PEACE RIVER SCHOOL DIVISION
Peace River, Alberta
(hereinafter called the "Employer")

PARTY OF THE FIRST PART

- and -

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
LOCAL NO. 4839
Peace River, Alberta
(hereinafter called the "Union")

PARTY OF THE SECOND PART

ARTICLE 1 – TERM

1.1 Effective Date

This agreement will be binding and remain in effect from date of ratification to August 31, 2024 and will continue from year to year thereafter unless either party gives to the other party notice in writing, not earlier than one hundred and twenty (120) days and not later than sixty (60) days prior to the thirty-first (31st) of August in any year that it desires its termination or amendment.

1.2 The parties will meet within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice to bargain to exchange proposals.

1.3 Change in Agreement

Any change deemed necessary in the agreement may be made by mutual agreement at any time during the existence of the agreement.

1.4 Retroactivity

An Employee who was employed within the bargaining unit between June 1, 2023, and the date of ratification by both parties and has subsequently left the employment of the Employer will be eligible to receive any applicable retroactive pay if the individual applies in writing to the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of ratification.

1.5 Continuation

When notice to commence collective bargaining has been served pursuant to Article 1.1, this agreement will be deemed to continue to apply to the parties notwithstanding the termination date in the agreement, until:

- (i) a new Collective Agreement is concluded;
- (ii) the right of the bargaining agent to represent the Employees is terminated, or;
- (iii) a strike or lockout commences under the provisions of the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION RECOGNITION

- 2.1 The Employer recognizes the Canadian Union of Public Employees Local 4839 as the sole Bargaining agent for the Employees, covered by the agreement, as described in the Certificate of the Alberta Relations Board No. C1966-2021. The Employer hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union or any of its authorized committees concerning all matters affecting this agreement, looking towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them.
- 2.2 Union business will not take place during Employees working hours and/or any of the Employers premises without prior permission by the Employer.
- 2.3 There will be no discrimination or coercion by the Employer or the Union as to whether an Employee is, or is not, actively involved in the Union.
- 2.4 It is the responsibility of each Employee to at all times be familiar with the terms and conditions of employment as addressed in this Collective Agreement.
- 2.5 No Employee will be required or permitted to make a written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representative which may conflict with the terms of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.1 The Union acknowledges that it will be the exclusive right of the Employer to operate and manage the business in all respects, unless otherwise provided by this Collective Agreement. The Employer reserves all rights not specifically restricted or limited by the provisions of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 – DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

- 4.1 The Employer and the Union are jointly committed to fostering positive working relationships and managing conflict in the workplace.
- 4.2 The Employer and the Union agree to ensure compliance with the Human Rights Act of Alberta and that no Employee will be discriminated against by any person in accordance with this legislation.
- 4.3 All Employees covered by this agreement have a right to freedom from harassment in the workplace. The Employer agrees to maintain a harassment free policy for addressing and resolving harassment issues in the workplace. All related matters will be administered in accordance with Policy 19 – Welcome, Caring and Safe Learning Environment and Admin Procedure 170 – Discrimination and Harassment.
- 4.4 The Employer or the Union will not discriminate at any time against any Employee on the protected grounds of race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religious beliefs, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, physical disability, mental disability, marital status, family status, source of income, and sexual orientation not by any reason of their membership or activity in the Union or because of their connection with trade Union organizations.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION MEMBERSHIP / UNION DUES

- 5.1 All Employees covered by this agreement will be required to pay Union dues, a monthly fee equal to any monthly dues in accordance with the Union bylaws.
- 5.2 Deductions will be made from each payroll and will be forwarded by direct deposit to CUPE National no later than the fifteenth (15th) day following the deduction.
- 5.3 The Employer will provide the Union with a copy of the monthly check-off list.
- 5.4 The Union will advise the Employer in writing of any change in the amounts of dues to be collected by the Union from the Employees covered by this agreement. Such notice will be communicated to the Employer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the change.
- 5.5 The Employer, as directed by the Union in writing, will deduct the amount of the Union dues from the pay of all Employees covered by this agreement. The deductions remitted will be accompanied by particulars identifying each Employee by name and classification and if a new Employee, showing starting date of employment. On October 31st and March 31st, the Employer will provide the Union with an updated list of names, addresses and phone numbers of all members of the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 6 – DEFINITIONS

- 13.1 Each regular Employee will receive one day's pay for each of the following General Holidays: New Year's Day, Family Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day, Canada Day, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, Remembrance Day and Christmas Day.
- 13.2 Other holidays with pay, may be granted at the discretion of the Employer from time to time.

ARTICLE 14 – PAID VACATION & VACATION PAY

14.1 Twelve-month Employees

14.1.1 Employees are entitled to take vacation as it is earned.

14.1.2 For all Employees working on a twelve (12) month basis, the length of vacation will be as follows:

1 year continuous employment	2 weeks
2-7 years continuous employment	3 weeks
8-15 years continuous employment	4 weeks
16-25 years continuous employment	5 weeks
26+ years continuous employment	6 weeks

14.1.3 A leave of absence without pay and benefits, greater than thirty (30) calendar days, will not interrupt continuous employment status. However, the leave will not be counted as time worked for vacation purposes.

14.1.4 All paid vacation leave must be taken within the twelve (12) month period in which it is earned. Unless approved in writing by the Secretary-Treasurer or designate.

14.1.5 Although an attempt will be made to accommodate Employees' wishes as to when they want their vacation, it remains the Employer's right to schedule vacations to suit the operational needs of the Division.

14.2 Other Employees

14.2.1 Vacation pay in lieu of vacation will be paid monthly.

14.2.2 Employees who terminate employment will receive any vacation pay entitlement due at the time of termination.

14.2.3 Excepting twelve (12) month Employees, all Employees will receive vacation pay in lieu of vacation at the following rate:

0-1 year continuous employment	4% gross salary
2-7 years continuous employment	6% gross salary
8-15 years continuous employment	8% gross salary
16-25 years continuous employment	10% gross salary
26+ years continuous employment	12% gross salary

14.2.4 Continuous employment is not affected by the length of the workday or the hours worked per week.

14.2.4 Excepting twelve (12) month Employees, all Employees' vacation periods will be scheduled to coincide with non-operational days.

ARTICLE 15 – LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- 15.1 Leave of Absence without pay and benefits may be granted at the discretion of the Employer. Leaves of absence in excess of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days will not be counted as time worked for salary incremental purposes. There will be no accrual of sick leave or vacation in leaves of absence in excess of thirty (30) consecutive calendar days.
- 15.2 Deduction from salary for unpaid leaves of absence of up to fifteen (15) consecutive days will be as follows: Employees will have their scheduled earnings deducted at their daily hours rate for days missed.
- 15.3 Maternity/Parental and Adoption Leave
- 15.3.1 Maternity leave will be for a period of up to sixteen (16) weeks. In addition to maternity leave, a parent may take an additional sixty-two (62) weeks for parental leave pursuant to Alberta Employment Standards. If the mother takes the parental leave, this leave will occur in a contiguous fashion with the maternity leave. New Alberta Employment Standards regulation take this to sixty-two (62) weeks within seventy-eight (78) weeks of the birth.
- 15.3.2 The health-related portion of each Employee's maternity leave will be as determined by medical documentation with such leave beginning the day the Employee begins the leave regardless of whether this date is the date of delivery or several weeks in advance of the delivery date but in no instance will this date be more than twelve (12) weeks in advance of the delivery date.
- 15.3.3 The Employer will register and implement a ninety-five percent (95%) Supplementary Unemployment Benefits (S.U.B.) plan which each Employee will access for pay during the health-related portion of her maternity leave. The Employer will pay its portion of each Employee's benefit plan premiums during the health-related portion of her maternity leave. The remainder of the maternity leave not covered by the health-related portion will be without pay and benefits. S.U.B. will be payable for a maximum of seventeen (17) weeks or for the period covered by accumulated sick leave, whichever is less. The Employer will advise each Employee to apply for Extended Disability Benefits (E.D.B.) at least thirty (30) days in advance of her expected eligibility for such benefit. After ninety (90) consecutive calendar days of illness the Employee will apply for E.D.B. benefits and no further salary, benefit contributions, or S.U.B. will be payable.
- 15.3.4 Each Employee will endeavor to notify the Employer, in writing, of her leave requirements three (3) months in advance, however, she will give the Employer at least two (2) weeks notice of the day on which she intends to commence maternity leave. In each case maternity leave must commence at least two (2) weeks in advance of the expected date of delivery. Such notice will be in writing.

15.3.5 Prior to the leave commencing, each Employee will endeavor to provide the Employer with the date she plans on returning to work, however, she give the Employer, in writing, at least four (4) calendar weeks notice of the day on which she intends to work. Such notice will be in writing.

15.3.6 An Employee returning from maternity leave may be required to pass a medical examination before returning to duty.

15.3.7 An Employee may be required to submit medical certificates in order to receive the S.U.B.

15.4 Leave to Attend Union Business

15.4.1 If an accredited representative of the Union is required to meet with the Employer or attend hearing to discuss a grievance during work hours, the Employee will be granted leave with pay and benefits subject to suitable arrangements with their immediate supervisor.

15.4.2 If the Employee who is grieving is required to attend an initial grievance meeting, the Employee will be granted leave with pay and benefits at their regular rate of pay.

15.5 Union Leave

15.5.1 Subject to operational requirements, leave of absence without pay and without the loss of seniority will be granted upon request, to Employees elected or appointed to represent the Union at Union functions. The Employer will, however, pay the above Employees their regular pay as though they had worked, billing the Union for time lost and any other deductible benefits during the leave of absence.

15.5.2 In the event that an Employee is elected or appointed to the bargaining committee for the Union, the Employee will be granted leave at their regular rate of pay and benefits for the purpose of attending joint collective bargaining, reconciliation or mediation meetings in the establishment of a new Collective Agreement. The Union will reimburse the Employer for all pay and benefits during the period of absence.

15.5.3 An Employee who is elected to attend a Union convention, conference, school, or to attend any other Union function or meeting of the Union, its affiliated or chartered bodies, or any other labour organization with which the Union is affiliated, will be granted leave of absence with pay and benefits. The Union will reimburse the Employer for all pay and benefits during the period of absence.

15.6 Jury Duty Leave

Employees who are subpoenaed to serve as jurors or witnesses in any Canadian court, provided such court action is not occasioned by the Employee's private affairs, will be granted leave of absence without loss of pay equal to the length of the court duty. An Employee in receipt of their regular earnings while serving at a court, will remit to the Employer all monies paid to the Employee by the court, except travelling and meal allowance not reimbursed by the Employer. Employees will come to work during those regularly scheduled hours that they are not required to attend court.

15.7 Job Protected Leaves

Eligible Employees can take other job protected leaves for various personal matters as outlined under as per Alberta Employment Standards <https://www.alberta.ca/job-protected-leaves.aspx>.

- Personal and family responsibility leave
- Citizenship ceremony leave
- Bereavement leave
- Long-term illness and injury leave

ARTICLE 16 – SICK LEAVE PROVISIONS

16.1 Sick leave will be granted to an Employee for the purpose of obtaining necessary medical or dental treatment or because of accident, sickness or disability. Sick leave with pay will be granted to a maximum of that Employee's accumulated sick leave at the beginning of the school year plus the Employee's unused entitlement for the current school year. Once the sick leave entitlement has been fully used, no further salary or benefits will be paid by the Employer.

- 16.2 Unused sick leave of all Employees will accumulate at the completion of each complete year of service with the Employer to the credit of the Employee to a maximum of sixty (60) working days.
- 16.2.1 Family Illness - Employees will be allowed to use four (4) of their accumulated sick days per school year for family dependant illness and appointments.
- 16.2.2 Personal Leave Days – Employees will be allowed to use two (2) of their accumulated sick days per school year for personal leave.
- 16.2.3 Effective September 1, 2019 Employees will be allowed to use three (3) of their accumulated sick days per school year for personal leave.
- 16.3 Deduction from salary for unpaid leaves of absences of up to fifteen (15) consecutive days will be as follows: Employees will have their scheduled hours deducted at their hourly rate for days missed.
- 16.4 Sick leave will be earned on the basis of two (2) days per month of employment excluding probationary periods.
- 16.5 An Employee who is absent from duties to obtain necessary medical or dental treatment or because of accident disability or sickness for a period of more than three (3) consecutive working days may be required to present a medical certificate satisfactory to the Employer, before returning to duty. If a medical certificate is requested by the Employer, the Employer will reimburse the Employee for any related costs invoiced by the Doctor.

When an Employee leaves the employment of the Employer voluntarily, accumulated sick leave is cancelled immediately.

ARTICLE 17 – SCHOOL CLOSURE

- 17.1 Notwithstanding the above Article 16, in the event of a system wide shut down, school closure shutdown an Employee's salary will not be reduced for the first five (5) consecutive working days that the school is not in operation, after five (5) consecutive working days the Employee's salary will be reduced by one (1) working day for each day the school is not in operation.

ARTICLE 18 – BENEFITS

Group Benefits

- 18.1 If the Employee commences on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the month, benefits become effective the first (1st) day of the third (3rd) month following the date of employment.
- 18.2 If the Employee commences on or after the sixteenth (16th) day of the month, benefits will be effective the first (1st) day of the fourth (4th) month following the date of employment.
- 18.3 The Employer will continue to make the contributions during July and August of each year.
- 18.4 The Employer will provide to all eligible Employees within this bargaining unit the following Benefit plan:

26+years	$850.00 annually

ARTICLE 23 – SUPPLEMENTARY UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS (S.U.B.) PLAN

23.1 The Employer will provide for Employees under Schedule 2 and 3 a ninety-five percent (95%) Supplementary Unemployment Benefits (S.U.B.) Plan which each Employee will apply for and, if eligible, access during the period(s) of apprenticeship training. The Employer will pay its portion of each Employee's benefit plan premiums during the apprenticeship. S.U.B. will be payable for the period during which an Employee is away from normal duties during the apprenticeship training, including the EI waiting period. Each Employee accessing this benefit plan does so with the understanding that they are committing to provide to the Employer twelve (12) consecutive months of service for each term of apprenticeship program and are liable for reimbursement to the Employer funds provided under the plan in proportion to any shortfall in service commitment.

ARTICLE 24 – TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

24.1 Any Employee who will hold a temporary position of more than three (3) months, the Employer will provide the following for the period they are in a temporary position:

- Article 16 – Sick Leave
- Article 18 – Health Benefits, if eligible
- Article 18 – Health Spending
- Article 19 – RRSP

ARTICLE 25 – PROMOTIONS & PLACEMENT PROCEDURE

- 25.1 When the Employer decides to post a permanent position they may post externally and internally, and the following hiring order will be followed:
- 25.1.1 Employees who are members of the bargaining unit, who have the evaluated ability, required qualifications and training will be given first consideration. An external candidate would only be hired if they possess specialized required skills which the internal candidate does not possess.
 - 25.1.2 Where two (2) Employees, in the bargaining unit, who have evaluated ability, required qualifications and training to be relatively equal, seniority will be the deciding factor.
- 25.2 The Employer will post vacant or newly created positions for five (5) consecutive working days. All postings will include a note on the bottom recognizing the position as a Union position. Notwithstanding, in the interest of reassigning or promoting staff within a site, the Employer may increase a Schedule I Employee's FTE, within or between classifications, without posting provided the additional FTE is less than point five (0.50) FTE.
- 25.3 Where more than one Employee at a site is interested in increasing their FTE through this provision and the Employer has evaluated their ability, required qualifications and training to be relatively equal, the senior Employee will be assigned the additional FTE.
- 25.4 Simultaneous to media advertising, a notice of intention to fill any job position be it regular or temporary, in any position defined under Article 2.2, of the agreement, will be posted on staff bulletin boards during the school year and a copy of the posting will be sent to the Recording Secretary of the Union.
- 25.5 When an Employee achieves a position in a classification within the Salary Schedule, with the same end rate as their present classification, such Employee will move to the pay step which is equal to their present basic rate of pay, or if there is no such pay step, they will move to the pay step that is higher than and closest to their current basic rate of pay or to the maximum rate for the classification, whichever is less.
- 25.6 When an Employee achieves a position in a classification within the Salary Schedule, with a higher end rate as their present classification, such Employee will move to the same pay step in the new pay range. Where the new pay step in the new pay range is less than their present basic rate of pay, they will advance to the pay step in the new pay range that is closest to their current rate of pay and provides an increase.
- 25.7 When an Employee achieves a position in a classification with the Salary Schedule, having lower end rate than their current classification, they will maintain their current rate of pay for a period of six (6) months.

25.8 Trial Period

- 25.8.1 Promoted Employees will be on a trial period of sixty (60) days worked. Should the Employee be unsatisfactory in the new position firstly, they will revert to their former or similar position and wage rate. Where the Employee's former position no longer exists, the Employee will be reverted to a similar position at that site or within the town limits, subsequently, then wherever possible in the division.
- 25.8.2 In promotion of Employees where the Employer has evaluated ability, required qualifications and training to be relatively equal, the senior applicant will be awarded the position.

ARTICLE 26 – SENIORITY

- 26.1 Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service in the permanent employ of the Employer from the last date of hire, as a permanent Employee.
- 26.2 Seniority will be used as a factor in determining promotions, transfers, demotions, lay-offs and recall.
- 26.3 The Employer will maintain a seniority list showing the last date of hire of all Employees and ranked in order of their hire date.
- 26.4 An up-to-date Seniority list will be sent to the Union in September of each year.
- 26.5 Upon successful completion of the probationary period, a permanent Employee will be credited with Seniority back to the commencement of the probationary period.
- 26.6 Any protest for Seniority must be received within thirty (30) calendar days of the Union receiving the list. Thereafter the date will be considered as being established.
- 26.7 Employees will only lose their seniority in the event:
- 26.7.1 they are discharged for just cause and were not reinstated.
 - 26.7.2 they resign in writing.
 - 26.7.3 they are laid off for a period greater than twelve (12) consecutive months.
- 26.8 Employees will retain but not accrue seniority if they are absent from work for a period of greater than eighteen (18) consecutive months on a WCB or LTD claim.

ARTICLE 27 – LAY-OFF AND RECALL

- 27.1 A layoff will be defined as a separation from a permanent or seasonal position due to lack of work.
- 27.2 Employees may be placed on lay-off with seventy-two (72) hours notice in the event of a labour dispute between the Employer and its school Employees represented by another bargaining agent.
- 27.3 In the event of a lay-off, where ability, qualifications and training are, as determined by the Employer relatively equal within a classification, the Employee with the least seniority in the school or within the appropriate department will be the first laid off.
- 27.4 In the event of a recall, where ability, qualifications and training are, as determined by the Employer relatively equal, the Employee with the most seniority in the school or within the appropriate department will be the first recalled.
- 27.5 Employees who are laid off will retain their accumulated sick leave for one hundred and twenty (120) working days following layoff. If not recalled within this period accumulated sick leave will be cancelled.
- 27.6 Recall rights will be discontinued twelve (12) months following the effective date of layoff with no further employment commitments or obligations.

ARTICLE 28 – DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- 28.1 An Employee will, have the right to request Union representation at any time when involved in a discussion with the Employer under this article.
- 28.2 The Employer agrees to consider this process in the spirit of cooperation and correction, rather than in the spirit of punishment, and will endeavor to assist the Employee in improving their work file.
- 28.3 The Employer will only discipline or discharge for just cause. Both parties recognize the value of progressive discipline.
- 28.4 Unsatisfactory conduct and/or performance by an Employee may be grounds for discipline up to and including dismissal. Unsatisfactory conduct and/or performance by an Employee, which is not considered by the Employer to be serious enough to warrant suspension or dismissal, may result in a verbal or written warning to the Employee.
- 28.5 Where, circumstances permit, the Employer will schedule a disciplinary discussion with the Employee by giving them reasonable advanced notice which will not be less than twenty-four (24) hours. At such discussion, an Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Union. Should a Union representative be unavailable, the Employer will not be prevented from taking disciplinary action.

- 28.6 Discipline documentation will provide the specifics of the issue(s) that gave rise to the disciplinary action and will provide direction regarding work performance expectations and timeline for improvement, as well as indicating that further discipline or dismissal may follow any similar or other infractions. A copy of the discipline documentation will be placed on the Employee's personnel file. A copy of the discipline documentation will be forwarded to the President of the Union.
- 28.7 An Employee who has been subjected to disciplinary action may after twelve (12) months of continuous service from the date the disciplinary measure was invoked, request in writing to have their personnel file cleared of any record of the disciplinary action. Such request will be granted provided the Employee's file does not contain a related record of disciplinary action during the twelve (12) month period. The Employer will confirm in writing to the Employee that such action has been affected.

28.8 Documentation

It is also agreed that in cases of discipline, in subsequent proceedings or arbitration hearings, evidence will be limited to the grounds stated in the investigation, written discharge or discipline notice to the Employee and the Union.

- 28.8.1 If the Employee concerned wishes to respond, they may do so in writing and such response will become part of the documentation. At the Employee's request, a copy of their response will be forwarded to the Union.

ARTICLE 29 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 29.1 The purpose of this Grievance procedure is to ensure the Grievance is processed in an expeditious manner.
- 29.1.1 The parties agree that the time limits set forth in this article will be mandatory unless the parties mutually agree to extend timelines in writing exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, named holidays and non-instructional days (any day students are not scheduled to be in school).
- 29.1.2 If the Employer fails to comply with the time limits the grievance may be processed to the next step. If the Union fails to comply with the time limits the grievance will be considered abandoned.
- 29.1.3 At any time during this process, an Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Union.
- 29.1.4 Any time limits contained in this article may be extended by the mutual consent, in writing, of the parties.

29.2 Policy Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs or where the Union has a grievance, the informal discussion may be bypassed.

29.3 Termination Grievance

Where a dispute involving termination occurs, the informal discussion may be bypassed.

In the event that a dispute occurs between the Employer and the Union regarding the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the agreement the following procedure will be followed:

29.3.1 Informal Discussion

Such grievance will first be discussed by the grievor or the Union within ten (10) consecutive working days from the date of the incident giving rise to the grievance, or from the date the grievor should have been reasonably aware of the incident, whichever is later, with their supervisor, with the objective of resolving the matter informally. Where the parties have met under this provision, the Employer or designate will communicate its response to the grievor and the Union within ten (10) working days of their meeting.

29.3.2 Step 1

If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance after the informal discussion or if no decision has been rendered within then (10) consecutive working days of raising the matter with their Supervisor, the Union may file a grievance in writing to the Manager or designate. Such submission will set out the name of the grievor(s), particulars regarding the nature of the grievance, the articles of this agreement, which is alleged to have been violated, and the remedy sought. The grievor and/or the Union will be offered the opportunity to present their concerns to the Manager of their department in a face-to-face hearing.

29.3.3 Step 2

In the event the grievance is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Union within ten (10) consecutive working days following receipt of the Step 1 response, the Union may, by written notice, advance the grievance to the Secretary-Treasurer or designate. Such submission will set out the name of the grievor(s), particulars regarding the nature of the grievance, the articles of this agreement, which is alleged to have been violated and the remedy sought. The Union will be offered the opportunity to present their concerns to the Secretary-Treasurer or designate in a face-to-face hearing.

29.4 Grievance Mediation

The Employer and the Union agree to consider "Grievance Mediation" as an alternative disputes resolution process for those issues that have been or may be referred to an Arbitrator. Grievance Mediation will be entered into by mutual consent in writing and further, unless mutually agreed otherwise in writing, the results of such mediation are not binding, nor do they preclude continuing with the arbitration process. Selection of a Mediator will be completed by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Each party to the grievance mediation will bear in equal proportions the expense of the Mediator.

29.5 Arbitration

In the event the grievance is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Union, within ten (10) consecutive working days following receipt of the Step 2 response, the Union on behalf of the grievor may by written notice require moving to arbitration.

- 29.5.1 Such notice must be given to the Secretary-Treasurer or designate within ten (10) consecutive working days after the Step 2 response.
- 29.5.2 The grievance may be referred to a single Arbitrator within fifteen (15) working days as per the Alberta Labour Relations Code. In the event of failure to agree on the appointment of an Arbitrator, any party may request the Director of Mediation Services make the necessary appointments.
- 29.5.3 The Arbitrator will hear and determine the grievance and will issue an award in writing.
- 29.5.4 Such award will be final and binding upon the parties and any Employee affected by it.
- 29.5.5 The Arbitrator by their decision will not alter, amend or change the terms of this agreement.
- 29.5.6 Each party to the grievance will bear in equal proportions the expense of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 30 – SUBROGATION CLAUSE

30.1 Definitions (for the purposes of this article only):

- 30.1.1 Cost of Absence means the total remuneration paid by the Employer during a period when the Employee was absent from work.
- 30.1.2 Interest means interest calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Alberta Judgement Interest Act, SA 1984, c.J-0.5, and amendments and regulations thereto.

- 30.1.3 Judgment or Settlement means an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an agreement whereby the Employee agrees to accept any sum of money representing past or future loss of remuneration, either by lump sum, periodic payment(s), or through the purchase of an annuity, or any of them.
- 30.1.4 Remuneration means the salary, allowances, benefit premiums, and other monies paid to or in respect of the Employee by the Employer.
- 30.1.5 Employee means an Employee in respect of whom the Employer has incurred a Cost of Absence, and includes the Employee's Personal Representative, Trustee, Guardian or the Estate of the deceased Employee.
- 30.2 In the event that the Employer incurs a Cost of Absence as a result of an act or omission of a third party, the Employer is subrogated to any right or recovery of the Employee from the third party in the amount of the Cost of Absence and without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the following provisions apply:
- 30.2.1 The Employee will advise the Employer in advance of the Employee's intention to initiate any claim in which an act or omission of a third party has resulted in the Employer incurring a Cost of Absence;
- 30.2.2 The Employee will upon request by the Employer include the Cost of Absence, as calculated by the Employer, in the Employee's claim;
- 30.2.3 The Employer will have the right (but not the obligation) to maintain an action in the name of the Employee and engage a solicitor (including the Employee's solicitor) to recover the Cost of Absence;
- 30.2.4 The Employee agrees to cooperate with the Employer and to provide, at the Employer's expense, all loss of income records, transcripts, loss of income reports and information with respect to the calculation or allocation of damages, and attend examinations for discovery or assist as a witness where required;
- 30.2.5 The Employee will not settle their claim without the prior written consent of the Employer as to the amount of the Cost of Absence to be recovered by the Employer;
- 30.2.6 Upon resolution of the amount of the Cost of Absence payable to the Employer, the Employer may, upon default of payment by the Employee following demand by the Employer offset the agreed upon amount of the Cost of Absence payable to the Employee by the Employer.
- 30.2.7 The Employee will not release any third party from the Cost of Absence without the consent of the Employer; and
- 30.2.8 The Employer's consent to settlement will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 30.3 When as a result of Judgement or Settlement with the consent of the Employer, the Employee recovers a sum equal to all of the Cost of Absence, the Employee will, as of the date of Settlement or Judgement, pay the full Cost of Absence recovered to the Employer plus interest, less a proportionate share of legal fees payable thereon by the Employee to their solicitor with respect to such recovery.
- 30.4 When as a result of Judgement or Settlement with the consent of the Employer, the Employee recovers a sum equal to a portion of the Cost of Absence, the Employee will as of the date of Settlement or Judgment, pay to the Employer, the amount of the Cost of Absence recovered plus interest, less a proportionate share of legal fees payable thereon by the Employee to their solicitor with respect to such recovery.
- 30.5 The Employee will upon request by the Employer execute such documents and agreements as may be required or deemed desirable by the Employer to give effect to the provision of this article.
- 30.6 In exercising any of its rights under this clause, the Employer will have due regard for the interests of the Employee.
- 30.7 When as a result of Judgment or Settlement with the consent of the Employer, the Employee recovers a sum equal to all of, or a portion of the Cost of Absence, and where the Employee has paid to the Employer the Cost of Absence (whether all or a portion), the Employer will reinstate to the Employee the number of sick days used during the absence in an amount equivalent to the proportion of the Cost of Absence recovered (whether all or a portion).

ARTICLE 31 – FULL TIME EQUIVALENCY

- 31.1 All salaries, allowances, terms and benefits, unless otherwise provided for in this agreement, will be prorated for each staff member subject to this agreement on the basis of their full-time equivalency (FTE). The FTE represents the proportion of time a part-time Employee is regularly scheduled to work in relation to full-time service.

ARTICLE 32 – SALARY SCHEDULE REFERENCE

32.1 Salary Increments

Employees are entitled to only one salary increment per classification in each employment year.

32.2 Full-Time Employees

For School Based Employees, salary increment date will be as follows:

- 32.2.1 If an Employee commences on or before the fifteenth (15th) of the month, the salary anniversary date will be the beginning of the month.
- 32.2.2 If an Employee commences on or after the sixteenth (16th) of the month, the salary anniversary date will be the beginning of the following month.

32.3 Part-time Employees

- 32.3.1 For School based Employees, Part-time Employees accrue twelve hundred and sixty (1260) scheduled worked hours regardless of classification to achieve a salary increment to a maximum obtained on the salary schedule the increment will be effective the following month. Limit of one adjustment per school year.
- 32.3.2 Part-time Employees will receive their General Holiday and Vacation Pay on each paycheque.

32.4 Movement from Full to Part-Time

If a full-time Employee transfers to part-time status, the hours accrued to the commencement date of the part-time position will be used toward the hours required for salary increment purposes.

32.5 Movement from Part-Time to Full-Time

If a part-time Employee transfers to full-time status, the hours accrued to the commencement date of the part-time position will be used toward the hours required for salary increment purposes and an anniversary date will be established.

- 32.6 When an Employee retires and becomes a casual/sub, they will maintain the rate of pay they had when they retired.

Re: Flex Time and Modified Work Week Agreement

The parties agree to renew this letter of understanding with the changes identified below:

1. Notwithstanding Article 12 – Overtime and Time Off in Lieu, of the Local 4839 Support Staff Agreement additional hours worked over eight (8) hours per day or forty (40) hours per week may be used for flex time or a modified work schedule.
2. This must be mutually agreed upon by both the Employee and Supervisor. Where an agreement cannot be reached the Employee's work schedule defaults to the regular work week.
3. Additional hours worked to qualify for flex time or a modified work week agreement are not subject to the one point five (1.5) times calculation and will be used up as straight lieu time or may be paid out. Arrangements for use of the accrued additional hours either on a determined date or on a regularly scheduled time-off during the work week must be agreed upon by both the Employee and Supervisor.
4. If the additional hours worked to qualify for flex time or a modified work schedule are paid out, the additional hours will be paid out at the rate accrued. All accrued additional hours unused as of September 1 of every school year will be paid out
5. At the time additional hours are approved, the Employee and Employer must agree if the additional hours are to accrue at the overtime rate of one point five (1.5) or as straight lieu time (to be used as flex time or a modified work week). Employee's timesheets (signed by both Supervisor and Employee) will specify which hours worked are accruing at the overtime rate and which are straight time. Where it is indicated on the timesheets that additional hours worked are accrued at one point five (1.5) times as outlined under Article 12– Overtime and Time Off in Lieu, the indicated additional hours are subject to the qualifications and provisions under Article 12 – Overtime and Time Off in Lieu.
6. Letter of Understanding terminates on last day of the Collective Agreement to which this Letter of Understanding is attached.

Re: Job Evaluation

The Board is prepared to work collaboratively with CUPE regarding inequities of job classification and wages upon completion and implementation of any changes as defined by the Site Based Decision Making review. A Joint Committee called Labour Management Advisory Committee will be created.

The Joint Committee will have equal representation from the Employer and the Union. The Union will reimburse the Employer for all pay and benefits for Employee's participation in this committee.

The Employer will compile job descriptions based on the model defined by the Site Based Decision Making review by September 1, 2016. Following this time frame, these job descriptions will be shared with the committee for review. CUPE can bring forward any issues they see as inequities in these job descriptions to the committee for discussion.

The committee will have until June 30, 2017 to complete an assessment of all job descriptions presented to the committee.

Re: Transfer of Seniority from Accumulated Hours to Date of Hire

The parties agree to move from accumulation of hours worked as the method of calculating Seniority to Date of Hire as defined below. The parties agree that both parties need time to ensure implementation of the new method is accurate and the following process will be followed.

The Employer will compile a Seniority List based on the following:

Seniority is defined as the length of continuous service in the permanent employ of the Employer from the last date of hire, as a permanent Employee.

This compilation will be completed by October 15th every year and be presented to the Union for review.

Any amendment requests for Seniority must be received within sixty (60) calendar days of the Union receiving the list. CUPE can bring forward these requests to the Employer and Employer will have sixty (60) calendar days to make any amendments, which may be extended, by mutual agreement. Thereafter the date will be considered as being established.
