hours for the job classification in which the Employee holds a part-time position as outlined in Schedule "C".

- (b) The pro-rated Employer payment of the benefit premium cost share as specified in clause 25.07(a) will be updated by the Employer every six (6) months. The part-time Employee's paid hours during the preceding six (6) months shall be used for the pro-rated calculation for the following six (6) month period. The pro-rated Employer benefit premium cost share will be calculated using the full-time hours for the given job classification and the given facility for the 6-month period.

The 6-month periods and the corresponding effective date of revised pro-rated Employer benefit premium cost share will be as follows.

6-Month Period	Effective Date for Revised Pro-Rated Employer Benefit Premium Cost share
September 1 to February 28 of the following calendar year	April 1
March 1 to August 31 of the same calendar year	October 1

- (c) In the event a part-time Employee obtains a full-time position, the Employer's payment of the benefit premium cost share for full-time Employees shall commence on the effective date of their full-time position.
- (d) For a casual Employee who obtains a permanent part-time position, the pro-rated Employer benefit premium cost share will be based upon the part-time Employee's regularly scheduled hours of the position to the conclusion of the first full six (6) month period following her commencement in the said position. The pro-rated Employer benefit premium cost share will be revised, as necessary, upon completion of the first full six (6) month period worked by the part-time Employee.

25.08 Pre-Payment of Premiums

During an Employer-approved leave of absence that is without pay and benefits, the Employer agrees to pay the benefit premium cost share only for the month in which the leave of absence commences. If the Employee wishes to continue their benefit plan participation beyond that first month of the leave of absence, they shall notify the Employer in writing of their decision to continue and shall remit payment of the full monthly benefit plan premiums for all benefit plans they continue to participate in no later than the first day of the month to which the benefit plan premium is due. The Employee shall be wholly responsible for compliance with the benefit plan carrier requirements for waiver of benefits and/or submission of the full monthly benefit plan premium during the leave of absence.

ARTICLE 26 – REGISTERED RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN

26.01 Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP)

The Employer agrees to the following terms and conditions regarding a registered retirement savings plan (the “RRSP”).

(a) Employee Eligibility:

Full-time and part-time Employees who have completed their probationary period may elect to enroll in the RRSP. Employee participation in the RRSP shall be on a voluntary basis.

Employees may elect to enroll in the RRSP at any time after the completion of their probationary period. Enrollment into the RRSP will take effect within two (2) full pay periods following the receipt of the enrollment documents by Extencicare Benefits Department.

(b) Employee Contribution:

Eligible Employees who enroll in the RRSP (the “participating Employees”) will contribute to their individual RRSP the greater of $0.55/hour worked or three percent (3%) of their basic hourly rate of pay per hour worked.

Participating Employees shall provide to the Employer written authorization to make deductions pursuant to this Article.

(c) Employer Contribution:

For each participating Employee contributing to the RRSP, the Employer shall contribute to the participating Employee’s RRSP a matching amount as set out in (b) above per hour worked. The Employer contribution shall not apply to additional voluntary contributions made by participating Employees.

(d) Contribution Remittances:

The Employer will remit the required contributions and additional voluntary contributions (the “contribution remittances”) to the RRSP. The Employer will include with the contribution remittances an itemized list identifying the following individual information:

- (i) Employee’s name
- (ii) Employee’s social insurance number

- (iii) Employee's basic contributions
- (iv) Employee's additional voluntary contributions
- (v) Employer's contributions (pursuant to (c) above)

The Employer shall be saved harmless for all contribution remittances so made to the RRSP.

(e) Additional Voluntary Contributions:

- (i) Participating Employees may choose to make additional voluntary contributions (the "AVC") to the RRSP. The Employer shall not match such AVC.
- (ii) Participating Employees who wish to make AVC shall provide to the Employer written authorization for the AVC amount, the start date, and the concluding date (if any) of the AVC. AVC shall be set in a flat dollar amount per pay period.
- (iii) The Employer agrees to deduct through the payroll and remit to the RRSP the participating Employee's AVC.

It is understood and agreed that participating Employees may not make AVC if, as a result, the Employee will be over-contributing pursuant to CCRA regulations regarding RRSP contribution limits. It shall be the responsibility of the participating Employee to know their RRSP contribution limits.

For clarity, Employees wishing to make lump sum payments to their RRSP may do so directly to the Plan Custodian subject to CCRA regulations.

(f) Investment Control, Opting Out, and Withdrawals:

- (i) Participating Employees shall retain investment control in respect of both Employee and Employer contributions to the RRSP.
- (ii) Participating Employees who have enrolled in the RRSP may choose to opt out of the RRSP at any time.
- (iii) Participating Employees may make withdrawals from their RRSP subject to the Plan Custodian rules.

(g) No Employer Liability:

The Employer's responsibility shall be limited to remitting the required and additional voluntary contributions as set out in this Article. Further, the Employer shall be fully indemnified by the Union and CUPE, including all legal fees, for the RRSP.

ARTICLE 27 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

27.01 The Employer and the Union agree that they mutually desire to maintain standards of safety and health in the Facility, in order to prevent injury and illness and abide by the Occupational Health and Safety Act (the Act), Regulations and Code as amended from time to time.

27.02 Pursuant to the Occupational Health & Safety Act of Alberta, the Employer shall maintain an Occupational Health and Safety Committee at each facility with up to two (2) representatives from the bargaining unit.

27.03 The Employer and the Union will cooperate in recognizing and dealing with matters of harassment in the workplace should it arise. The Employer and the Union shall maintain strict confidentiality of all situations alleging harassment.

27.04 Workplace Violence Prevention Strategy

- (a) Incidents of violence, verbal or physical, committed by an Employee, resident, visitor or resident's family member shall be reported by the Employee to their immediate out-of-scope supervisor.
- (b) Violent incidents will be a standing item and tracked in the OH&S Committee minutes.
- (c) The OH&S Committee may provide recommendations to the Administrator. The Administrator will reply to the OH&S Committee Co-chairs prior to the following meeting wherever possible, or as soon as possible thereafter.
- (d) The Administrator will report violent incidents to the OH&S Committee including the following:
 - (i) Type of incidents (e.g. physical, verbal);
 - (ii) Nature of injuries;
 - (iii) Root cause(s);

- (iv) Immediate action taken, if any;
- (v) Response of Administrator, if any.

27.05 The Employer and Employees will take reasonable steps to eliminate, reduce or minimize all workplace safety hazards.

- (a) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is the responsibility of the Employer to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable to do so:
 - (i) The health, safety and welfare of its Employees;
 - (ii) That its workers are aware of their rights and duties under the Act, its regulations and the Code;
 - (iii) Ensure that none of its Employees are subject to, or participate in harassment or violence in the workplace;
 - (iv) Consult with the Occupational Health & Safety Committee to exchange information on health and safety matters, and to resolve health and safety concerns;
 - (v) Comply with the Act, the Regulations, and the Code.
- (b) And it is the responsibility of the Employee to:
 - (i) Take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of the Employee and other workers working in the area where the work is being performed;
 - (ii) Use all devices and wear all personal protective equipment designated and provided by the Employer;
 - (iii) Refrain from causing or participating in harassment or violence;
 - (iv) Report to the Administrator, out-of-scope supervisor, or nurse in charge a concern about an unsafe or harmful worksite act that occurs or has occurred or an unsafe or harmful worksite condition that exists or has existed;
 - (v) Comply with the Act, the Regulations, and the Code.

27.06 Right to Refuse Dangerous Work

An Employee may refuse to work or to do particular work at a worksite in accordance with Part 4 of the Act.

ARTICLE 28 – DISCIPLINE

28.01 An Employee who has completed their probationary period may be disciplined or terminated only for just cause. When an Employee is disciplined or terminated, they and the Union shall be given the reasons in writing.

28.02 (a) Whenever the Employer deems it necessary to discipline an Employee, the Employee will be notified in advance of the meeting.

(b) An Employee shall have the right to Union representation at meetings with the Employer of a disciplinary nature.

28.03 Disciplinary Record

An Employee who has been subject to disciplinary action pursuant to clause 28.01 may, subject to the following time periods set out below, be cleared of the record of the disciplinary action.

(a) After twelve (12) months of active employment exclusive of unpaid leaves of absence from the date the disciplinary action was invoked.

(b) For discipline involving suspensions, after eighteen (18) months of continuous service exclusive of unpaid leaves of absence from the date the disciplinary action was invoked.

ARTICLE 29 – GENERAL CONDITIONS

29.01 Access to Personnel File

An Employee shall have the right, at a mutually agreed time, to have access to and review their personnel file.

29.02 Transportation Allowance

When the Employer requires an Employee to use their automobile on Employer business, the Employee will receive forty-four cents ($0.44) per kilometre for the distance travelled on such business.

29.03 Notice of Resignation or Retirement

An Employee shall notify the Employer in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the intended date of their resignation or retirement from employment.

29.04 Courses, Seminars, and Conferences

- (a) When the Employer in the absence of legislated requirements requires an Employee to complete a course or attend a seminar or conference, the Employer will pay the tuition fees and approved expenses. The Employee will suffer no loss of regular pay while in attendance.
- (b) Payment of costs for other courses, seminars or conferences requested by the Employee or Employer which will further the Employee's knowledge and skill as it relates to their position shall be by mutual agreement between the Administrator and the Employee prior to enrollment.
- (c) Employees required to attend in-service training on their regularly scheduled days off shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours pay at their regular basic hourly rate of pay as described in Schedule "A".

29.05 Restrictions on Contracting-Out

- (a) Should the Employer contract out work presently performed by members of the bargaining unit, Employees so displaced will be allowed to exercise their seniority rights, provided that they are qualified to displace Employees with less seniority.
- (b) The Employer will advise the Union of any pending contracting out as soon as possible.
- (c) The Employer will provide as much advance notification as possible to the Union and the Employees affected.

29.06 Time Change

Those Employees working the night shift when the change from Daylight Time to Standard Time occurs shall be paid overtime for all hours worked over the daily full-time hours in a shift for the applicable job classification and Employees working the night shift when the change from Standard Time to Daylight Time occurs shall be paid their basic hourly rate of pay for all hours worked.

29.07 Job Classifications

If the Employer introduces a new job classification which is properly included within the bargaining unit, the basic hourly rates of pay of the new job classification shall be subject to negotiations between the Employer and the Union. If negotiations fail to produce an agreement within forty-five (45) calendar days of the Union having been given written notice of the new job classification, then either party may elect to have the basic hourly rates of pay settled by arbitration in accordance with Article 12.

29.08 Job Descriptions

- (a) The Employer will provide to Employees a copy of the job description for the job classification in which they are employed in. It is agreed and understood that such job descriptions shall not form part of the Collective Agreement, shall not be subject to negotiations, shall not be subject to grievance, and may be changed by the Employer from time to time.
- (b) The Employer will provide a copy of job description(s) to the Union upon request by the Union.

ARTICLE 30 – COPIES OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

30.01 The Union will prepare the Collective Agreement for the parties' signature upon written notice of ratification by the parties. Printing of the Collective Agreement shall be arranged between the parties. The cost of printing the Collective Agreement shall be shared equally by the Union and the Employer. The Union will provide the Employer with a Word version of the final agreement.

RE: Human Resources Information System

Extendicare is going through the final stages of implementing a new Human Resources Information System and Payroll platform. With the introduction of new systems, it is possible that Extendicare will experience a higher than normal volume of administrative errors. Further, some Articles of the Collective Agreement may contain administrative details not compatible with the new HRIS system. Accordingly, the Employer proposes the following:

- Extension of an additional (10) days to Step 1 of the grievance procedure to address payroll errors.
- Subject to reasonable notice of administrative changes resulting from the new HRIS system that does not disadvantage a member of the bargaining unit, such changes will not be considered a violation of the Collective Agreement. It is understood that this Letter of Understanding will not restrict the Union’s rights to grieve should it believe that a change is not only administrative in nature or that it disadvantages its members.
- Letter of Understanding to Expire on December 31, 2023.
