- (b) Requests including reasons for schedule modification (e.g. earned days off) shall be submitted in writing at least six (6) weeks prior to the proposed change.

- 13.04 (a) Where the Employer determines that temporary employees are required, the Employer will determine the rate of pay for such temporary employees and notify the Union.
- (b) Where the funding for the employee is partially derived from a grant program, and with the agreement of the Union, the rate of pay will be at least 70% of Level 1, Step 1.

13.05 New classifications may be created during the term of this Agreement. As a result of a new classification, a new pay level may be established. The Employer will evaluate new classifications and notify the Union of the results of the evaluation including the assigned pay rate.

In the event the Union disagrees with the decision, the Union may file a grievance at Step 2 of the Dispute Resolution Process (Article 35).

The Arbitration Board has the express authority to set the level of pay for the new classification.

13.06 Where the Employer determines that the scope and responsibilities of a position have changed or will change, the Employer will evaluate the revised position and notify the Union of the results. An incumbent whose position is evaluated to a lower grade as a result of this clause will be red-circled at their current rate of pay and not eligible for future increments; however, such an employee will receive the negotiated increases as a result of collective bargaining.

- 13.07 (a) An employee who has reason to believe that they are improperly classified due to a substantial change in job duties, may apply to the Employer to have their classification reviewed. The Employer will give consideration to such application and notify the employee accordingly.
- (b) Should the employee feel that they have not received proper consideration review, they may request that the matter be further reviewed by discussion between the Union and the Employer.
- (c) The Employer will notify the Union of the decision within sixty (60) days of the matter being brought by the Union to the Employer.
- (d) It is understood by the parties that the classification review is subject to the Dispute Resolution Process.

13.08 The rate of base pay set out in Appendix A will not be reduced except with the concurrence of the Union.

13.09 The Salary Schedule (Appendix A) reflects the current composition of the bargaining unit. It will be amended each time there is a change, addition, or deletion of a classification.

13.10 The Employer agrees that the Employment Insurance Premium Reduction will be discussed yearly with the employees and allocated in a manner mutually agreed to by the Union and the Employer.

13.11 Employees will be paid by direct payroll deposit bi-weekly on Tuesday.

In December, the first pay day of that month employees will be paid four (4) weeks of pay. There will be no pay for the following pay period.

13.12 Premium pay (Article 15), other than overtime, will be paid no later than the month following the month in which it was earned.

13.13 Salary Placement on Demotion

- (a) Where an employee is demoted due to bumping as a result of the application of Article 19 (Layoff and Recall), the employee's salary will be the rate on the salary schedule for the new classification which is as close as possible to the employee's old salary rate.
- (b) Where an employee is demoted due to a temporary need for medical accommodation, the employee's salary will continue to be the rate paid prior to the accommodation.
- (c) Where an employee is being demoted due to a permanent need for medical accommodation, the employee's salary will be the rate on the salary schedule for the new classification which is as close as possible to the employee's old salary rate.

ARTICLE 14 - PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

14.01 The parties recognize that the Employer's success depends on the performance and contribution of every employee. Effective performance management involves a continuous two-way process of communication between an employee and the Director of Operations focused on:

- (b) On the completion of a minimum of twelve (12) months, if an employee requests.

14.03 Rebuttal

An employee is entitled to put a written rebuttal to any performance review on their Personnel File within a reasonable time.

ARTICLE 15 - PREMIUMS

15.01 Premium pay will be payable in the following instances:

- (a) Where an employee is required to assume the duties and responsibilities of a higher level position, they will receive a premium of five percent (5%) of their base pay or the difference between their regular salary and the minimum base pay for that higher level position, whichever is greater; or
- (b) Where an employee is required to perform higher level duties in addition to some of their regular duties and responsibilities for a cumulative qualifying period of five (5) days per fiscal year, they will receive a premium of five percent (5%) of their base pay for the total period of temporary responsibility including the qualifying period upon its completion.
- (c) When an employee is required to perform the duties and responsibilities of an out-of-scope position temporarily, the employee will be paid a premium of ten percent (10%) of the employee's base rate of pay and have the right to revert back to the former position without loss of benefits or accruable entitlements. Seniority will continue to accrue for a period of six (6) months only.

15.02 The maximum period for responsibility premium will be six (6) months, subject to review by the Director of Operations, with written notification to the Union of any extension.

ARTICLE 16 - RETIREMENT/RESIGNATION

16.01 The Employer will provide an amount equal to ten decimal 8 (10.8%) percent of each regular employee's monthly salary in lieu of pension. Effective April 1, 2022, the Employer will provide an amount equal to ten decimal nine percent (10.9%) of each regular employee's monthly salary in lieu of pension. Effective April 1, 2023, the Employer will provide an amount equal to eleven percent (11%) of each regular employee's monthly salary in lieu of pension. This amount will be provided electronically directly to an employee's RRSP account where possible. In all other cases the amount will be paid directly on the employee's paycheque and each employee will forthwith reserve the amount in a retirement account.

16.02 An employee with ten years of service, who resigns and is fifty-five (55) years of age or older, or is resigning due to illness or disability and is not on LTD, will receive a payment of twenty-five (25) days' pay. This payment may be used either as vacation or be paid out on the date of resignation.

ARTICLE 17 - SERVICE

17.01 Service means cumulative employment of an employee and will be established from the first day of hire and computed on the basis of calendar months of employment, subject to the provisions of this Article.

- 17.02 Approved leave with pay, time on LTD and WCB leave, leave as per Article 27 (New Child Leave), or leave as per clause 26.03 for any duration will be counted as service. Employment Standards job-protected leave will be counted as service.
- 17.03 Approved leave without pay and time on continuous layoff greater than one (1) calendar month will not be counted as service; however, for the sole purpose of reinstatement of illness only (clause 23.08) approved leave without pay will count as service.
- 17.04 Where a temporary employee becomes a regular employee, their temporary employment time will count as regular service.
- 17.05 An employee will forfeit their service when they:

ARTICLE 18 - CONTRACTING OUT

- 18.01 A person who is not an employee will not perform work that would normally be performed by the employees in this bargaining unit. The work done by NASA Union Stewards or NASA members pursuant to Article 2, does not constitute contracting out of bargaining unit work and will not result in the loss of any bargaining unit member's employment. Persons whose jobs (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit, except in cases mutually agreed upon in writing by the Parties.

ARTICLE 19 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 19.01 In the event of a layoff, the Employer will provide twenty-one (21) calendar days' notice in writing to the Union of its intent, outlining the reasons layoff is being considered and disclosing the extent of the issue. Wherever possible, the matter will be discussed in detail with the Union in an attempt to resolve the issues and avoid employee reductions.
- 19.02 Affected employees will be provided with at least twenty-one (21) calendar days' notice of layoff.
- 19.03 Where the affected employee is the least senior employee in the bargaining unit, upon receipt of written notice of layoff the employee will be provided fourteen (14) calendar days to choose one of the following options:

to a maximum of twelve (12) months. Upon receipt of the severance pay the employment relationship will be terminated.

- (b) To be laid off and receive recall rights for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months.

19.04 Where the affected employee is not the least senior employee in the bargaining unit, upon receipt of written notice to layoff an employee will be provided seven (7) calendar days to choose one of the following options:

- (a) To bump any less senior employee, provided the person exercising this right is qualified to perform the work of the less senior employee. In assessing those qualifications, it is recognized that orientation or training of up to two (2) months may be required. This right to bump includes the right to bump up within the bargaining unit.
- (b) To receive severance pay on the basis of one (1) month's pay per year of service to a maximum of twelve (12) months. Upon receipt of the severance pay the employment relationship will be terminated.
- (c) To be laid off and receive recall rights for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months.

19.05 An employee bumped as result of the application of clause 19.04 (a) will have clause 19.04 applied to them as if they had been the original affected employee. In this case, the notice in clause 19.02 will be reduced to fourteen (14) calendar days.

19.06 An employee choosing option 19.03 (b) or 19.04 (c) will have recall rights to any positions that may become available for which the employee is qualified. In assessing those qualifications, it is recognized that orientation or training of up to two (2) months may be required. Recall rights are retained until the employee rejects one offer of recall which is of the same status and salary as the position from which they were laid off.

19.07 In the event of a vacancy, the Employer will notify laid off employees in order of seniority. This notification will first be attempted by telephone but will be confirmed in writing, delivered electronically or by courier. The most senior qualified employee will be first recalled.

19.08 An employee who is recalled within the first six (6) months of layoff will earn seniority for the period of layoff.

19.09 An employee who elects to terminate their employment relationship, pursuant to clauses 19.03 (a) or 19.04 (b), will receive a $1,000.00 retraining allowance payable to a training or educational entity of their choosing. They must exercise this right within twelve (12) months of terminating their employment.

ARTICLE 20 - POSTINGS AND PROMOTIONS

20.01 Postings

- (a) When the Employer declares a vacancy, the vacancy will be posted internally and externally for at least ten (10) working days. The job description and salary rate will accompany the posting. Internal applicants possessing the basic skills and qualifications for the job, or who possesses the ability to be trained to reach the basic skills and qualifications, shall be considered first for the position. In the event more than one internal applicant has applied for the same position, and both possess the same skills and qualifications, seniority will prevail.

- (b) The Union will be notified within ten (10) business days of any successful candidates, vacancy notification and of all postings/positions which open.

20.02 Promotions

Where an employee is promoted, their new base pay will be within the range of the higher grade for their new position. The new base pay will be no less than one full increment above their current pay. Increments will thereafter be granted, pursuant to Article 13. If the employee is within three (3) months of their next increment of date of promotion, they will be granted an additional increment.

ARTICLE 21 - PAID HOLIDAYS AND DECEMBER CLOSURE

21.01 The following will be paid holidays:

New Year's Day	Heritage Day (Civic Holiday)

Canada Day	Christmas Day

- 21.02 (a) Where a paid holiday under clause 21.01 falls on a Saturday or a Sunday, the paid holiday will be observed on the following Monday.
- (b) When July 1, September 30 or November 11 fall on a Tuesday or Thursday the day either before or after those days would be Closure Days (21.08 (a)-(f)) as appropriate to provide a 4 day weekend.
- 21.03 Where an employee is not required to work on a paid holiday, their pay for that holiday will be the pay which they regularly receive for their normal day's work.
- 21.04 To be eligible for paid holidays, an employee must be at work (or on approved leave with pay) their last normal working day before the paid holiday or their first normal working day after.
- 21.05 When a paid holiday falls on one of an employee's normal rest days, they will be given some other day of paid leave in lieu of the day of rest.
- 21.06 When provision of a lieu day cannot be arranged due to operational requirements, the employee will receive a day's pay not later than the end of the month following the month in which the paid holiday occurs.
- 21.07 An employee will only be considered to have worked on a paid holiday when they work on one of the specific days set out in clause 21.01.

- (a) When an employee is required to work on a paid holiday, they will be paid at double time (2x) for all hours worked, and in addition will be given some other day off with pay in lieu of the paid holiday at a mutually agreeable time. Where this provision applies, clause 21.04 will not apply.
- (b) Where the employee works less than their regular daily hours, they will be paid at straight time for the balance of those hours they were not required to work.
- (c) Where a minimum time payment applies, the straight time pay will be for the difference between that minimum and their regular hours.
- (d) The minimum payment for working on a paid holiday is two (2) hours at applicable overtime rates.

21.08 December Closure

Employees will normally be entitled to five (5) regularly scheduled work days off during the period beginning on the last working day prior to December 25 and ending December 31 as follows:

- (a) The regularly scheduled work days will be designated as days off with pay (i.e., paid but not worked) for regular employees and temporary employees, as specified in clause 2.03 (b), and these employees will receive the base pay they regularly receive for their normal day's work.
- (b) The regularly scheduled work days will be designated as days off without pay (i.e., unpaid and not worked) for temporary employees, as specified in clause 2.03 (a).
- (c) Where an employee is scheduled and required to work on one (1) or more of these days off, they will receive straight time pay; and if they are a regular employee or a temporary employee as specified in clause 2.03 (b), they will receive an alternative day off with pay in lieu of the designated paid day off at a mutually agreeable time (no more than six (6) months later); failing mutual agreement, the Director of Operations may schedule the employee off or pay the employee for time off in lieu.
- (d) An employee on standby and/or called back during a designated day off with pay will be treated as if they were on standby or called back on a day of rest.
- (e) To be eligible for these designated days off with pay, an eligible employee must be at work (or be on approved leave with pay) on their last normal working day before these designated paid days off and their first normal working day after.
- (f) Part time Employees

If the December Closure day falls on a day when a part-time employee works or is normally scheduled to work, clause 21.8 will apply as written. If the December Closure falls on a day when a part-time employee is normally scheduled not to work, clause 21.08 will not apply to that employee.

ARTICLE 22 - ANNUAL VACATION LEAVE

22.01 Vacation Year

The vacation year is the fiscal year (April 1 through March 31).

22.02 Earned Vacation Credits

Vacation credits for a full-time regular employee will be earned on the basis of each calendar month of service as follows:

- (a) Starting with their appointment – one and two-thirds ($1 \frac{2}{3}$) work days per calendar month of service (i.e. twenty (20) work days every twelve (12) calendar months of service); and
- (b) Upon completion of one hundred and twenty (120) calendar months (10 years) of service – two and one-twelfth ($2 \frac{1}{12}$) work days per calendar month of service (i.e. twenty-five (25) work days every twelve (12) calendar months of service); and
- (c) Upon completion of two hundred and sixteen (216) calendar months (18 years) of service – two and one half ($2 \frac{1}{2}$) work days per calendar month of service (i.e. thirty (30) work days every twelve (12) calendar months of service).

An employee will continue to earn vacation credits for the first two (2) months of approved leave with pay, WCB leave, illness leave and new child leave. An employee will not earn vacation credits for any other leaves in excess of a month. Where an employee works while on part-time illness leave or returns in a rehabilitation position, either full-time or part-time, vacation credits will accrue at the appropriate level of entitlement and will be pro-rated based on the time at work.

22.03 Clause 22.02 will also apply to a part-time regular employee except that their vacation pay will be pro-rated in accordance with their actual hours worked or paid for (exclusive of overtime and call back).

22.04 Where a part-time regular employee becomes a full-time regular employee, their former part-time service will, without pro-rating, be considered full-time service for the purpose of earning future vacation credits pursuant to clause 22.02. However, vacation pay for vacation credits, if any, while they were a part-time regular employee will remain governed by clause 22.03.

22.05 Notwithstanding clause 22.10, but subject to clause 22.07, a regular employee will have the right, in any vacation year, to use all the vacation credits they have earned up to the commencement of their scheduled vacation time.

22.06 In each vacation year, a regular employee will have the right to take their vacation in one (1) unbroken period or to split their vacation subject to clause 22.07.

22.07 Vacation will be scheduled by mutual agreement between the regular employee and the Director of Operations. The Director of Operations will accommodate the employee's choice of vacation time(s), subject to operational requirements. Where operational requirements prevent two (2) or more employees from taking their vacation at the same time, their seniority will be the determinant. However, an employee who chooses to take their vacation in one (1) unbroken period will have prior claim to vacation time over an employee who chooses to split their vacation.

22.08 Where one (1) or more paid holidays fall within a regular employee's vacation, such paid holidays will not be counted as part of the employee's vacation.

22.09 Where a regular employee is ill during their vacation and produces a medical certificate, the duration of their illness will be charged against their illness entitlement and will not be counted as part of their vacation.

22.10 Where a regular employee has exhausted their illness leave entitlement, they will have the right to use their vacation credits, if any, to cover their absence due to illness.

22.11 The Director of Operations may approve a regular employee's request for carryover of not more than 2 weeks of their vacation credits to the next vacation year. However, no employee will lose any of their vacation credits under any circumstances.

22.12 Vacation credits, if any, will be paid out to a regular employee on the date of their cessation of employment with the Employer.

22.13 Temporary Employees

This Article will not apply to temporary employees. Instead, such employees will receive vacation pay at the rate of six percent (6%) of their total earnings (exclusive of overtime and callback compensation) for each pay period. For temporary employees, approved vacation leave, if any, will be without pay.

ARTICLE 23 - ILLNESS AND PROOF OF ILLNESS

23.01 The Employer and the Union jointly acknowledge their commitment to promoting wellness, encouraging the legitimate use of illness leave, and being proactive in returning employees to work.

23.02 "Illness" means illness, injury or quarantine affecting an employee, and includes any medical conditions related to or arising from pregnancy.

23.03 "Casual illness" means an illness that caused an employee to be absent from duty for a period of four (4) consecutive work days or less.

23.04 "General illness" means certified illness which causes an employee to be absent from duty for a period of more than four (4) consecutive work days.

23.05 Medical and Dental Appointments

Time off to attend medical or dental appointments requires authorization of the Director of Operations in advance and will be scheduled to least interfere with the employee's regular hours of work. Time off during scheduled hours of work will be charged against casual illness entitlement.

23.06 Illness Leave

(a) Leave of absence with pay is allowable on account of illness from the start of each fiscal year for twenty-six (26) weeks, i.e. one hundred and thirty (130) work days, per fiscal year.

- (b) Entitlement for the period from first date of hire until the first April first (1st) of employment is prorated to a calculation of eleven (11) times the number of full months of employment before April first (1st).

23.07 Reinstatement of Entitlement

Illness leave is reinstated at the beginning of each fiscal year subject to the following provisions:

- (a) When an absence on account of illness continues from one fiscal year to the next, the period of leave with pay allowable in respect of that absence is determined according to the fiscal year in which the absence commenced. The portion of such period of leave which is taken in the succeeding year does not reduce the employee's illness leave for that year.
- (b) After an employee uses all their illness leave in any one fiscal year, they are not entitled to further illness leave in the next fiscal year until they have completed ten (10) consecutive work days of service from the date of their return to work.

23.08 Illness during Annual Vacation

Should an employee provide a medical certification indicating that they were required to be under doctor's care during the course of their vacation, they will be considered to be on sick leave for the period of the illness subject to the other provisions of this Article. Vacation time not taken as a result of such illness will be taken at a mutually agreeable later date.

23.09 Proof of Illness

- (a) For any absence due to illness in excess of four (4) work days but less than twelve (12) work days, an employee will provide a medical certificate to the Director of Operations. At the employee's request to the Director of Operations, the requirement for medical certificate may be waived. The medical certificate will specify:
 - (i) that the employee was unable to attend work and perform their regular duties due to illness, and
 - (ii) the duration of illness.
- (b) For an absence due to illness of four (4) work days or less, medical certificates will not be required except where the employee has had a maximum of twelve (12) work days of uncertified absence due to illness in a fiscal year.
- (c) Medical certificates may be required for any absence due to illness immediately preceding or following a vacation period or a paid holiday.
- (d) For an absence due to illness that is known initially will be beyond ten (10) work days or when the illness continues beyond ten (10) work days, or where there is a discernible pattern of shorter duration absences as determined by the Director of Operations, the employee will be required to submit medical fitness to work information (medical documentation). Any costs associated with providing this required information will be paid by the Employer. If the employee does not return to work on the specified return date(s), further medical information will be required.

The fitness to work information will indicate:

- (i) that the employee was unable to attend work and perform their regular duties due to illness, and
 - (ii) the duration of the illness or injury, or the length of required limitations and medical restrictions, and the date the employee will be reassessed, and
 - (iii) a prognosis of recovery, or
 - (iv) the limitations and medical restrictions to be accommodated in order for the employee to attend work and perform meaningful work.
- (e) Disability management services will be provided to the Employer by a third party. The role of the disability manager is to:
- (i) receive medical documentation that the employee is required to provide under this article;
 - (ii) confirm receipt to the Employer;
 - (iii) provide the Employer with anticipated return to work date and information related to any restrictions and/or limitations that require accommodation in the workplace.

Any issues or concerns with disability management services will be referred to the Labour Management Committee for resolution.

23.10 Independent Medical Examination

- (a) When extensive efforts have been made to obtain objective medical information from the employee's treating physician(s) to no avail, the Employer may require that an employee undergo an Independent Medical Examination:
- (i) in the case of prolonged or frequent absence due to illness, or
 - (ii) when it is considered that an employee is unable to satisfactorily perform their duties due to disability or illness.

The physician will submit a report to the disability manager that speaks to the fitness to work information specified in clause 23.09(d).

Should the opinion of the treating physician and the physician performing the IME differ regarding the status of the employee's health, the dispute will be settled by a third physician. This physician will be selected by mutual agreement of the two physicians, from a list of physicians provided by the Employer, following discussion with the Union.

23.11 Absence during Pregnancy

If a medical condition, related to or arising from pregnancy, causes a pregnant employee to be away from work, they will be treated in the same fashion as any other ill employee.

If such an illness occurs during pregnancy leave, that employee is entitled to claim illness leave.

23.12 Part-time Regular Employees

For part-time regular employees, this Article will apply except that the pay for absence due to illness will be based on the employee's normally scheduled work hours.

23.13 Temporary Employees

Clause 23.06 will not apply to temporary employees. Instead, temporary employees will earn illness leave at the rate of one (1) work day for each complete month of employment, except that in the case of temporary part-time employees the entitlement will be pro-rated on the basis of their total number of hours worked or paid for (excluding overtime) per month.

23.14 This Article has application only on days on which the employee would otherwise normally be scheduled to work, except as provided in clause 23.11.

ARTICLE 24 - WORKERS' COMPENSATION SUPPLEMENT

24.01 When an employee sustains an injury in the course of their duties and is eligible for Workers' Compensation they will be paid that amount necessary to make up the difference in pay between what they receive from Workers' Compensation Board and what they would have received had they been on leave because of general illness as provided for in Article 23. Payment under this provision will be made only for that period of time during which they would have received full base pay pursuant to Article 23, but such payments will not reduce their general illness entitlement for that year.

24.02 An employee who sustains an injury while in the employ of another employer and who is eligible for Workers' Compensation will not be covered by the Workers' Compensation Supplement (clause 24.01) and General Illness (clause 23.04) provisions. Such absence will be considered authorized leave without pay.

ARTICLE 25 - SPECIAL LEAVE

25.01 This Article will have application only to days on which the employee would otherwise normally be scheduled to work.

25.02 Upon receiving authorization from the Director of Operations or designee, an employee will be granted special leave with pay for the following reasons up to the maximum time indicated.

25.03 Compassionate Leave

- (a) In the event of death of a child, step-child, sibling, spouse (including common-law spouse), parent, grandparent or the spouse of any of the above (or those of your spouse), or any person who is a dependent of the employee who lives in the employee's household – an employee, so bereaved, will be allowed leave with pay up to five (5) working days.
- (b) An employee will be allowed up to one (1) day with pay to attend the funeral of persons other than those specified above.

- (d) The Director of Operations may authorize leave under warranted conditions on the same terms as provided above in the event of a death or serious illness of persons other than those specified above.
- (e) Should an employee demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Director of Operations that during a period of vacation bereavement as described above occurred and provided the employee attended the funeral, they will be allowed compassionate leave and their vacation will be credited accordingly.

25.04 Maximum Entitlement

The maximum length specified for each circumstance requiring use of compassionate leave will not be exceeded; however, compassionate leave may be granted more than once for the same circumstances within a fiscal year, provided the total leave does not exceed ten (10) working days per fiscal year. Additional compassionate leave (clause 25.03) will be granted without pay when ten (10) days leave with pay has been utilized within a year.

25.05 Personal Leave

Employees shall be eligible for up to six (6) days with pay per fiscal year for Personal Leaves. Any unused personal days shall be carried forward for one year to a maximum of six (6) days banked. There shall be no pay out of unused personal days. Part-time employees' entitlement shall be prorated.

As of April 1, 2022, Employees shall be eligible for up to seven (7) days with pay per fiscal year for Personal Leaves. Any unused personal days shall be carried forward for one year to a maximum of seven (7) days banked. There shall be no pay out of unused personal days. 25.07 Part-time Regular Employees

A part-time regular employee will be entitled to all special leaves under this Article. However, pay for such special leaves will be prorated in accordance with their regularly scheduled hours of work relative to the daily hours of a full-time established position in the same job title.

Court Duty

- 25.08 (a) An employee who is required by law to serve jury duty or act as a witness will be paid their normal regular wage for scheduled hours and any fee received will be remitted to the Employer. This Article will not apply to any personal action where the employee is the plaintiff or defendant.
- (b) The employee will submit the document that requires them to appear as a witness or juror before receiving payment under this Article.
- (c) The employee will work during those working hours that they are not required to attend the court proceedings.

ARTICLE 33 - DISCIPLINE

- 33.01 (a) The Employer follows a progressive process of discipline. The Employer may discipline, demote, or dismiss an employee for just cause.
- (b) Discipline should be administered in a timely manner and maintain the employee's dignity and self-respect. Therefore, the Director of Operations should first meet with employees to communicate concerns about an employee's performance or conduct. Written correspondence in any form may be used as a follow-up to an in-person meeting.

33.02 Non-Disciplinary Actions

The following circumstances do not constitute disciplinary action:

(a) Coaching

When there are concerns about an employee's performance or conduct, the Director of Operations will, as part of the ongoing process of performance management, meet with the employee and make every reasonable effort to clarify expectations, address issues or provide guidance to assist the employee to correct the problem.

(b) Letter of Counselling

The Director of Operations may give an employee a letter of counseling designed to improve the employee's performance or conduct, which outlines performance expectations. The employee may provide a written rebuttal to the letter of counseling within a reasonable time. Neither the letter of counseling nor the rebuttal will be placed on the employee's Personnel File.

(c) Relief of Duty with Pay

An employee may be relieved of duty with pay during an investigation that may lead to discipline and the attendance of the employee at work would hinder the investigation.

33.03 Pre-Disciplinary

If the Director of Operations is considering disciplinary action, an investigation into the matter may be necessary to ascertain all the relevant facts prior to making any final disciplinary determination. If an employee is required to attend an investigation interview and it could potentially result in subsequent disciplinary action being taken against the employee, they will be entitled to have a Union Steward in attendance and the Employer will inform the employee of this right in writing (letter or email) at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.

33.04 An employee notified of an investigation interview or formal disciplinary meeting, and who then makes a claim under Article 23, Illness & Proof of Illness, will have no extraordinary rights under this Article.

33.05 Disciplinary Actions and Due Process

The progressive discipline process outlined below provides for increasingly serious actions to be taken by the Employer if a problem with an employee's conduct or performance is not resolved after using the appropriate non-disciplinary actions. The Employer will follow this process in sequential order, except when the particular circumstances of a case justify moving immediately to a more serious action.

(a) Disciplinary Meeting

- (i) when the Employer has made a determination that an employee will be disciplined, the employee will be notified in writing (letter or email) at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance that a meeting will be convened specifically for that purpose. The Employer shall advise the employee of their right to Union representation. If the employee declines representation, this will be recorded and signed by the employee, on the form provided by the Union.
- (ii) the Employer will hold a disciplinary meeting with the employee.
- (iii) prior to taking any disciplinary action, the Employer will discuss the proposed action with the Union Steward or a Union Representative.

(b) Written Reprimand

The employee will have the right to apply Article 35, Dispute Resolution Process, following any disciplinary action.

33.07 Notification if Employee is Unavailable for Disciplinary Meeting

If the employee is unavailable for a disciplinary meeting, the notification of discipline will be deemed received if personally delivered or mailed by prepaid registered mail. When the notice is mailed, it will be deemed received within five (5) days of the date of mailing.

33.08 Employee Personnel File

No document will be held on the employee's personnel file unless the employee has been provided a copy. By request, an employee will be entitled to examine the contents of their Personnel File during regular hours of work. Adverse reports and disciplinary actions more than one (1) year old will be cleared from the employee's Personnel File if no further adverse reports or disciplinary actions have been submitted. The Employer will not use any document that is not on an employee's personnel file in any action against an employee.

ARTICLE 34 - POSITION ABANDONMENT

34.01 Abandonment of Position

An employee who absents themselves from their employment without permission and who has not informed the Director of Operations will, after three (3) consecutive work days of such unauthorized absence, be considered to have abandoned their position and will be deemed to have resigned, unless it is subsequently demonstrated by the employee that circumstances beyond their control prevented them from reporting to their place of work and from contacting the Director of Operations.

ARTICLE 35 - DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCESS

35.01 General Principles

(a) Recognition

The Employer and the Union will work together to foster a collegial and productive workplace. Working together requires a commitment to frequent and open communications and joint problem solving on matters affecting the Collective Agreement and/or the Union-Employer relationship.

The purpose of the dispute resolution process is to resolve problems, complaints and grievances between the Union and the Employer at the lowest possible level, in a timely and effective fashion, and to maintain harmonious working relations.

Both parties recognize their collective duties and responsibilities in these matters.

(b) Disclosure

The parties will disclose all information/documentation concerning the difference at the earliest possible opportunity.

(c) Employee's Right to Representation

An employee's right to representation by the Union is recognized and will not be bypassed in this dispute resolution process.

(d) Grievances regarding Harassment, Discrimination, or Termination shall begin at Step 2 and Step 1 shall be waived.

35.02 Step 1 – Problem Solving Procedure

When problems arise they will be addressed in a timely fashion to restore a harmonious workplace. Within ten (10) work days of becoming aware of the existence of a problem, employee(s) will first advise the Director of Operations of the existence of the problem. The employee(s) and the Director of Operations will make every possible effort to problem solve the matter by informal discussion. The Director of Operations will communicate a decision within five (5) working days of presentation of the problem.

35.03 Step 2 – Grievance Resolution Procedure

If the decision of the Director of Operations at Step 1 is not satisfactory to the employee(s) then the grievance will be forwarded to the Executive Board by submission to the President of NASA with a copy to the Director of Operations. The employee(s) will present the grievance in writing and will include:

- (i) the date of the grievance;
- (ii) the nature, type and details of the grievance;

- (iii) where applicable, the name(s) of the grievor(s);
- (iv) the remedy sought;
- (v) the article, paragraph or paragraph(s) of the agreement allegedly violated or the alleged occurrence said to have caused such grievance;
- (vi) signature(s) of the employee(s) and a representative of the Union.

The grievance will be submitted within ten (10) work days of the decision of the Director of Operations in Step 1.

The President will call a meeting of the Executive Board for the purpose of hearing the presentation of the grievance. The employee(s) and an official representative of the Union will attend the meeting to present the grievance to the Executive Board. The Director of Operations may be present to explain their view of the matter. The meeting will be held within ten (10) work days of receipt of the grievance.

A decision of the Executive Board will be provided, in writing, within ten (10) work days of the meeting.

35.04 Step 3 – Grievance Arbitration

(i) Individual Grievance

An individual grievance will be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, operation, administration or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement, and including any dispute as to whether the difference is arbitrable and affecting an individual employee.

(ii) Policy Grievance

A policy grievance will be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, operation, administration, or any contravention or alleged contravention of this Agreement, and affecting either party and/or more than one employee.

If the response at Step 2 above is not satisfactory the aggrieved party may, within twenty (20) work days refer the matter to an arbitration process.

If such referral is made, the aggrieved party will submit it in writing addressed to the other party and at the same time state their nominee. Within fifteen (15) work days thereafter, the other party shall reply in writing and shall nominate its member to the Arbitration Board. The two (2) nominees to the Arbitration Board shall attempt to agree upon the Arbitration Board's Chairperson within fifteen (15) work days of the last nominee's appointment. In the event either party fails to appoint a nominee within the time permitted by this Article, or the nominees fail to appoint a Chairperson within the time permitted by this Article, then either party may apply to the Director of Mediation Services, Alberta Labour, to appoint a nominee or Chairperson, as the case may be.

Time limits in this Article may be extended, but only by mutual agreement in writing.

If both parties agree in advance, any grievance may be referred to a single arbitrator for resolution in lieu of a three (3) member Arbitration Board.

No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

The Arbitration Board will not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this Agreement. The jurisdiction of the Arbitration Board will be confined to the issue in dispute. The decision will be unanimous or one reached by a majority of the members of the Arbitration Board; provided, however, that if there is no majority decision of the Arbitration Board then the decision of the Chair will constitute the final binding decision of the Board.

The Board so selected will determine any question of arbitrability or jurisdiction. In the event that the Arbitration Board deals with a matter relating to termination, then the Board has the authority to reinstate an employee with or without compensation for wages and any other benefits lost, or to make any other award it may deem just and reasonable which would be consistent with the terms of the Agreement.

Each of the parties hereto will bear the expense of their nominee and the parties will jointly bear the expense, if any, of the Arbitration Board Chair.

The party initiating arbitration will be responsible for informing any third party likely to be adversely affected:

- (i) of the time and place of the sitting of the Arbitration Board;
